Meat Tops Food Goal Boost For Oregon Next Year

PORTLAND, Dec. 7-(AP) R. B. Taylor, chairman of the federal department of agricul-ture war board for Oregon, today announced increased food goals where a 15 per cent boost is ask ed in slaughter of hogs and poul-try and a 14 per cent increase in cattle. Taylor said a total of 79,000 pounds of turkeys must be pro-tuced to meet the goal. The lamb and mutton quota, nowever, was cut 15 per cent to 744,000 head, to conserve Oregon flocks.

A reduction also is suggested for wheat. The quota calls for 720,000 acres, 8 per cent below the state AAA allotment for 1943. Wheat in storage, plus 650,000 acres of corn, oats, barley and of sugar beets, no change; 3,000 acres of dry beans, no change; 20,000 acres of dry edible beans, change; 9,000 acres of alfalfa seed, up 80 per cent. County quotas will be estab-
