Frank L. Wells and Joanne Anderson Marry at Impressive Ceremony

Candlelight from white tapers in tall candelabra gleaming against green laurel formed a beautiful setting in the Alpha Chi Omega sorority house on the Oregon State college campus, Sunday, December 27, when Miss Joanne G. Anderson, daughter of Mrs. E. G. Anderson, of Albany, Ore., became the bride of Frank L. Wells, of Rochester, New York, son of Dr. and Mrs. Lee A. Wells, of Roseburg, Dr. H. Leech, of Albany, read the impressive ceremony at four o'clock in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends. Miss Helen Poling was at the piano and played the wedding music and traditional wedding marches and accompanied Miss Mildred Jerigan as she sang, "At Dawning."

The candles were lighted by Miss Frances and Miss Florence Lilburn, of Salem, cousins of the bridegroom. Charlotte Weatherford and Alice Allison Kropp, two little Albany misses, were ribbon bearers and wore pink and blue taffeta frocks and little Dawn Farley, also of Albany, was the winsome flower girl in blue taffeta. The three carried miniature nosegays.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, L. C. Anderson, of Portland, was charming in a wedding gown of white silk chiffon. Her veil of net, edged in lace, was an heirloom of her family. She carried her Rainbow prayer book topped by a cascade of white orchids.

Miss Marjorie Anderson was her sister's maid of honor and she wore a lovely yellow taffeta and tulle frock. Her bouquet was fashioned of Tulleman roses and violets. Ensign Lee Wells, Jr., of Annapolis, was best man to his brother.

The bride's mother wore a charming powder blue dinner dress with a corsage of pink roses and gardenias. The bridegroom's mother was attractive in a green crepe dress and her corsage was of yellow roses and gardenias. Mrs. A. J. Lilburn, grandmother of the bridegroom, was attired in dark blue and her corsage was of gardenias.

A reception in the chapter house followed the ceremony.
