

Local News

Here Monday—J. H. Parrott, of Camas Valley, was a business visitor in this city Monday.

Attends To Business—Oscar Weeks, of Myrtle Creek, spent Monday in this city attending to business.

Shops And Visits—Mrs. Claude Church, of Camas Valley, was here Monday shopping and visiting friends.

Slide Visitors Here—Mr. and Mrs. George W. Vaughn, of Glide, spent Monday in this city attending to business.

Here From Reston—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson, of Reston, were in Roseburg Monday visiting friends and attending to business.

Improving—Mrs. O. S. Chambers, who has been very ill at her home in Laurelwood for the last several weeks, is reported to be improving in health.

Will Go To San Francisco—Mrs. Walter Holm, of this city, plans to leave tomorrow for San Francisco to spend a week or ten days visiting friends.

Improving—Miss Gertrude Dolan, Roseburg nurse, is reported to be convalescing at Mercy hospital from a recent major operation performed in Portland.

Spend Today in Eugene—Mr. and Mrs. John W. Nyland, who reside on Reservoir avenue in this city, left this morning for Eugene to spend the day attending to business.

Visiting At Hansen Home—Mrs. J. C. Gerey, of Grants Pass, formerly of Roseburg, has arrived here to spend a couple of weeks visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Hansen in Laurelwood.

Takes Father East—Arthur C. McGhehey, of Vallejo, Calif., arrived here Sunday and, accompanied by his father, A. G. McGhehey, of Roseburg, left today for Kansas City, Mo., where the latter will enter a sanitarium for medical treatment.

Auxiliary To Sew—Members of George Starmer auxiliary and friends are invited to sew for the Red Cross Wednesday from 10 to 4 at the Red Cross sewing rooms. Those spending the day there are asked to bring their own noon lunch. Mrs. G. W. Shugart is sewing chairman.

Out Of Hospital—According to word received here, Mrs. Homer Rand has been discharged from Sacred Heart hospital in Medford and is now convalescing satisfactorily at her home in that city, following several weeks illness. Her mother, Mrs. Emma Erickson, of Roseburg, is at the Rand home in Medford. The Rand family formerly resided here.

Back From Portland—Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield has returned to her home in this city, following a visit in Portland at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Attorney and Mrs. William W. Knight, and family. Attorney Knight has been spending the last two weeks in Chicago on business and just returned to Portland a few days ago.

—AND BRING YOUR WIFE ALONG! Bowling is a sport your wife and you can enjoy together. Make a date with her tonight and come to our bowling alleys for an evening of refreshing fun and relaxation.

ROSEBURG RECREATION Hall and Bowling Alleys Arch Elliott, Mgr.

Zone, Block Leaders Asked to Meet Friday

Mrs. Homer Grow has announced a meeting of all zone leaders and all block leaders for Friday night at 7:30 at the circuit courtroom of the courthouse. Mrs. Laura Wells, state nutrition chairman, Portland, will be present to explain the block and zone system in the national defense program. Instructions will be given in printed form to all leaders. Plans will be outlined for the first project to begin next week.

VITAL STATISTICS

BORN LEDGERWOOD—To Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Ledgerwood, of Myrtle Creek, at Mercy hospital, Monday, March 1, a son, Scott Lewis; weight seven pounds.

MARRIAGE LICENSES HYATT-BREITWEISER—Robert Howard Hyatt and Ruth Ellen Breitweiser, both residents of Vancouver, Wash.

Canyonville

CANYONVILLE, March 2—Mrs. A. C. Duncan went to Grants Pass Saturday for medical attention.

Mrs. Barbara Hopkins left Wednesday for Oakland, in response to the word that her son-in-law, Brady Burnett, had passed away.

Mrs. Evelyn Lair left for her home in Tacoma, Washington, Friday. She had visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Moyer, for ten days.

Mrs. Walter Smith and daughter, Judy Belle, of Portland visited Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hamlin, for a week and is now visiting her sister, Mrs. Ira Poole, in Tillamook, for several days.

Mrs. William Cox and son, Bob, were in Roseburg Saturday on business.

Word was received recently of the death of Mrs. Eva Washington of Seattle. She was formerly Miss Eva Albro and spent her girlhood days in Canyonville.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ashcraft were in Roseburg Saturday on business.

Mrs. Alice Green, Mrs. Bennett Pickett and Mrs. Ann Worthington attended the Past Noble

RUSSELL'S Typewriter Service Office Machine Service and Supplies 335 N. Jackson Phone 320

Harrie W. Booth was again chosen as secretary. William Unrath was named treasurer, succeeding Harry Burr, who recently moved from the county. Members of the fire commission supervised the department's election of Glenn H. Taylor as fire chief and James Bewley as assistant chief. The meeting was followed by a feed and social hour.

Warning Service Wants Old Phonograph Records

The aircraft warning service is in need of several hundred flat type phonograph records. It was announced today by Lieutenant Hytsman of the local filter center staff. It is desired, he stated, to secure new records for use in giving instruction, but new records cannot be obtained unless old records are turned in. Persons having worn, cracked or broken records they are willing to donate to aid the service in its project are requested to leave their donations at the Roseburg armory.

