CHARMING PIANO RECITAL GIVEN BY PUPILS OF MISS STRONG

A very interesting piano recital was given last Thursday evening by pupils of Gladys H. Strong. This was the first of a series of informal recitals to be given at her home during the winter.

The program was quite varied as young beginners as well as advanced students were presented. Several played for the first time. The group showed a very high average of talent and playfulness showing interest and enthusiasm for their work.

A social hour was enjoyed at the close of the program and refreshments were served.

CENTRAL L. T. L. HAS MEETING AT ACKERT HOME ON WEDNESDAY

The North Central L. T. L. met Wednesday at the home of the leader, Mrs. Edith S. Ackert, at 814 Winchester street with Juanita Thomas, president, conducting the business session.

Following the regular devotions and business routine, singing was enjoyed with Betty Matthews at the piano. The new matter of business was the signing of the S. S. pledges sent by Mrs. Fred L. Southwick, general director, by a large part of the membership as only five of the 17 members were absent. The special numbers were the contest selections by Juanita Thomas and Ida Chamberlin, who will appear in contest for the bronze bar next Sunday at 11 a. m. at the Nazarene church. All members are urged to be present at the next meeting to be held after school January 27.

MRS. R. L. STRICKLE COMPLIMENTED AT INFORMAL TEA THURSDAY

Mrs. U. D. Powell very graciously entertained a few friends at her attractive home on Winchester street Thursday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. R. L. Strickle, who recently moved to this city from Spokane, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Strickle are making their home in the Ritter duplex on East Oak street.

Chrysanthemums formed a pretty motif for the occasion. Visiting was enjoyed and at the tea hour Mrs. Powell served lovely refreshments to: Mrs. Strickle, guest of honor, Mrs. Richard Thompson and son, David; Mrs. Fred A. Knight, Mrs. K. D. Lytle and Mrs. Clyde Carstens.

WEST MELROSE CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE AFTERNOON MEETING

MELROSE, Jan. 16.—Mrs. C. O. Critser and Mrs. Charles Hamman entertained the West Melrose club at the former's home Thursday afternoon, Jan. 15. The annual election of officers was held. Mrs. H. E. Evans was elected president, Mrs. H. M. Cox, vice president, Mrs. H. G. Thompson, secretary, and Mrs. E. M. Seeley, treasurer.

Mrs. B. A. Gann, the retiring president, was presented with a gift from the club members in appreciation for the past year's work. The Red Cross home sewing was given out, and Mrs. Hamman served a delicious lunch to: Mrs. Seeley, Mrs. Gann, Mrs. E. W. Galla, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Critser, Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Ray S. Petrequin, Mrs. Thompson, and David Hamman.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Evans Thursday afternoon, January 21. Mrs. Gann will be assistant hostess. All members welcome.

ROSEBURG WOMAN'S CLUB TO ENJOY POETRY PROGRAM NEXT TUESDAY

Mrs. A. S. Coen will be hostess chairman at one-thirty o'clock dessert luncheon for the Roseburg Woman's club members and invited guests next Tuesday at the clubhouse.

Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, president, will conduct the meeting and roll-call speakers will present topics, after which Mrs. H. B. Carter will present a charming program on poetry with Mrs. V. V. Harpham, Mrs. L. L. Spencer and Mrs. Homer Grow, special speakers, assisted by members of the club. The program promises to be of unusual entertainment and interest and a large attendance of members is desired.

B. P. W. C. HAS INTERESTING MEETING ON MONDAY EVENING

The Business and Professional Women's club held a very interesting meeting Monday evening at the clubhouse with Mrs. Bess Stark as chairman. Following the meeting Mrs. Stark presented a very delightful reading of "Washington Slept Here."

Miss Ruth Roberts, a guest of the evening, was the winner of the door prize. Lovely refreshments were served later in the evening. The next meeting was announced for the evening of January 25.

GREEN STUDY CLUB HAT POTLUCK LUNCHEON AND MEETING TUESDAY

The Green Study club met at the home of Mrs. Harriet Piper for a delightful potluck luncheon and session Tuesday.

Covers were placed for Mrs. E. P. Ballou, Mrs. N. R. Fisher, Mrs. Bessie Lounsbury, Mrs. Treddie Claypool, Mrs. Gertrude Hess, Mrs. Josephine Parkhurst, Mrs. Percy Myers and the hostess, Mrs. Piper.

The next meeting will be January 19 at a potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Parkhurst.

W. C. T. U. HAS INTERESTING MEETING WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The Roseburg W. C. T. U. met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. H. Wickham on Mill street. Mrs. Annie L. Russell, president, conducted the meeting and Mrs. C. W. Groves and Mrs. William Adair acted as joint hostesses.

The devotions on Matthew 13-27 were beautifully presented by Mrs. Len B. Fishback, after which Mrs. Jessie Gibbs Waggoner sang a lovely solo.

It was announced that $25 had been sent to the Childrens Farm Home at Corvallis. This Farm Home is the major project of the W. C. T. U. and every method is being made by the members to keep the needs of the Home before the public as in war time so many demands are made on the public, that sometimes the necessary projects here are neglected. As the Childrens Farm Home at Corvallis is one of the finest institutions of its kind and a large number of former boys of that home are now in the armed services, the W. C. T. U. members are trying especially hard to keep up their support of the institution. Residents of Douglas county are reported to have been most generous over the holidays with donations of money and gifts for the home.

Mrs. Arthur Marsh, of Look-Inglass, and her mother, Mrs. Smith, were present to enjoy the meeting and Mrs. Marsh asked that a rising vote of thanks be given by the group for Dr. Charles A. Edwards for his column in the News-Review.

