

Lead at Stake as RHS Faces Tilt With Grants Pass

The Roseburg high school Indians will travel to Ashland Friday for two games of basketball, to be played Friday and Saturday nights, as they endeavor to continue in a tie with the Grants Pass Cavemen at the top of the southern Oregon conference standings. Grants Pass Tuesday night won from Ashland, 28 to 18.

The Medford Pear Pickers, in a non-conference game Tuesday, won from Klamath Falls, 43 to 37.

Roseburg and Grants Pass are both undefeated, although Roseburg had two exceedingly close calls in playing Medford, winning each game by only one point.

In preparation for the trip to Ashland, Coach Hod Turner has been working diligently to improve his team's ball handling, and reports marked progress. The Indians have been somewhat ragged this season on short passing, particularly on fast-offensive breaks in the scoring zone. Their defensive work has been well done, and they have shown ability to work themselves into scoring position, but have had some difficulty with working the ball in toward the basket and also in shooting. Experience and practice, however, is expected to smooth out both of these troubles.

Prospects are that the high spots of the conference will be on the dates of January 29 and 30, when Grants Pass plays at Roseburg, and February 5 and 6, when Roseburg goes to Medford.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

The only glory in life is to leave the world better for having been in it. Intoxicating drinks do not help us do that. When I was a lad, I signed the total abstinence pledge, and to this day I have kept it. Even more dangerous than ordinary alcoholic beverages are many of the cocktails prepared for social occasions. These contain essential oils such as oil of Indian hemp which changes ideas of time and space, oil of absinthe, which induces convulsive attacks similar to those of epilepsy, nutmeg and other spices act in the same way. The cocktail is taken on an empty stomach. The absence of food and the irritation set up by the oils both make for rapidity of absorption. One reason for the ice being used is probably to mask the too pronounced flavors. The alcohol in the cocktail owing to its strength and the conditions under which it is taken, induces a feeling of elation and excitement. Natural modesty, shyness, and self-centered control becomes self evident and prudence and restraint are lacking. How true are the words of the scriptures, "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging, and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise. Amen."

Children Flee When Fire Destroys Home

BROWNSVILLE, Ore., Jan. 21.—(AP)—Fire destroyed a landmark building here yesterday and forced three youngsters to flee in their night gowns.

The structure, built in early days by the late J. M. Meyer, had been used as a sawmill and undertaker's parlor as well as a residence.

The blaze started after Mrs. Zeldi Kramer had left for work. Dorothy Kramer, 14, smelled smoke and found the lower rooms in flames. She escaped with her brother, Basil, 10, and a sister, Marjorie, 12.

G. A. R. Chief Hurt on Day Of His Birthday Party

PORTLAND, Jan. 21.—(AP)—A party observing the 98th birthday of Theodore A. Penland, department commander of the G. A. R., will be held as scheduled in the courthouse tonight—but without the honor guest.

Penland is in veterans hospital with chest and hip injuries suffered early today when an automobile in which he was riding was in a traffic mishap south of Oregon City.

He was returning for the party from Salem, where he attended a session of the legislature.

Jobless Pay Bills Are Given to Legislators risks, while the companies get the good risks.

Would Hoist Police Pay

The house judiciary committee recommended passage of a bill by Rep. John Hall to increase salaries of state policemen, but the bill was then referred to the ways and means committee. The bill would increase the annual salaries of the deputy state police superintendent from $3600 to $4000, recruits from $1920 to $2400, sergeants from $2200 to $2700, lieutenants from $2400 to $2800, and captains from $3000 to $3600.

The house alcoholic control committee voted 3 to 2 to recommend passage of a bill to permit sale of wines over the bar, if they don't contain more than 14 per cent alcohol.

The bill is designed to promote the sale of sweet wine made from Oregon fruits and berries.

The senate mining committee introduced a bill to appropriate $1000 out of game funds to be used for expenses of the Rogue river coordination board, which coordinates mining and fishing interests on the Rogue river.

Better Enforcement Asked

The Klamath county house and senate delegations introduced a bill today to give police, district, justice and circuit courts exclusive jurisdiction in cases of motor vehicle law violation, regardless of the age of the offenders. This, the delegation said, would provide for more strict enforcement of motor vehicle laws in cases of juvenile violations. Juvenile courts would not be able to discharge the youthful offenders.

The senate passed and sent to the house bills to permit men over 18 years of age in military service to draft their own wills and legal documents, to guarantee that net fishermen in military service shall retain their fishing rights, and to authorize probate and circuit courts to issue birth certificates.

Bigger Trucks at Issue

The first public hearing of the legislature will be held next Wednesday afternoon or evening on the bill to permit bigger trucks to operate on state highways, the house roads and highways committee said today.

The highway commission adopted a temporary order last June to allow bigger trucks, and the bill would make this order permanent. It would permit the increase of maximum truck length and weight from 50 feet and 54,000 pounds to 60 feet and 68,000 pounds.

The Association of Oregon Counties will fight the bill, as will the railroads. A similar bill was defeated last session.

The Oregon State guard, which would have gone out of existence today, got a new lease on life yesterday when Governor Snell signed a bill to keep the guard in service until he proclaims it is no longer needed.

Pension Bills Offered

Seven old age pension bills, sponsored by the Fraternal Order of Eagles, were introduced today by Rep. Perry, St. Helens democrat.

The bills would provide $40 monthly pensions, reduce the number of case workers, eliminate most case investigations, give the legislature access to case records, and eliminate the governor's appointments to county public welfare commissions, turning the commissions' functions over to county courts. Graduates of professional schools who now are in the armed forces would be given licenses to practice their professions without examinations at the end of the war, a bill introduced by Senators Wallace and Lynch, both of Portland, provides.

The bill would apply to men who have been in service for at least six months.

The house adopted a resolution by Rep. Wells of Portland to require the painting of the hands on the house clock so that members can tell what time it is.

The clock, almost invisible, has bronze hands, numerals and a bronze-colored background.

Wells, who suggested the hands be painted white, said in his resolution that older members work so hard that their eyesight is bad, while younger members can't see for "various and sundry reasons."

Rep. Perry introduced a resolution calling for a series of public hearings in the house chamber for discussion of tax legislation.

Perry said such hearings should be held so that the public can learn about tax matters.

Sales Tax Wanted

Sen. McKenna, Portland, vice chairman of the senate assessment and taxation committee, outlined his tax program to his fellow committee members today.

McKenna wants:

A sales tax to produce between $20,000,000 and $25,000,000 a year, a 40-mill property tax limit, a flat personal income tax rate of 3 per cent instead of the existing 2 to 8 per cent rate, a flat 5 per cent corporation income tax rate instead of the present 8 per cent tax, elimination of the tax on unearned income, and reduction of the gift and inheritance taxes.

Delivery of Logs to Orwest Mill Continues

Although handicapped by wet weather, deliveries of logs to the Orwest Lumber mill at Myrtle Creek is continuing, according to a report by D. McFarlane, superintendent. The logging for the mill is under contract to Craig Heath of Myrtle Creek, who is delivering all logs, wood run, to that mill. Reports not published by the News-Review, but announced elsewhere, that peeler logs are being diverted by Mr. Heath for shipment to plywood mills outside the county are incorrect, Mr. McFarlane reports, as the Orwest company holds an exclusive contract with the logging operator.

Wool Raisers Want U. S. To Take Over All Clip

BAKER, Ore., Jan. 21.—(AP)—The Oregon State Wool Growers association opened its annual convention today as delegates urged the government to take over this year's entire wool clip. The proposal found ready backing in pre-session conversations and delegates expected adoption of a formal resolution during the day.