Bellview Club To Meet—The Bellview club will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert Huff.

Merry-Go-Round Club To Meet—The Winston Merry-Go-Round club will meet Wednesday at a 1:30 dessert-luncheon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Carnes.

Women To Sew—The Methodist women and their friends are asked to meet at 1 o'clock Wednesday at the church parlors to sew for the Red Cross. Mrs. J. J. Eastling is sewing chairman.

Embroidery Club To Meet—The Roseburg Art and Embroidery club will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Alta Smith at the corner of Oak and Parrott streets.

New Idea Club To Meet—The New Idea club will meet Wednesday at a 1 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. V. R. Buckingham with Mrs. R. H. Williams as co-hostess.

Officers Relected by Roseburg Fire Dept.

Wallace Rapp was reelected president of the Roseburg fire department at the annual election conducted at the city fire hall last night. Walter Frederickson was reelected vice-president and

Wednesday Only BARGAIN NIGHT

ROSE Theatre TODAY The Living Ghost AND Private Buckaroo

STARTS WEDNESDAY

THE STORY THE WORLD HAS BEEN WAITING TO SEE... the blood-tingling exploits of Freedom's Defenders!

with JOHN WAYNE JOHN CARROLL ANNA LEE PAUL KELLY GORDON JONES 2-7-9 p. m. 11c-30c 40c INDIAN TODAY 'DESPERATE JOURNEY' ERROLL FLYNN, RONALD RAEGAN

Grand club in Riddle Thursday. They report a very pleasant afternoon. Victor Shaw was in Roseburg Friday on business. H. W. Bovee was a Roseburg visitor Saturday. Ronald Loffer and son, Lyle, of Portland are in Canyonville this week end. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elliott were in Roseburg Saturday.

Camas Valley

CAMAS VALLEY, March 2—Mr. and Mrs. Chester Cook recently took Mr. and Mrs. Amidon and two children back to their home in Medford. The Amidons had been here visiting for two weeks. George Baldwin went to Sandy on business Monday. Arthur and Merle Alexander of Winston attended to business matters in the valley Tuesday. Mrs. Lois Varney Baker of Roseburg was in the valley Wednesday calling on friends and attending to business affairs. Guy Moore, Jr., left Wednesday for Eugene and Portland with the intention of joining some branch of the armed service. Mrs. Oscar Olson of Olalla is visiting for a few weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. R. Standley. Mrs. Oran Standley and Bert

Golbert received a telegram Wednesday telling of the death of their mother at her home near San Jose. They left immediately for San Jose driving the Standley's pickup. Miss Virginia Thornton is staying with Mr. and Mrs. St. Robson and Pearle Waters. Charles Roth was ill with a severe cold last week and was not able to go to Sandy where he is working in piling. Mrs. Ethel Brown and small grand-daughter, Rozelle Brown, returned from Eugene Saturday evening. Rozelle is recuperating from her illness resulting from a severe case of tonsillitis. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Church returned Thursday from a business trip to Portland. While there they visited Mrs. Church's uncle and aunt. Mr. and Mrs. Everett Parrott, and her aunt, Mrs. Bess Honey, and Claude's sister, Mrs. Loren Nokes. Mrs. John Harrison went to Eugene Monday for medical care. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Schmidt are taking care of Nathan Kirkendall at their home. Lloyd Roberts, Jr., who has been attending school in Glendale, Calif., came home last week to spend some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Roberts. Mrs. Clifford Walbert and small son, Terry, of Portland visited during the week at the home of Mrs. Walbert's parents. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Richter. Mrs. Jim Combs and daughter, Sharon Jeanne, and Robert Martindale went to Days Creek Sunday with Mr. Combs, who has been working in a logging camp near there. Mrs. Combs and Sharon expect to stay there most of the time while Jim works there.

SERVICE

In this day of shortages of materials, labor and priorities, one hundred percent service is impossible. The Coen Lumber Company is making every effort to supply their trade with materials required. By reason of their large stocks happily few delays are necessary.

When in need of lumber, millwork, plumbing, linoleum, roofing, paints, glass, wall paper or other building materials, see the Coen Lumber Company for good materials, good service and reasonable prices.

COEN LUMBER COMPANY

Phone 121

Advertisement for Williams' Enriched White Bread. Includes two women talking, a loaf of bread, and text: 'What's the idea of the three finger salute, Mary?' 'That's just to remind me to get the bread that's BETTER THREE WAYS!*' 'Just try this bread with the outstanding Three Features! We devoted months to its perfection... started working with a world famous cereal laboratory long before Uncle Sam's War Order was issued. So now we bake this finer bread that makes necessary present restrictions less bother to you and that preserves the flavor-goodness you prefer. Here it is... Your favorite bread for the duration! Ready Now at all Grocers! Be Sure You Get the THREE-FEATURE LOAF * Easy to Slice! Easy to Spread! Nourishing to Serve! Williams' ENRICHED WHITE BREAD'