It was reported that two new Loyal Temperance Legions were being organized: one on Deer creek and the other in the south part of Roseburg.

Mrs. Lulu Gorrell, Douglas county school superintendent, was guest speaker and presented various types of text books from the grade and junior high school from which she read instructions regarding the affects of narcotics, alcohol and smoking on the health of the human body. She also related experiences of her own as a teacher and as county school superintendent, regarding this subject and she closed her talk by giving high praise to the 4-H club program.

Tea was served by the hostesses and a pleasant social hour of visiting was enjoyed.

EDNA BROWN AND GLEN L. SPENCER MARRY IN SALEM

Mrs. Edna Brown, former resident of this city, and Glen L. Spencer, of Salem, were married at an impressive ceremony in the chapel of the Episcopal church at Salem Saturday, January 9. Dr. G. B. Swift, rector of the church, performed the ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon.

In the absence of her son, Lt. Will H. Brown, the bride was given in marriage by her daughter, Mrs. Rex Dick (Sally Brown). Miss Frances Spencer, daughter of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and Rex Dick, son-in-law of the bride, was best man.

The bride wore a very attractive delf blue frock with matching hat and accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

The maid of honor wore a black frock with delf blue accessories and Mrs. Dick wore a black ensemble. Both wore corsages of pink carnations and violets.

Following a brief honeymoon, they will be at home at 1460 North Church street, Salem, where the bridegroom is in business. The bride is very well known in Roseburg, having made her home here for the last 19 years. Since renting her home in this city a year and a half ago, she has divided her time by staying in Salem and living with her daughter, Mrs. Dick, at Shedd, Ore. The engagement of Mrs. Brown and Mr. Spencer was told at a turkey dinner Christ-mas day at the Dick home.

CANTEEN CORPS HONORS MEMBER AT CHARMING SHOWER ON WEDNESDAY

The members of the Canteen Corps sponsored a very charming shower party Wednesday evening at the Paul Jenkins home in Laurelvood in compliment to Mrs. B. J. Howser, Mrs. Jenkins was assisted during the evening by Mrs. Noble Goettel, Miss Alice Ueland and Mrs. L. W. Ruhl.

The many beautiful gifts were presented to Mrs. Howser and were arranged in an attractively decorated doll carriage. Later lovely no-hostess refreshments were served to: Mrs. Howser, guest of honor, Mrs. Roy Belows, county Canteen chairman, Mrs. Velle Broadway, city chairman, Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. Fred Kueck, Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. L. W. Ruhl, Miss Alice Ueland, Mrs. Noble Goettel, Mrs. C. E. Roberts, Mrs. C. W. Wharton, Mrs. Harry S. Black, Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mrs. T. B. Virden and Mrs. Paul Jenkins.

Plans were made during the evening for the antique show and benefit card party to be sponsored the afternoon and evening of January 22 at the Elks temple.

MISS WILMA A. LARAUT MARRIED AT MILITARY WEDDING NEW YEAR'S DAY

Wilma A. Laraut of Roseburg, Oregon became the bride of Sgt. Edward A. Moskal of Elizabeth, New Jersey at a grand military wedding held New Year's day, at three o'clock in the afternoon, in the Long Beach Community church, with Chaplain Walter C. Durbin of Sgt. Moskal's army company at Camp Pioneer, officiating.

The bride was charming in a two-piece military blue suit with British tan accessories and adorned with a corsage of white chrysanthemums. She was given in marriage by Lt. Anthony M. Pico. The maid of honor, Miss Barbara Wildman, of Tacoma, was attractive in a jersey, iaf-feta ensemble and a corsage of orchid chrysanthemums. Sgt. Frank Divito of New York City, was best man.

Pvt. John Conroy of New York sang "Ave Maria" and "Because." He was accompanied by Miss Rosanne Crowley of Long Beach. White cathedral tapers and a floral and fern arrangement made a fit setting for the nuptial ceremony. His infantry company attended the wedding. A reception was held at Maud's cafe in Ilwaco where a turkey dinner was served the wedding party with military bridal party decorations was also served.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. N. Laraut of Roseburg, Ore., and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Moskal of Elizabeth, New Jersey. Sgt. and Mrs. Edward A. Moskal are now at home to their friends, residing at the Worthington Long View court, in Long Beach.

GRAY LADIES ENJOY INTERESTING MEETING AT W. R. BROWN HOME

Mrs. W. R. Brown very graciously entertained the Gray Ladies at a lovely seven-thirty o'clock dessert-supper Friday evening at her attractive home on Moore street. Puffballs, Chinese lilies and tall white tapers formed a pretty motif for the occasion.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Velle Broadway, chairman, Mrs. L. W. Josse, Mrs. T. B. Virden, Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, Mrs. Geo. Wharton, Mrs. Thomas Peterson, Miss Marie Martens, Miss Margaret N. Johnson, Miss Lou du Geyre, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Macdonald and the hostess, Mrs. Brown.

Mr. Macdonald, who is in charge of recreation at the Veterans Administration Facility here, gave a splendid talk to the group telling of the responsibilities of the Gray Ladies and the value of their services to the patients at the Facility.

Plans were made for the organization to hold a dance at the Facility the evening of February 26. There will be no regular meeting of the group during February and the next meeting planned will be held the evening of March 5 at the home of Mrs. T. B. Virden on North Jackson street.

DELPHIAN CLUB HAS MEETING WEDNESDAY AT KENNETH FORD HOME
