Around the County

Canyonville

Mrs. Beryl Loffer spent the weekend in Eugene visiting with her cousin and his wife.

The Bertha Rebekah lodge met in regular session Tuesday night. Plans were completed for the official visit of Madeline Rossner, the president of the Rebekah Assembly, Friday night. After the business meeting, Mrs. Hiram Hash treated the members to coffee and cookies.

Mrs. Etta Shaw, Mrs. Ray Bartley of Canyonville and Mrs. A. P. Miller of Myrtle Creek were in Roseburg on business Tuesday afternoon.

Shirley Cain was in Roseburg Monday.

Mrs. C. A. Duncan left for Grants Pass Wednesday morning. She will undergo an operation this week. Mrs. Ella Sullivan is cooking for her boarders while she is gone.

Mrs. Carl Allison and sons, Roy and Charles, came from Bend Saturday in their trailer house. Mr. Allison has been working on cantonments at Salt Lake City and Bend and now expects to work in Riddle on the new road to be constructed to Nickel mines. Charles started to school Monday morning and is in the 4th grade.

Mrs. Paul Ecklund was called to Myrtle Creek the last of the week because of the serious illness of her brother, J. A. J. Yokum.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Pickett and Ernest Naylor were in Roseburg Monday shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Kynett of Green Acres, Washington, visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Garcey, over the week end. They had been in California and were on their way to their home.

Lookingglass

LOOKINGGLASS, Feb. 4.—Ben Jacoby, who was seriously injured on Saturday afternoon while engaged in handling a lumber carrier at the Bryson lumber mill in Sutherlin, is still in a serious condition and was taken to Roseburg again on Wednesday for further examination and treatment. He suffered concussion of the brain and severe burns.

Chester Williams was home on a brief furlough from Camp Adair over the weekend. He has recently been promoted to the rank of corporal.

this week for Eugene where they will enter the trade school in preparation for defense work.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ascot and small son, John, Jr., left this week for Aurora, Ind., where they will visit the former's parents and Mr. Ascot will enter defense work. They plan to return to their home in the valley at the close of the war.

Mrs. Jennie Andrus, who has been in a critical condition the past week due to a cerebral hemorrhage, is reported to be making satisfactory improvement. Mrs. Andrus was removed to Roseburg for treatment and is being cared for at the home of her niece, Miss Alice Bostick. Her daughter, Mrs. Hazel Adams of Rapid City, N. Dakota, arrived Sunday, called by the serious condition of her mother. Other children including Miss Violet and Kenneth, students at the Bible school in Eugene, and Floyd Andrus who is stationed with the paratroops at Fort Benning, Ga., were summoned here. A son, Ivan, who has been stationed with the armed forces in the Hawaiian Islands for approximately two years, has been notified and is asking for furlough to return to visit the family at this time. The local Red Cross unit is assisting in the attempt to secure a furlough.

The high school student body enjoyed a skating party at Winchester last Friday evening and were entertained later in the evening at the home of Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly in Roseburg, who is assistant instructor in the high school this winter. They reported a most enjoyable time.

A. H. Marsh, A. Larsen, O. G. Rogers and Corvin Heard brought some pews from the Methodist church in Roseburg on Monday and Tuesday of this week, which will be installed in the local church. The pews were brought to Roseburg from a church in eastern Oregon which is being dismantled and will be a much needed addition to the comfort of the local building.

Mrs. Richard Eastman suffered an attack of flu the past week and has been confined to her home. Mrs. Richard substituted for her at school.

The Gideon quartette, including Lawrence Rand, Fred Bonebrake, Dr. R. L. Dunn and Mr. Leeper, held a fine inspirational service of songs and devotional talks on Sunday evening at the local church, which was greatly appreciated by those in attendance.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

The UMPQUA PRODUCE COMPANY has taken over the

HATCHING EGG BUSINESS

formerly operated by the Douglas County Flour Mill.

Demand for hatching eggs both present and future looks very bright. For Year Round outlet for HATCHING EGGS, see the

UMPQUA PRODUCE COMPANY

Help your country by producing the extra hatching eggs that will help the national meat shortage, and help yourself by selling those hatching eggs where you get the best treatment, and the best year round price.

Give us a shipment. Your neighbor does.
