MRS. J. E. HENBEST ELECTED PRESIDENT OF JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. J. E. Henbest has been elected president of the Junior Woman's club for 1942-43, according to an announcement made by the club following the first fall meeting held Monday evening at the clubhouse. Mrs. Henbest, who is one of the most prominent members of the club, will take the place of Mrs. Adrian Bowen, who has resigned as president. Miss Merle Erickson was elected secretary for the club year to take the place of Mrs. Henbest, who was previously elected secretary.

Mrs. Fletcher Gardner, vice-president, conducted the Monday evening meeting. Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, president of the Roseburg Woman's club, was in attendance and asked the cooperation of the club for the district convention to take place the following day. Mrs. Clifford E. Smith and Mrs. J. E. Henbest were appointed to have charge of the flag ceremony for the convention and Mrs. Perry Thiele, Mrs. Don Johnson, Mrs. George Hamer and Mrs. Clifford E. Smith were appointed to have charge of serving at the tea.

Mrs. O. S. Sanford, Coquille, state president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, was present and gave a very interesting talk to the group regarding the part the junior woman will be expected to play during the war.

Those present included: Mrs. O. S. Sanford, Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, Mrs. Fletcher Gardner, Mrs. George Hamer, Mrs. Don Johnson, Mrs. J. E. Henbest, Mrs. Don and White, Mrs. Carl Wassom, Mrs. Perry Thiele, Mrs. Edwin Gardner, Mrs. Clifford E. Smith, Mrs. Ralph Herman, Miss Merle Erickson, Miss Beatrice Cooney and Miss Betty Strong.

Plans are being made by the club for the annual rush party, which will be an affair of the evening of October 19 at the clubhouse. Miss Beatrice Cooney is general chairman of the party and will be assisted by Mrs. Edwin Gardner and Mrs. Clifford E. Smith.

MRS. C. M. McDERMOTT ENTERTAINS TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY BRIDGE CLUBS

Mrs. C. M. McDermott entertained at two very charming one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheons at her beautiful home on East Cass street Tuesday and Wednesday, to which she invited the members of her two bridge clubs.

Michaelmas daisies, zinnias and marigolds were attractively arranged about the rooms, while the serving table was centered with a lovely bowl of zinnias, flanked by tall tapers.

Tuesday, Mrs. McDermott entertained Mrs. Edward P. Burke of Portland (her sister, who is spending a couple of weeks here); Miss Helen Casey and Mrs. Phil D. Hart, guests, and Mrs. Fred Lockwood, Mrs. Maurice L. Hallmark, Mrs. L. K. Fies, Mrs. E. A. Pearson, Mrs. E. B. Van Ness and Mrs. Paul Geddes. Contract bridge was enjoyed during the afternoon with Mrs. Harth winning the guest prize; Mrs. Lockwood, the high score club prize, and Mrs. Geddes, the second high score club prize.

On Wednesday, guests enjoying the occasion included: Mrs. Burke, Mrs. L. L. Wimberly and Mrs. E. S. McClain. Members present included: Mrs. Marshall Penger, Mrs. U. D. Powell, Mrs. S. J. Cooper, Mrs. Scott Williams, and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter. Contract bridge was the diversion of the afternoon with Mrs. Wimberly winning the high score for guests and Mrs. Porter winning the high score club prize.

MRS. J. R. CLARK COMPLIMENTED AT CHARMING SHOWER

Mrs. J. R. Clark (Dorothy Crummett) was complimented at a very charming bridal shower party Sunday afternoon, when Mrs. Clifford E. Smith and Mrs. Fletcher Gardner were joint hostesses at the Smith home on Cobb street.

Cecil Brunner roses and attractive nosegay favors decorated the serving tables, while bouquets of pastel-colored Michaelmas daisies were arranged about the rooms. Lovely gifts were presented to Mrs. Clark from: Mrs. Peter Crummett, Mrs. J. E. Henbest, Mrs. Carl Wassom, Mrs. Perry Thiele, Mrs. Don Johnson, Mrs. Adrian Bowen, Mrs. George Frey, Mrs. George Hammer, Miss Beatrice Cooney, Miss Merle Erickson and the hostesses, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Gardner.

Games were enjoyed and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Clark and Miss Erickson at the tea hour; lovely refreshments were served by the hostesses.

