D. OF U. V. HAS

INTERESTING MEETING

ON FRIDAY EVENING

Florence Nightingale tent No. 15, D. of U. V. held a regular meeting at the hall on Military street, Friday night. A statement was read giving the number of losses and gains in membership in the different tents throughout Oregon for the year 1942 and the total membership at the end of the year. It was decided that the birthday of the tent members during the year 1943 would be celebrated by a once-a-month party at the hall following the meeting and a voluntary contribution towards the war bond fund by the individuals. The regular Kitty fund will continue to be applied for the purchase of war bonds and stamps. The door prize was won by Mary Peterson. A resume of little known facts of different accomplishments of Abraham Lincoln was given in commemoration of his birthday by Nettie Hallcraft and the various members each told some anecdote of his life which they especially remembered. The meeting was closed in regular form by the president, Essie Olson.

Lt. and Mrs. Norman B. Benson

Miss Lois Helen Blake, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Blake, of Roseburg, became the bride of Lt. Norman Benson, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Benson, of Forest City, Iowa, at a very beautiful double ring ceremony Sunday, February 14, at the First Christian church in this city. Rev. Len B. Fishback, pastor, performed the ceremony at four o'clock in the afternoon in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the couple.

The attractive setting was fashioned with a background of cedar and other evergreen sprays arranged with silver bell, flanked by large bouquets of chrysanthemums and white cathedral candles, which were lighted by Sgt. James Beaver. Baskets of greenery outlined the rostrum and were used about the church.

During the ceremony, the bride and groom, the bride's parents, and the groom's parents, all participated in the ceremony. The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Blake, and the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Benson, were seated in the front of the church.

The bride's bouquet was a large one of white chrysanthemums and white carnations. The groom's boutonniere was a single white carnation.

The bride's veil was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She wore elbow length white lace gloves and an old-fashioned locket (the latter being a gift from the bridegroom). She carried a shower bouquet of small white chrysanthemums and shell pink carnations.

Lt. Dayton Brown acted as best man to the bridegroom and ushers were Sergeant James Beaver and Private First Class Howard Payne.

The bride's mother wore a smart blue ensemble with black accessories and white gloves. Her corsage was white gardenias.

Out-of-town guests included: Mrs. Carl Specht and Miss Rose Specht, of Silverton, aunts of the bride; Mrs. Holden McTaggart, of Corvallis; Miss Marilyn Harpham and Mrs. James Medford, of Linfield college at McMinnville; Mrs. Louis Gabel, of Tillamook; Mrs. Perry Wright, of Clatsop; and Mrs. Robert Sinclair, of Grants Pass.

Following the wedding a reception and buffet supper was served to the bride and groom, their families, and the immediate friends and the immediate family at the Blake home three miles south of this city.

The bride's table was arranged in the shape of a T and covered with white linen. Bowls of white chrysanthemums, tall white tapers and silver bells were used for the decorations, while the small tables were centered with dainty bouquets of white flowers.

The wedding cake, which was two-tiered, was topped by a gold-encircled bride and bridegroom and decorated with pink roses. The bridegroom's cake was in all white and was cut by the bride and bridegroom.

Mrs. Holden McTaggart and Mrs. James Medford assisted about the rooms and served at the tables and Miss Vadame Betts had charge of the guest book and gifts.

The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Ruth Snoddy.

For traveling the bride chose a wool-tailored suit of grey-blue tweed with navy blue accessories. Her corsage was of shell pink carnations.

Lt. and Mrs. Benson will make their home at Fortis Heights, Calif., as the former is stationed at March field with the army air force.
