PUBLIC INVITED TO JOB'S DAUGHTERS INSTALLATION CEREMONY

The public has been cordially invited to attend the very beautiful installation of new officers ceremony of Roseburg Bethel No. 8, Job's Daughters, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Masonic temple.

The ceremony is lovely and is one of the very few affairs of the order, which is open to the public.

COMMUNITY CHRISTMAS TREE TO BE HELD

YONCALLA, Dec. 21.—The neighbors on Strawberry Hill met at the George Kellogg home recently and decided to have a community Christmas tree and exchange gifts on the eve of Dec. 23, at the Frank Huckins home. Refreshments will be served following the exchange of gifts.

Blanks Received Here For Price Ceiling Plan

The local price and rationing board has received copies of form No. R-1202 which wholesalers and retailers are required to use in connection with price ceiling reports. R. L. Preston, executive secretary of the board, reported today. The forms must be filled out and returned to the board by Dec. 31, Preston said.

Merchants who need these forms prior to submitting the report are requested to obtain them from the office of the rationing board in the Perkins building. The board also announces that any retailers or wholesalers in this area who roast green coffee should appear at the local office for instructions concerning official regulations.
