Missioner From China to Speak at Nazarene Church

The Rev. G. W. Royall, Toronto, Canada, who has just returned from occupied China, will be guest speaker in a special missionary rally at the Roseburg Church of the Nazarene, 400 E. Douglas street, Feb. 1, 7:30 p. m.

It was announced by the pastor, Rev. Leonard Hannon.

The Church of the Nazarene in Chao-Cheng, Shantung province, China, where Rev. Mr. Royall and his family spent the past five years, was one of more than a hundred American church properties destroyed by Japanese bombs.

The Rev. Mr. Royall has a sliver from a five-hundred pound bomb that destroyed the church of which he was pastor.

At the outbreak of hostilities in the far east, the missionary was mistaken by Japanese military leaders as a Russian spy. On another occasion, he was held a prisoner for nineteen days on a British coastal steamer outside the Port of Tientsin, when a cholera quarantine was enforced by the Japanese.

Rev. Mr. Royall is the author of several books, including "Enemies of the Middle Kingdom," "Missionary Missions," and "Thinking Yellow." His contact with the missionary forces of Japan, with Chinese government officials, and with the red army will add interest to the address to be heard in this city. It is one of the few Occidentals to have ever successfully composed Chinese poetry.

The public is cordially invited to attend the rally.
