MRS. A. J. GEDDES PRESENTS CHARMING THANKSGIVING PROGRAM

Mrs. A. J. Geddes is being highly complimented for presenting one of the finest Thanksgiving programs ever held by the Roseburg Women's club at a one-thirty o'clock dinner-luncheon Tuesday at the clubhouse with Mrs. W. B. Brown and Mrs. George K. White acting as joint hostesses.

Beautiful bouquets of chrysanthemums were arranged on the tables and about the room. Covers were placed for: Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, president, Mrs. A. J. Geddes, Mrs. C. E. Banning, Mrs. A. S. Coen, Mrs. J. Roland Parker, Mrs. Homer Grow, Mrs. Armour Murdoch, Mrs. C. H. Bailey, Miss Marie Martens, Mrs. C. E. Jasmin, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Miss Kay Ward, Mrs. Foster Turner, Mrs. L. A. Wells, Mrs. L. Kohlhaugen, Sr., Mrs. H. T. Carstens, Mrs. O. S. Chambers, Mrs. I. B. Riddle, Mrs. R. W. Marsters, Mrs. Walter Good, Mrs. Albert Micelli, Mrs. Jack Soksdorf, Mrs. Earl Ulrich, Mrs. C. E. Gullekson, Miss Jennie Joyce, Mrs. H. B. Carter, Mrs. Ernest H. Carter, Mrs. Mickle, Mrs. Robert Laws, Mrs. George K. Quine, Mrs. W. R. Brown and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

The invocation was given by the chaplain, Mrs. A. J. Geddes, followed by a community sing led by Mrs. Homer Grow. Two very delightful and charming roll-call topics were given by Mrs. C. E. Banning on "International Relations" and by Mrs. Homer Grow on the topic, "Practical Happiness."

Mrs. Hatfield conducted a short business meeting and introduced Mrs. Geddes as program chairman. Mrs. Geddes introduced Rev. Perry Smith, rector of St. George's Episcopal church, who gave an exceptionally fine and inspiring talk, after which Mrs. Geddes very beautifully read from memory "The Landing of the Pilgrims." The program closed with an enjoyable quiz contest.

The next affair of the club will be a very charming musicale tea to be held at two o'clock the afternoon of December 1 at the clubhouse with Mrs. Homer Grow as chairman. Prominent Roseburg musicians will assist Mrs. Grow with the presentation of the program, which will be open to the public. No admission charge will be made. Following the program, a silver tea will be held. Members of the club having birthdays from July through December will act as hostesses and will furnish cookies for the tea. There will be no roll-call speakers at the tea nor at the Christmas party, which will be held December 15.

DELPHIAN CLUB MEETS WEDNESDAY AT FORD HOME One of the most charming parties of the week was the one o'clock luncheon given Wednesday by Mrs. Mark L. Underwood at her home on Fowler street. The party was one of a series given during the last month by Mrs. Underwood. A very beautiful yellow and white motif was carried out by the use of attractive arrangement of large Turner chrysanthemums. The hostess was assisted in serving by her sister, Mrs. M. P. Barrett. Covers were placed for twenty. Five tables of contract bridge were in play during the pleasant afternoon hours with Mrs. W. E. Futrelle winning the high score; Mrs. Harry S. Black winning the second high score, and Mrs. Fred Hamilton, winning the traveling prize.

MRS. L. L. WIMBERLY ELECTED CAPTAIN OF WOMEN'S MOTOR CORPS Mrs. L. L. Wimberly was elected captain of the Roseburg Women's Motor corps at a meeting held last week, following the instruction class held by Harry Pinniger, Douglas county defense co-ordinator. Following the class, the group went to the home of Mrs. Harris Ellsworth on Winchester street to enjoy a social hour. A lovely gift was presented by the group to Mrs. Ellsworth on behalf of her work as Douglas county chairman of the Motor Corps. Miss Agnes Pitchford was appointed new county chairman to take Mrs. Ellsworth's place, as the latter is leaving soon with Dr. Ellsworth for Washington, D. C.

Following the social hour, Mrs. Ellsworth served lovely refreshments.

Booths Locations For Bond-Stamp Sales Are Listed

Booths for the sale of war savings bonds and stamps will be opened Monday at the courthouse in Roseburg and at the following places of business: Chapman's Drug store, Fisher's Department store, J. C. Penney company store, Parkinson's Food store, Henninger's Stephens street market, Montgomery Ward company store, Grimm's grocery, Morgan's grocery and the Rose and Umpqua hotels. The hotel booths will be opened only in the evenings. These sales booths will be operated by committees from various women's clubs and organizations as a part of the "Women at War" week observance. Committees which will be engaged in the sale of bonds and stamps are to meet at 9:30 a. m. Monday at the Douglas Abstract company office to receive materials and instructions.

Mrs. Edythe Gilmore, chairman of the local observance of the special week, reports a challenge from an unidentified merchant to any other merchant or group of merchants. This business man, Mrs. Gilmore states, agrees to match maximum sales of any other merchant up to $1,000 in purchase of war savings bonds. Thus, if the challenge is accepted, a merchant who buys bonds equalling his maximum sales, will draw a like amount from the challenger, up to the $1,000 limit. Mrs. Gilmore reports. The local committee will receive credit for the total sales.
