DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

Norman Harrison, in his "In a life of prayer tells how Charles Inglis learned from a devout ship's master of an experience which he had had recently with George Muller of Bristol. It seems they had encountered a very dense fog. Because of it the captain had remained on the bridge continuously for twenty-four hours. When Mr. Muller came to him and said: Captain, I have come to tell you that I must be in Quebec on Saturday afternoon. When informed that it was impossible, he replied, "Very well, if your ship cannot take me God will find some other way. I have never broken an engagement for fifty-seven years. Let us go down into the chart room and pray." The captain continues the story thus: "I looked at the man of God and thought to myself, 'What lunatic asylum could that man have come from? I have never heard such a thing as this.' Mr. Muller, I said, do you know how dense this fog is? No, he replied. My eye is not on the density of the fog, but on the living God, who controls every circumstance of my life. He knelt down and prayed, one of those simple prayers, and when he had finished, I was going to pray, but he put his hand on my shoulder and told me not to pray. I looked at him, and George Muller said, 'Captain, I have known my Lord for fifty-seven years and there has never been a single day that I have failed to get an audience with the King. Get up and open the door and you will find that the fog has gone.' I got up and the fog was indeed gone. Amen."

OBSERVERS CELEBRATE FIRST ANNIVERSARY

GLENDAL, Jan. 29 — The United States army air force, IV, light command unit of Glendale, Oregon, celebrated their first anniversary Monday night at the Odd Fellows hall at 8 p. m. Lieut. Martin F. Haysman and S/Sgt. McElroy of Roseburg presented a moving picture on "What To Do About Air Raids." S/Sgt. McElroy explained the most significant points afterwards. Lieut. Haysman read several articles, telling why the air raid warning system is needed and what it has done for our flyers and what happened to the Philippines because of the lack of a warning system. He also asked some general questions in the interest of the system.

Mrs. Melvin Nye, chief observer of Grant 3, issued six more bands to observers that have served for 100 hours. They were: Lorna Lovell, Thelma Reynolds, Mrs. Frost, Mrs. Bert Wheatly, Mrs. Roy Powelson, and Irene Dolbys. Mrs. Nye also read an honor list of observers who have been faithful in their work at the post for the last year. They were: Mrs. Roy Ferbus, Mrs. W. D. Melnick, Mrs. W. T. Harbauer, Mrs. Gertrude Yyster, Mrs. Wayne Levalle, Stella Burke, Mrs. Roy Gibson, Mrs. P. J. Miller, Mrs. Bert Wheatly, Mrs. Herbert Y'Blood, Beryl Hagar, Mrs. W. B. Pado, Kathleen Reed, Edna Slaton, Bertha Stevenson, Mrs. A. J. Raess, Laura Johnson, Mrs. Ben Mauchett, Mrs. T. J. Tomerlin, Mrs. Earl McMullen, Mrs. G. M. Jones.

S/Sgt. McElroy said that the two observers to listen to the Exos Alert program every Monday at 8:00 p. m. over Roseburg and Medford or Grants P. S. stations.

Three visitors from Canyonville were Mr. Weaver, Mrs. Roads and Mrs. Hosh, chief observer. Mr. Weaver was asked to say a few words in which his main point was that Glendale always had entered into every thing that was good for the community with lots of spirit and this event is no different from any other time.

S. Sgt. McElroy said that the civilian works were responsible for finding and preparing a better place for the observation post with phone communications. Mrs. Nye was presented a gift of a beautiful table lamp from the women of the post.

I. H. Smith gave us a few pointers on how to use the phone. He suggested placing the mouth piece one-half inch from your mouth while talking; also listen for the clear signal before dialing.

About one hundred people were served coffee, donated by Mrs. Nye; sandwiches and cookies by the observers and a piece of the large white and pink birthday cake.

ecke and the hostess, Mrs. Gaedcke.

A large number of the members were unable to attend due to the severe storm and high water.

CHARMING PARTY IS HELD AT BAKER HOME

DAYS CREEK, Jan. 29 — The Bruce Baker home was the scene of a charming party Saturday evening when Mrs. Baker entertained in compliment to her daughter, Miss Nellie Rae Austin, whose birthday anniversary had occurred a few days before. Games and music furnished the diversions of the evening. At a late hour delicious refreshments were served from a cleverly decorated buffet table, the Valentine theme being carried out by the use of red and white serving dishes and table decorations. Partners for supper were chosen by matching pairs of halved valentines. A beautifully decorated birthday cake was cut by the honoree. Those joining in complimenting Miss Nellie Rae included: Miss Virginia Rose, Miss Ila DeWald, Miss Dorothy Freeman, Miss Betty Lou Weseman, Miss Margie and Miss Maxine Wright, Noel Welch, Roy Bratton, John Wright, Gordon Clark, John Freeman and Billie Baker. The honoree received many lovely gifts.

The preceding Sunday Miss Nellie Rae was complimented with a lovely dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Tison. Covers were arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Baker, Miss Nellie Rae Austin, Billie Baker, Jim Tison and Mr. and Mrs. Tison.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Quite a discussion some of the boys were having down at lodge meeting last night, Judge...you know, in the afternoon before the election of officers."

"Sure was...and Herb was dead wrong. The alcoholic beverage industry does account for more taxes than any other industry. I checked the figures in my office this morning. Why the figure on alcoholic beverages is pretty close to a billion and a half dollars a year. Lucky thing we haven't got prohibition or the government would have to make up the money some other way. And there's only one answer to that—more taxes. You know what that would add up to?...about $25 more taxes a year for every man and woman in the country. In other words you and Sue would have to pay about $50 more in some form of tax. I guess about the only ones who'd come out ahead on that deal would be the bootleggers and gangsters."