MR. AND MRS. LARAUT CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Narelse LaRaut, residents of Salem, but who made their home in Douglas county for many years, returned to Wilbur Sunday to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. They were married October 5, 1892, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Chapman, in Roseburg. Mrs. LaRaut was formerly Lucy A. Dimnick. This was a romance of the Old Umpqua Academy, as well as a uniting of Douglas county's well known and highly respected pioneer families.

On last Sunday, "Old Father Time" paused in his mad career long enough for relatives and friends to meet at the Wilbur school house to honor this worthy couple, who have spent the greater part of their life in this county. Their home at the present time is in Salem among the beautiful shrubs and flowers and beside a murmuring stream, where they are always at home to their friends.

The delightful autumn day, fragrant with the aroma of flowers, and cheered by the happy faces of their children and grandchildren, as well as other relatives and many friends made it a fitting setting for this real culminating day of their greater life's romance.

The banquet table circled the spacious hall and was decorated with beautiful dahlias in full bloom and autumn leaves. Around the room were gorgeous bouquets of gladioli, zinnias and asters. There were one hundred thirty friends seated at the table. The three tiered Golden Wedding Cake graced the head of the table with the bride and groom seated near.

At the close of the dinner hour Mrs. O. C. Brown acted as toastmistress and the following important program was given: Duett, "Loves Old Sweet Song" by Mrs. Kathleen Wrenn and Mrs. Edith McKay. This was followed by the cutting of the wedding cake by Mrs. LaRaut, assisted by Mrs. Henry Booth.

Then Mrs. Wrenn and Mrs. McKay sang two duets, "Sweet Genevieve" and the grooms favorite song "Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet." This was followed by the presentation of the Wedding to the bride, a beautiful lamp, by Henry Booth. Mr. Booth prefaced his presentation of the gift by many references to the old school days and memories of the early days in Wilbur. These have become hallowed memories to many of us. Many other gifts were also received.

Later in the afternoon Mr. Frank Grubbe and Mrs. Wrenn sang duets and Mr. LaRaut played several tunes on his harmonica. It was a wonderful day, and to some extent seemed like the old reunion that was omitted this year. All wish Mr. and Mrs. LaRaut a long and happy life, in their happy, peaceful home.

Mr. and Mrs. LaRaut have two children, both of whom were present on this anniversary day: Mrs. Kathleen Wrenn of Minneapolis, Minn., and Vernon LaRaut, of Garden Valley. They, also, have six grandchildren and one great grandchild. All of the grandchildren were present except Mrs. Ralph Loomis, of San Diego, and Robert Wrenn, of Minneapolis.

The guests from out of the county are as follows: Mrs. Gilbert Wrenn, Minneapolis; Wilma LaRaut, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Bay and Reed, and Mrs. Florence Mills, Cottage Grove; Mrs. Effie Smith, Alta Delano, and Margaret Pepper, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Lewis, Mrs. Ida V. Smith, and Mrs. Lucy Adams, Eugene; Mrs. Beth Aebischer, Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ellison, Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Max Lyons, Portland.

Those present from Douglas county were, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Smith; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sands; Miss Ely Walker; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon LaRaut and James; Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Bartram and Alta; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Brown and Arlyn; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Russell; Mr. and Mrs. Harold McKay and Mary Ellen; W. H. Van Orman; Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Grae; Mrs. Martha Bass; Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Schneider; Mr. and Mrs. D. P. McKay; Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Brown; Lawrence Powell; Claire Ledtner; Doris Vincent; Mr. and Mrs. Will Beardlof; Mr. and Mrs. George S. Short; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jenkin; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kinsey; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Moore; Mrs. Effa Moore; Miss T. Wells; Rosella Bridge; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown; Mrs. Mary Lane; Mrs. Elizabeth Blakeley; Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Chapman; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Dimmick; Mrs. Pitzer Beckley; Mrs. Ella Lough; Mrs. W. A. Peator; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ritchie; Mrs. M. W. Miller; Opal Jones; Edith B. Jones; Mrs. Irene McMickle and Bonnie and Joyce; Mrs. Eva Thompson; Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Needham; Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hutchinson; Gerald Haines; Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Riddle; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Booth; Mrs. Minnie Chenoweth and Miss Ruth; Mrs. Lois Irving; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baird; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McKay; Dr. and Mrs. B. R. Shoemaker; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Medley; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pinkston; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Allen; Miss Irene Walker; Miss Olive Walker; Miss Mazie Walker; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon; Mrs. Verne Holgate and Gordon Lee; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Croft; Mrs. Belle Croft; Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Chapman; Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Crosier; Mr. and Mrs.

