Local News

Theta Rho Club To Meet—Alpha Zeta Theta Rho girls club will meet Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the I. O. O. F. hall. Members of the Rebekah lodge have been invited.

Leaves For Navy Training—Bill Chalmers, graduate of Roseburg high school and until recently employed in the News-Review mechanical department, left Wednesday for Portland to enter the U. S. navy.

Fine Is Paid—A fine of $10 was paid in the justice court here today by Herbert R. Finch of Sutherlin, who pleaded guilty to a charge of operating a motor vehicle without a driver's license.

Returns To Camp—Roy Durnivan, who has been spending a brief furlough visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Durnivan, at Myrtle Creek and his sister, Mrs. Ialo D. Stephens, in Roseburg, left this morning for his post at Fort Harrison, Helena, Montana, where he is receiving commando training.

Enlist in Navy—Howard (Hap) Applegate, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Applegate, former Roseburg residents now residing in Yoncalla, has enlisted in the naval reserve. Applegate, former News-Review sports writer and well known local athlete, is attending the University of Oregon. He plans to complete his academic year, under present arrangements, but is subject to call at any time, if needed.

Will Present Concert—Dr. R. L. Dunn, George Leeper, Fred Bonebrake and Lawrence Rand, who compose the Roseburg Gleason male quartette, plan to go to Riddle Sunday to give a special sacred concert in connection with the evangelistic service at the Christian church in that city. The usual morning service will be followed by a noon day dinner to be served by the Riddle church ladies. The afternoon's program and concert will be held at two o'clock. The service is open to all persons interested.

Myrtle Creek

MYRTLE CREEK, Dec. 10—J. J. Eppinger, of Eppinger-Hill farm, is happy to have as his guests this week his daughter, Mrs. J. R. Stalder, and her baby daughter, Suellen, who arrived last Saturday from Hampton, Va. They will visit until Mr. Stalder, who is a research engineer, with National Aviation committee of aeronautics, who has been moved to Cleveland, Ohio can locate his family in their new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Buell of Richmond, Calif., visited here over last week end. Mr. Buell is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Goldwyn Buell. He has been working in housing projects in Richmond but is now called into some other branch of the service and will be sent to some other post soon.

J. A. J. Yokum who has been ill in a Roseburg hospital is reported to be improving slowly and expects to be able to come home soon.
Mrs. Helmut Pilehe, nee Alberta Yokum, has resigned as a teacher in the Sutherlin school and has gone to New Orleans, where her husband is employed as a finisher in the photography department of the U. S. army.

Mrs. Margaret Way is taking care of Mrs. R. R. Peters, who has been ill since August from a paralytic stroke.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strong are home from a visit with their son, and family, Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey Strong and children, in Portland. The Strong's are moving into their new home which they recently purchased from Henry Ackert.

Mrs. Ruth Wynter and Mrs. Margaret Mannis, who have been California visitors for two weeks, returned home last Saturday.
Miss Kathryn Rice, who is a student at Northwest Christian college at Eugene, visited over the Thanksgiving week end at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. V. Bounds at Dole.

Mrs. John F. Rice who has been in failing health for some time is reported to be improving.
Mrs. S. L. Buell is visiting in Roseburg with her daughter, Mrs. Helen Baldwin, and taking treatments for her eyes which are giving her trouble.
The women of the local Methodist are busy cracking walnuts. Their first order this year is 115 sacks and they are working at them every day.

BABY'S COLDS
Relieve misery fast—externally. Rub on
VICKS VAPORUB

WITH NEVER A SLIP, Britain's prime minister flits his way up greasy logs which are part of battle course on which he has been watching infantry troops train. (Passed by censor.)

ITALY AND CALIFORNIA are alike in many ways besides general size. While California's area is half again as much as Italy's, both are about 700 miles long. The two grow citrus fruits, are largely agricultural and have snowy mountain regions as well as sun-swept beaches. California's industries are in the south, however, while Italy's are in the far northern area. Italy's population is 45,000,000, and California's is 7,000,000, including 247,971 Italians (100,911 born in Italy).

Gifts are not to be wrapped and may be sent by Junior Red Cross members to the schools and will latter be turned over to the Red Cross to be sent to the Camp White hospital.

Post Office to Extend Hours for Yule Mailing

The Roseburg post office will be open during the afternoon hours on Dec. 12 and 13, L. L. Wimberly, postmaster, announced today. Ordinarily the post office closes at noon each Saturday, but in order to accommodate patrons mailing Christmas parcels the office will remain open until 6 p. m. until Christmas week, Wimberly stated. Due to the heavy load on limited transportation facilities, postal officials are urging that all Christmas mail be posted earlier than usual in order to assure delivery by Christmas day.
