PUBLIC INVITED TO TEA THIS EVENING AND AGAIN TUESDAY AFTERNOON

In observance of national "Women at War" week, the Junior Woman's club will sponsor a tea tonight, Nov. 23, at the Episcopal parish hall from 8 to 10 o'clock. A defense stamp or bonds will be charged as admission to the tea. All stamps and bonds purchased by those attending the affair will be retained by the purchaser.

Miss Athalie Taylor is general chairman with Mrs. William Shoun in charge of the music; Miss Beatrice Cooney in charge of selling stamps and bonds, and Mrs. Edwin Gardner, refreshment chairman, assisted by Mrs. Carl Wasson and Mrs. Donald White. Mrs. J. E. Henbest, president of the club, and Mrs. Jack Chapman, past president of the club, will pour.

George Starmer auxiliary will sponsor a very charming tea at the beautiful F. M. Compton home at 304 Spruce street from two-thirty to five-thirty Tuesday afternoon, November 24. Stamps or bonds, which the purchaser may keep, will be charged as admission. There will be a lovely display of antiques and needlework. The public is cordially invited to attend.

THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL CHRISTMAS T. B. SEAL SALE OPENS TODAY

The thirty-sixth annual Christmas T. B. Seal sale opened today and Douglas county residents will be receiving their seals in the mail. Seals have been prepared for the mails during the last several weeks and persons receiving same, are asked to make their remittances as soon as possible to the Douglas county chairman, Mrs. C. E. Roberts.

School children were given an opportunity to purchase seals today, when Mrs. Donn Radabaugh, representing the seal sale committee, called at the grade and high schools with posters, bangle pins and seals.

An opportunity for persons to purchase seals at the local post office is being arranged by the committee, and plans are being made for maintaining a booth at the post office on Saturdays throughout the month of December.

Owners of 1,515 Passenger Autos Register Here

Owners of 1,515 passenger vehicles in the city of Roseburg made application for gasoline ration books during the registration period last week, R. L. Preston, executive secretary of the local war price and rationing board, announced today. Registration returns from communities outside of the city of Roseburg have not been completed.

Owners of commercial vehicles apparently have some misunderstanding regarding the filing of applications, Preston reported. Such owners must file their certificates of war necessity but must also fill out an application form. Many are merely sending in the certificate without completing the application, Preston said. Unless the application form is filled out in full, it will be necessary
