Private and Mrs. Erney Orrin Radtke.

Miss Emma Louise Dishman, lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dishman, of this city, and Private First Class Erney Orrin Radtke, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Radtke, of Dunsmuir, Calif., were married at very beautiful double ring ceremony Thursday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on Pitzer street.

Rev. Melville T. Wire, pastor of the Methodist church, performed the ceremony and Craig Dishman, brother of the bride, acted as the attendant. The day marked the 24th wedding anniversary of the bridegroom's parents.

Huge baskets of gold and white chrysanthemums were arranged in the living room, while an improvised altar was arranged at one end of the room by the use of tall ferns and red, white and blue candles. Miss Eleanor Mitchell played soft wedding music throughout the ceremony.

The bride was very attractive in a gold-colored silk crepe frock, fashioned with gold trim and tiny brown buttons. Her accessories were brown and she wore a corsage of gardenias and roses, fashioned in the shape of a heart.

The bride's mother wore an attractive green-colored frock and the bridegroom's mother was lovely in a flowered silk frock. Both mothers wore carnation corsages.

MISS BETTY SHOEMAKER AND WALTER H. ALLEN MARRY SUNDAY AFTERNOON

At one of the loveliest weddings of the season, Miss Betty Shoemaker, charming daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. R. Shoemaker, of this city, became the bride of Walter H. Allen, of Medford, at an impressive ceremony performed at one o'clock Sunday, November 15, by Dr. Morris H. Roach, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, at the home of the bride's parents on Blakeley street.

Pink and white chrysanthemums formed the bouquets about the rooms, while the fireplace was decorated entirely with white chrysanthemums and white candles.

Preceding the wedding ceremony, Miss Gladys H. Strong played "Because," and followed with the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was very attractive in a floor-length gown of white jersey crepe trimmed with crystal beads. Her lily-white wedding veil was fashioned with an attractive Juliet cap outlined with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible, topped by an orchid.

Miss D'Ann Shoemaker, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore lovely in a floor-length blue tulle gown with overskirt of blue net. She carried a nosegay of white pom-pom chrysanthemums and pink ranunculus. Delbert Clifford, of Medford, acted as best man.

The bride's mother was straggled in a floor-length gown of blue and her corsage was of pink roses. Madame M. J. Shoemaker, paternal grandmother of the bride, also wore a corsage of pink roses.

A reception followed, at which time the beautiful tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom. The serving table, covered by an exquisite lace cloth, was centered by the wedding cake, flanked by flat arrangements of white chrysanthemums and tall white tapers. Mrs. Fred Hamilton and Mrs. S. J. Shoemaker, an aunt of the bride, poured. Miss Roberta Edwards, Miss Jeanne Smith, students at University of Oregon, and Miss Anna Scriber, of Medford, served and Miss Florence Hamilton had charge of the guest book.

The many beautiful wedding gifts were displayed in one room. Mrs. Herman Koontz, of McMinnville, served the wedding cake.

For traveling the bride chose a winter white jersey dress with brown accessories. Her corsage was a fried chicken wedding breakfast was served to twelve at the Hotel Umpqua, after which the bride and bridegroom left for coast points on their honeymoon. They will make their home in the Kohlhaagen apartments.

The bride is one of Roseburg's most attractive young ladies. She was graduated from high school here in 1940 and is now employed at her store. The bridegroom was graduated from high school at Dunsmuir in 1939 and later was employed by the railroad company and is now in the U. S. service.

OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS attending the wedding included Mrs. Herman Koontz, of McMinnville, Mrs. Cecelia Watzig, Miss Ruby Edwards, Miss Jeanne Smith, Miss Florence Hamilton and Sara and Bertram Shoemaker, all students at University of Oregon, and Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Scriber and daughter, Miss Anne, near Me and Mrs. Delbert Clifford, of Medford.

The bride is very well known in this city, having attended the local schools and was later graduated from the school of journalism at University of Oregon. She was employed at the Roseburg News-Review and is now society editor of the Medford Mail-Tribune, where she will continue her duties. The bridegroom is employed by the Union Oil company of Medford.

The bride was honored at several charming shower parties both in Medford and Roseburg, prior to the wedding.
