"All Boy" Program Meets Good Response

The "All Boy" program held in the Roseburg Christian church Friday was well attended. Proceeds from the program amounted to $49.40, of which $38 was from ticket sales and the balance was in the form of donations from business firms and individuals in appreciation of the work done by the church for the boys of the community. The "All Boy" basketball team Saturday evening played the Oakland Christian church team, being defeated by Oakland 29 to 15. A return game is scheduled for the near future. The Oakland team was composed of high school and junior high school players while the Roseburg team was composed entirely of junior high school students.

The Roseburg high school Indians returned home Sunday after a most disastrous invasion of the territory of the Ashland Lithians, where they were beaten twice in southern Oregon conference basketball games. Following Friday night's 36-to-29 trimming, the Indians lost a Saturday night thriller, 33-to-31. The contest was fast and rough and close all of the way, while the lead changed hands 15 times during the battle.

Roseburg started out with a 10-to-5 lead in the first period, but Ashland brought the score to 18-all at half-time. The third period was nip and tuck and finished all even at 24-24.

The Indians gained a slight lead in the closing frame, but lost Cummings, James and Ward on personal fouls in the closing minutes of the contest and were nosed out in the last few seconds by a field goal which gave Ashland a two-point victory.

New System Clicks

Roseburg's two defeats at Ashland puts the Indians "behind the 8 ball" unless they succeed in whipping Grants Pass in the two games to be played on the local court Friday and Saturday nights. In the event the Indians can beat Grants Pass, there still is a chance for league leadership as Ashland, Coach Hod Turner reports, is very apt to be the dominating team during the remainder of the season. In a game at Grants Pass the week before Roseburg's visit at Ashland, the Lithians found a scoring combination, and, although they lost the game with Grants Pass, they uncovered a new arrangement which was fully developed for play against Roseburg. The Ashland team from now on, Coach Turner declares, will be a tough team to beat.

Grants Pass will offer plenty of competition this week, as the Cavemen will be determined to hold their league leadership. The Indians will be required to stop three very good men, including one who formerly wore the Umpqua headress, Neil Schrimpt, formerly of Roseburg, is now one of the high scorers of the Grants Pass team, while Johnny Gray and Snuffy Smith are two other dangerous opponents.

The games at Ashland Friday and Saturday nights revealed that the Indians had made some progress in ball handling, but were still weak in shooting ability, missing a great many close-in shots. Wimberly was high point man for Roseburg with 9 markers, closely pressed by Loomis with 8.

Huskies Defeat Oregon Again, Top Conference List

By virtue of three thrill packed victories, the University of Washington basketball team was in first place in the northern division Pacific Coast conference basketball race today after dropping their opening game of the season to the Oregon State Beavers at Corvallis.

The Huskies moved to the top of the heap Saturday night on a one-point, 31-30, victory over the University of Oregon at Eugene that was a nip and tuck proposition right up to the last seconds, when Bill Morris, Washington guard, sank a free throw that decided the game.

Washington defeated the Webfoots the night before in another game that was just as uncertain, but took a little better edge, 52-48, in the final score. The Huskies won their second game from Oregon State 44-39 after dropping the first, 39-42, to the defending champions of the northern division.

Washington State, through Friday night's 54-46 defeat of the University of Idaho, claimed second place in the standings, with two wins and one defeat, while Oregon, with three wins and three losses, and Oregon State having won one and lost one, tied for third, Idaho, with three lost, was in the cellar.

Friday and Saturday nights, Seattle fans will be given their first taste of conference competition this year, when University of Oregon journeys to Seattle to play a repeat of their last week's thrilling schedule on the Husky floor.

The same nights Oregon State will go to Pullman to meet the Washington State five.

State Basketball Districts Revised, Tournament Set

PORTLAND, Jan. 25.—(AP)—The annual state high school class A basketball tournament will be an eight-team affair this year—if at all.

Members of the State High School Activities association said approval for the tourney must first be given by the office of defense transportation, but Saturday they tentatively scheduled it for March 11-13 at Willamette university in Salem.

The state's 16 class A districts were abolished and eight new ones established. Winners in each district would go to the tourney.

The new districts: No. 1—Baker, Enterprise and LaGrande of the old No. 1 district, and Adrian, Nyssa, Ontario and Vale of No. 15.

No. 2—Pendleton, Milton-Freewater, Hermiston, Hood River and The Dalles of district 2, and Bend, Burns and Redmond of No. 3.

No. 3—Beaverton, Forest Grove, Hillsboro, Sherwood and Tigard of No. 9, and Clatskanie, Hill Military, Parkrose, Rainier, St. Helens, Scappoose and Vernonia of No. 14.

No. 4—Independence, Chemoqua, Dallas, Mount Angel, Woodburn and Silverton of No. 11, and Canby, Molalla, Oregon City and West Linn of No. 12, and Central Catholic Columbia prep, Estacada, Gresham, Milwaukie and Sandy of No. 13.

No. 5—Amity, McMinnville, Newburg, Sheridan and Willamina of No. 8, and Astoria, Seaside and Tillamook of No. 10.

No. 6—Cottage Grove, Eugene, Springfield, St. Mary's, Eugene and University High of No. 6, and Albany, Corvallis, Lebanon, Sweet Home and Toledo of No. 7.

No. 7—Medford, Ashland, Grants Pass and Roseburg of No. 4, and Coquille, Marshfield, Myrtle Point and North Bend of No. 5 and Klamath Falls and Lakeview of No. 3.

No. 8—Salem.

The drawings would send district 6 against 7, 2 against 4, 5 against 8 and 3 against 1 in the opening games.

The state was split into four class B districts and that tournament was scheduled for March 12-13 at Salem.

Teams would be limited to eight players and a coach in each division. March 6 is the deadline for district tournaments.

Since the beginning of the century Wisconsin has dropped from first to fifteenth place as a lumber-producing state.

The AP reports America's wars—2

For Posterity and The AP

A somber Abraham Lincoln stood on the station platform at Springfield, Illinois, and looked down on the faces of the thousand friends and neighbors gathered to bid him goodbye as he left for Washington on Feb. 11, 1861. Removing his hat, the President-elect asked for silence and began his historic farewell address.

A young Associated Press correspondent, Henry Villard, was traveling with Lincoln and as soon as the train had started told Lincoln that he had made an extraordinarily moving address that should be preserved for posterity. He asked that Lincoln write it out, whereupon the President-elect took the correspondent's paper and pencil and set the speech down in his own hand, giving Villard the manuscript to telegraph at the first station.

This was typical of AP's coverage of the Lincoln administration and the ensuing war, a coverage that was to produce countless beats from the first authentic story of the Union policy toward the South to the flash on Lincoln's death. The government itself, lacking adequate telegraph facilities, commandeered the AP system. In the 12 years since its founding the AP had grown up so that a New York Herald man wrote: "The special correspondents of the several New York papers are nearly if not quite as numerous as the agents of the AP."

One of the agents, as AP reporters were then called, Lawrence A. Gobright, in Washington, summarized an AP man's creed. He said: "My business is to communicate facts; my instructions do not allow me to make any comment upon the facts. My dispatches are sent to papers of all manner of politics. I therefore confine myself to what I consider legitimate news, try to be truthful and impartial."

Today, more than 80 years later, that creed still holds, for AP men covering the war news and all the news.