"NO FUSS AND FEATHERS" FOR WAF SQUADRON'S BOSS

Director Nancy Love Gets Right Down to Job Of Organizing New Women Ferry Pilots

By ANN FRANCE WILSON (NEA Service Staff Correspondent)

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 10.—There will be no fuss and feathers—no phony glamor about the WAFS as far as Director Nancy Harkness Love is concerned. That immediately becomes clear when you talk to her about the new Women's Auxiliary Ferrying squadron which will enlist fifty experienced women pilots to ferry the air force's fighting and training planes from place to place in the U. S.

WAFS UNIFORMS INCLUDE TROUSERS

Uniforms? Yes, the WAFS will have uniforms, Mrs. Love told me at the Wilmington airport, where she is busy getting things lined up for her new command. She said that since the army is not bestowing military rank on these girls, they'll be allowed to change to civilian clothes when their work's done. They'll wear trousers on the job and skirts for street wear.

Nancy Love is 28, extremely good-looking with large blue eyes and a shock of prematurely gray hair. She has an engaging, frank manner. She wore a large chronometer nearly as wide as her wrist, a blue chambray shirt-waist dress and orange moccasins, and carried a large catchall purse over her shoulder.

Between long-distance calls to Washington, she explained what she expects the WAFS will be called upon to do. "There'll be a month's training to start. We'll get drill in the morning, and half the day will be spent in classes—the other half flying.

"Of course we're all experienced pilots but we'll have to prove we can really do a job before they trust us with the multi-motored planes. You know, there's a lot of difference between landing a plane at 60 m. p. h. and 120 m. p. h."

NEW RECRUITS GET OFFICERS' BARRACKS

She has flown for twelve years. Her husband is a lieutenant colonel in the air transport command. They left on their honeymoon in their own plane and took turns piloting it. "Absolutely equal division of flying time," she assured me.

She was the only woman among the 33 pilots who ferried bombs to Canada before the fall of France. For the moment the WAFS will be limited to 50 members and Mrs. Love feels sure she'll have no trouble finding 50 efficient women pilots. She guessed there are about 500 or so licensed commercial pilots in the United States who would be available. The first five recruits are all from the eastern seaboard, but more are arriving from all over the United States.

WAF DIRECTOR NANCY HARKNESS LOVE... she has a "no-red-tape" manner.

With the same easy "no-red-tape" manner she insisted I ride back into town with her and three of the new WAFS. She stopped her convertible coupe in front of a sad-looking peagreen barracks. "These are our headquarters. Not plain barracks—we've been assigned to bachelor officers' quarters—really quite snooty.

"I've even been able to talk the colonel into giving us a full length mirror on each of the two floors and they'll put in Venetian blinds," she explained. "Furthermore, we may join the officers' club and eat in the officers' mess, but of course we won't be here much, we'll be out on the road most of the time."

The WAFS are under civil service and will receive $3000 a year. They'll be limited to domestic flying—and for the time being are on an experimental basis.

MRS. OSCAR SLACK HONORED AT LOVELY SHOWER PARTY FRIDAY

Mrs. Oscar Slack was complimented at a very lovely pink and blue shower party Friday afternoon, when Mrs. Herbert Dage, Mrs. Earl Ridgeway and Mrs. John Strom acted as hostesses.

Games and visiting were enjoyed and later the many attractive gifts were presented to Mrs. Slack, after which Mrs. Dage, Mrs. Ridgeway and Mrs. Strom served refreshments to Mrs. Slack, guest of honor, Mrs. Lester Coy, Mrs. Ernest Higginbotham, Mrs. Lorin Murphy, Mrs. Siemeon Linnell (who is visiting here from Kansas), Mrs. L. E. Moore, Mrs. James Anderson, Mrs. Don Wells, Mrs. Abe Spenos, Mrs. Hewitt, Mrs. George Ware and Mrs. Lloyd Livingston.

A pretty blue, pink and white motif was carried out on the serving table by the use of streamers.

