Gossip of the Gridiron

SEATTLE, Nov. 19—(AP)—Washington's football squad traveled south today for Saturday's game with U. C. L. A. on the departing keynote: "Oregon did it, and anything Oregon can do, we can do."

Stopping Bob Waterfield's passes—a job to which most coast conference teams have been equal—was recognized by the Huskies as their big chore. Coach Welch indicated that the Bruins might have a little pass defense problem of their own.

BERKELEY, Calif., Nov. 19—(AP)—Gene Frassetto shared left guard with regular Jack Herrero, and Tony Fredman worked out alongside of first string Ernie Gentner at right guard yesterday as California's football warriors practiced for the Stanford game Saturday.

Coach Allison said the innovation was an attempt to develop the two as reserves at the spots which have proved weak in the past.

Allison made no promises regarding Saturday's outcome but did say, "we may come home."

PALO ALTO, Calif., Nov. 19—(AP)—Three Stanford football players returned to the field yesterday.
