A Revelation to Me!

I didn't mind doing the washing until I started to count up the things I had to GAIN by letting New Service Laundry do it!

First, I used to have a 5-day week, with one day taken out for washing clothes and another day taken out for ironing. Now I have two extra days for visiting, for Red Cross work, for OCD—and I have a lot more pep to enjoy myself.

Second, the laundry comes back beautifully white, carefully ironed. It's HYGIENICALLY clean, too.

Third, their prices are reasonable so there's no strain on the family budget. On just these three counts, I'll choose New Service Laundry every time!

MISS ROSA B. PARROTT ENTERTAINS AT LOVELY TEA FOR MRS. DEZENDORF

One of the most charming affairs of the week was the tea from three to five o'clock given by Miss Rosa B. Parrott Thursday afternoon at her attractive home in compliment to Mrs. Lucy Stanton Dezendorf, who recently arrived here from Hollywood, to visit her niece, Mrs. Scott Williams, and family.

Beautiful bouquets of flowering quince, daffodils, daphne and greenery were arranged about the spacious rooms. The tea table, covered by a sheer lace cloth over turquoise satin, was centered by an oblong arrangement of daffodils and saxifrage, flanked by round bowls of matching bouquets and tall yellow tapers in crystal holders.

Mrs. B. Casey, sister of the hostess, poured and Mrs. Scott Williams, Mrs. Edward G. Kohlhaugen and Miss Helen Casey (a niece of the hostess) served. The guests were received at the door by Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Guests invited to enjoy the charming affair with Miss Parrott in honor of Mrs. Dezendorf included: Mrs. Walter Gordon, of Marion, Indiana; Mrs. George Sewell, Miss Jeannie Buick, Miss Lulu Curry, Miss Edith Curry, Mrs. J. F. Barker, Mrs. Velle Broadway, Mrs. L. W. Josse, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mrs. W. F. Chapman, Mrs. M. Hazel Dixon, Mrs. George Kohlhaugen, Mrs. Dexter Rice, Mrs. Arthur W. Baum, Mrs. Roy Hellocks, Mrs. J. C. Hume, Mrs. H. H. Stapleton, Mrs. J. E. Sawyers, Mrs. C. W. Wharton, Mrs. Delwin Jewett, Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mrs. George M. Melvin, Mrs. W. E. Futrell, Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. M. F. Rice, Mrs. Scott Williams, Mrs. B. Casey, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. Clifford Barker, Mrs. Edward G. Kohlhaugen, Mrs. D. W. Hellmuth, Mrs. Edgar Lewis, Miss Gertrude Rast and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

Mrs. Dezendorf will visit her sister, Mrs. Lillian Tabke, in Astoria, following her stay here, after which she will go to New Jersey to visit her daughter. She has been spending the winter in Hollywood with her brother, Cole Stanton. The Stanton family formerly resided in this city.

Mrs. Casey has directed a large number of charming plays for the Woman's club and this comedy promises to be one of the most delightful entertainments to be presented in a number of years. The cast includes Mrs. Clifford E. Smith, Mrs. Adrian Bowen, Mrs. J. E. Henbest, Miss Athalia Taylor, Miss Beatrice Cooney and Miss Dorothy Crocker.

U. OF O. MOTHERS CLUB HAS DELIGHTFUL MEETING AT SHOEMAKER HOME

The University of Oregon Mothers club held a very delightful meeting Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. B. R. Shoemaker on Blakeley street. Mrs. Shoemaker served a lovely seven-thirty o'clock dessert supper at two tables beautifully appointed with individual camellia corsages and centered with gorgeous bouquets of camellias.

Covers were placed for: Mrs. Roy O. Young, president; Mrs. Guy Gordon, Mrs. Hedwig Watzig, Mrs. Fred Hamilton, Mrs. J. C. Hume, Mrs. W. H. Carter, Mrs. M. P. Middleburg, Mrs. L. E. McIntock, Mrs. Charles Craig, Mrs. Edith Gilmour, Mrs. L. E. Garwood, Mrs. Fred Vedder, Mrs. W. Stewig, Mrs. C. E. Wimberly, Miss Verlie Tracy and Mrs. B. R. Shoemaker, members, and Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. H. O. Parrotter and Mrs. George Wharton, guests.

A white elephant auction sale was held, which proved very successful financially for the club and furnished much enjoyment to the group. The club has planned a special feature at every meeting. The next meeting date and place will be announced later.

O. S. C. MOTHERS CLUB HAS MEETING AT HOTEL ROSE

The Oregon State College Mothers club met for a one o'clock no-hostess luncheon at the Hotel Rose Wednesday with Mrs. H. C. Berg, president, in charge.

Daffodils and laurel wreaths were attractively arranged on the serving table by Mrs. Hugh Ritchie. Covers were placed for: Mrs. H. C. Berg, Mrs. E. A. Britton, Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, Mrs. Hugh Ritchie, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. A. M. Knudson and Mrs. Claude Baker.