H. E. O. CLUB HAS LUNCHEON MEETING ON WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Myrtle Norwood entertained the H. E. O. club at a lovely one o'clock luncheon at her home on Chadwick street Wednesday afternoon. Fall flowers were arranged on the table and about the rooms.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Gene Mills, Mrs. Henry Erskine, Mrs. Charnsey Dunn, Mrs. Clifton Hooper, Mrs. Arthur Perrin, Mrs. David Moyers and the hostess, Mrs. Norwood. Visiting and games were enjoyed during the afternoon. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Erskine, October 21.

B. P. W. C. TO OBSERVE NATIONAL BUSINESS WOMEN'S WEEK

The Roseburg Business and Professional Women's club will observe national business women's week by being special guests of the Baptist church at the 11 o'clock morning service Sunday, October 11. All members of the club are asked to attend this church service in a body.

On Monday evening the club will meet at 8 o'clock at the Roseburg Woman's clubhouse. A special program has been arranged for the occasion and all members are urged to be present.

MRS. MARTIN BROOKS HONORED AT CHARMING FAREWELL PARTY FRIDAY

Mrs. W. R. Wands and Mrs. Wayne Batan were joint hostesses at a very charming farewell party in compliment to the former's sister, Mrs. Martin Brooks, Friday evening at the Wands home. The affair was in the form of a surprise party and the guests gave a very lovely gift to Mrs. Brooks as a going-away present.

Visiting was enjoyed and later Mrs. Wands and Mrs. Batan served lovely refreshments to Mrs. Martin Brooks, guest of honor; Mrs. Lillian Brooks, of Thompsons, Wyoming; Mrs. David Ellis, Mrs. Redell, Mrs. Dave King and Mrs. Ethel Klaver.

Mrs. Brooks and her son, Martin Thomas, and the latter's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Lillian Brooks, were guests at dinner Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Batan; they were entertained as luncheon guests by Mrs. Ed Patterson on Thursday and on Thursday evening were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. David King.

Mrs. Brooks and son, accompanied by Mrs. Lillian Brooks, left Sunday for Myrtle Point to join Mr. Brooks, who is now manager of the Safeway store there. They were taken to the coast by Mrs. Brooks' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wands.

M. O. A. CLUB HAS DELIGHTFUL LUNCHEON MEETING WEDNESDAY

The M. O. A. club met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. J. A. Wood in the Howell apartments with Mrs. E. G. Cloake, Mrs. George Powers, Mrs. Eldon Ogle and Mrs. C. W. Cook as hostesses at a delightful one o'clock luncheon.

Beautiful bouquets of colorful fall flowers were arranged about the rooms. Covers were placed for Mrs. F. T. Horan and Mrs. Sam Smith, of Renton, Wash., guests, and Mrs. C. B. Calkins, Mrs. L. Connelly, Mrs. John Travis, Mrs. Charles Mohr, Miss Pearl Jones, Mrs. C. T. Tipton, Mrs. E. G. Cloake, Mrs. Eldon Ogle, Mrs. George Powers, Mrs. C. W. Cook and Mrs. J. A. Wood.

A victory collection was taken and will be turned over to Dr. Charles A. Edwards for the purpose of sending Christmas gifts to American prisoners of Japan. Games and visiting were enjoyed during the social hour.

The next meeting will be a one o'clock luncheon November 4 at the home of Mrs. C. W. Cook with Mrs. C. B. Calkins and Mrs. John Travis as assisting hostesses.

ART AND EMBROIDERY CLUB MEETS AT STUBBLEFIELD HOME

Mrs. Effie Stubblefield very graciously entertained the Roseburg Art and Embroidery club at her home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. C. V. Carmichael was a guest and members present included: Mrs. Frank Beels, Mrs. F. J. Cornell, Mrs. George Huff, Mrs. Earl Decker, Mrs. Hockmeister, Mrs. Lucie Ingels, Mrs. Napier, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. E. Rhoads, Mrs. H. F. Snyder, Mrs. J. G. Stephenson and Mrs. Henry Worthington.

At the tea hour, Mrs. Stubblefield served lovely refreshments. The next meeting will be October 21 at the home of Mrs. Worthington, at which time every member will furnish a number for the afternoon's program.

BRIDGE CLUB MEMBERS AND HUSBANDS ENJOY POTLUCK SUPPER PRATY

The Monday evening bridge club members entertained their husbands at a delightful six-thirty o'clock potluck supper this week at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fullerton on the South Umpqua river.

Fall blooming crocus graced the serving tables. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fullerton and daughter, Mollie; Mr. and Mrs. B.