Sewing and visiting were enjoyed during the afternoon. The club will meet at a one o'clock no-hostess luncheon April 7 at the Hotel Rose.

B. P. W. C. TO MEET NEXT MONDAY NIGHT

The Business and Professional Women's club will meet at 8 o'clock next Monday evening at the clubhouse. A very interesting program has been arranged by Agnes Pitchford, Mary Moore and Margaret Brown. Refreshments will be served. Members and their invited guests have been asked to attend.

MRS. C. E. ROBERTS PRESENTS CHARMING BOOK REVIEWS TO WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. C. E. Roberts presented a group of very charming book reviews for the Roseburg Woman's club one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon meeting and program Tuesday at the clubhouse, with Mrs. C. H. Bailey, as hostess chairman, assisted by Mrs. C. E. Banning and Miss Jennie Jorcy.

Beautiful bouquets of daffodils and early blooming spirea graced the tables and were arranged in large bouquets about the room.

Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, president, conducted the business session and introduced Mrs. Homer Grow, who gave a very delightful roll-call topic and led the community sing.

Mrs. H. B. Carter, program chairman for the year, graciously introduced Mrs. Roberts as the guest speaker of the day. Mrs. Roberts was a member of the club for several years and is one of the most popular speakers of the club. Her book reviews were beautifully given and were greatly enjoyed by the group. Mrs. Roberts was unable to belong to the club this year, having taken over the duties of sewing chairman of the Presbyterian ladies for the Red Cross.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, president, Mrs. C. E. Roberts, Mrs. A. S. Coen, Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. E. L. Knapp, Mrs. C. H. Bailey, Mrs. C. E. Banning, Miss Jennie Jorcy, Mrs. A. G. Sutherland, Miss Marie Martens, Mrs. H. B. Carter, Mrs. R. R. Law, Mrs. C. E. Jasmun, Mrs. Foster Butner, Mrs. Homer Grow, Mrs. I. Kohlhaugen, Sr., Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mrs. L. B. Riddle, Miss Kay Ward, Mrs. L. A. Wells, Mrs. Jack Siskind, Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mrs. Walter Good, Mrs. George K. Quine and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

The next meeting of the club will be the annual spring birthday tea with Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mrs. H. B. Carter and Mrs. O. S. Chambers as chairmen. Members having birthday between January 1 and June 30 will act as hostesses and are requested to bring either sandwiches or cookies for the tea. The affair will be March 16 at two o'clock at the clubhouse with the Junior Woman's club having charge of the program, which will include presenting a charming one-act comedy, "Girls Must Talk," directed by the club advisor, Miss Helen Casey. Other special features are being arranged for the afternoon. This affair is open to all persons interested. There will be no admission charge, but following the program, a silver tea will be held. Proceeds of the affair assist the scholarship loan fund.

Marry at Impressive Home Wedding

Miss Wilma Marie Pounds, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pounds of this city, became the bride of Sergeant James Wesley Beaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Payne, of Quenemo, Kansas, at a very impressive home wedding Thursday, February 25, at the residence of the bride's parents in Laurewood. Dr. Charles A. Edwards performed the ring ceremony in the presence of close friends of the couple at eight-thirty o'clock in the evening.

The improvised altar was arranged for the ceremony by sprays of laurel and centered with daffodils and tall white candles in candelabra, flanked by vases fashioned from 25 millimeter French shells, which were brought back to this country by the bride's father after the first world war. Bowls of flowering quince and daffodils were attractively arranged about the room.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. S. J. Cooper very charmingly sang, "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the piano by her sister, Mrs. Harrie W. Booth. The Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. Lynn Beckley.

The bride was very lovely in a black and white suit and her corsage was four white orchids. She was attended by her sister, Miss Lois Pounds, who wore an attractive navy suit with a corsage of three white orchids. Private First Class Howard W. Payne acted as best man to the bride groom.

A reception followed the wedding ceremony. The bride's table carried out a very beautiful yellow and white motif. The table was covered by a gorgeous hand-made lace cloth and centered with two lovely wedding cakes fashioned in the shape of wedding bells and topped with the name of the bride and bride.

PAST MATRONS CLUB MEETS AT BELL HOME ON MONDAY EVENING

Mrs. William Bell and Mrs. L. E. Garwood were joint hostesses to the members of the Past Matrons club, Order of Eastern Star at the home of Mrs. Bell, on South Jackson street, Monday evening. A dessert supper was served at 7:30. A short business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. R. L. Whipple. The remainder of the delightful evening was spent playing games and in sewing for the Red Cross.

Those present were Mrs. Guy Gordon, Mrs. C. G. Ferrier, Mrs. Alice Dunn, Mrs. R. D. Lee, Mrs. Victor Micelli, Mrs. D. H. Morgan, Mrs. M. J. Newland, Mrs. J. A. Plummer, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. T. B.
