

DANCE TONIGHT
MOOSE HALL
Music by "The Trio"
Gents 35c Ladies 10c

Local News

Starts THURSDAY

BLAZING GUNS and THUNDERING HOOPS ride...

and

ROSE Theatre

TODAY

"MYSTERY OF MARIE ROGET"
plus
"LAW OF THE JUNGLE"

Lady Elks To Hold Social—The Lady Elks will hold a social meeting at 8 o'clock Thursday evening at the temple. Prizes will be awarded winners in the contract bridge and pinocle plays.

Returns To Grants Pass—Mrs. Floyd Althaus left this morning for her home in Grants Pass, following a visit here since Monday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hudnell, at the Douglas hotel. She attended the Rebekah dinner and meeting last night.

Sunshine Club Meeting Planned—The Northside Sunshine club will meet Thursday afternoon at the Howard Casebeer home on South Stephens street with Mrs. Katherine Ballou as hostess. Pollyanna names will be exchanged and the social hours will be spent in playing bingo.

W. S. Of C. S. To Hold Meeting—The W. S. of C. S. of the Methodist church will meet Thursday at 2 o'clock at the church parlors with Mrs. William Hoelt, president, in charge. Mrs. Melville T. Wire will conduct the devotions and Mrs. Lucien Cobb will be program chairman.

Woman's Society To Meet—The Woman's society of the First Presbyterian church will meet Thursday at a 1:30 o'clock dessert luncheon at the church parlors. All women of the church are invited. Mrs. Earl Ulrich, president, will conduct the meeting, which will be followed by a program. Mrs. A. A. Wilder is hostess chairman.

Son Is Born—Announcements have been received here by friends telling of the birth of a son, Steven Richard, weighing five pounds six ounces, February 19, at Salem to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph B. Sipprell. The Sipprells formerly made their home on South Jackson street, Roseburg, when Mr. Sipprell was stationed at the state highway office.

DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

We are both physical and spiritual beings. While we live in the flesh, our bodies have certain requirements. We need food, shelter, clothing, social life, if we live normally. But we know that man shall not live by bread alone. We are not much above the animal if we do not plan for our spiritual well-being. This life is but a preparation for another world, and our days here are like school days. Our accumulation of material things are for the help they may give us along this physical journey. Our real riches and treasures are being laid up in the Father's house of many mansions. Our experiences here are only to prepare us for another world. Our opportunities for service provide those treasures to be laid up in our heavenly mansion. Our kind Heavenly Father has made reservation for us in His many mansions, and one day we shall go there and possess it, when Jesus was leaving his disciples he comforted them with these words, "Let not your heart be troubled, I go to prepare a place for you, that where I am there ye may be also." Once heaven was a far off place, till Jesus showed his smiling face, now its begun within my soul, till last while endless ages roll. We may not possess much of a home here, but our heavenly home is beyond the human tongue to tell. Amen.

St. Patrick's Dance Announced—The Business and Professional Women's club has announced a St. Patrick's stamp dance for Wednesday, March 17, at 9 o'clock at the Oriental gardens, as a project for the bond and stamp selling for the month of March. Mrs. Bernard Saar is chairman and is being assisted by Mrs. Clifford Barker and Jean Sellock. Casey Jones' orchestra will furnish the music. A 25c defense stamp will be charged for admission of students and a 50c defense stamp for adults. This is the second stamp dance to be sponsored by the organization.

State Guard Chief Here—General Ralph P. Cowgill, Portland, commanding officer of the Oregon state guard, visited briefly in Roseburg today. En route to Medford on state guard activities. General Cowgill stopped in Roseburg to confer with Major Victor J. Miceli, commanding officer of the 17th battalion, and Captain Charles V. Stanton, battalion executive officer. He will return to Roseburg later in the week, at which time matters pertaining to activities of the state guard in the area served by the local battalion will be considered.

Family Reunited—Mrs. A. F. Woods of Roseburg, mother of nine sons and daughters, has enjoyed visits with six of her children during the past few days. Sergeant Lee Woods, who has been in service with the army in the Panama canal zone arrived home last week for the first time in three years. He left today for New Orleans, where he will stop briefly, en route to Georgia for new assignment. While he was in Roseburg, other members of the family who came to visit were Fred Woods and family of Valsetz, Ore.; John Woods and Mr. and Mrs. Jess Taylor (Rose Woods) of Mill City; Ed Woods, Sweethome, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Russell (Helen Woods) of Camas Valley.

Ill at Home—Mrs. J. B. Fullerton is reported to be ill at her home in this city.

W. B. A. To Meet—The Woman's Benefit association will meet at 2 o'clock Thursday at the Macabee hall.

Home From Walla Walla—Mrs. A. A. Wilder has returned to her home on Chadwick street, following a trip to Walla Walla, Wash., to visit her son, Carlton, a student at Whitman college.

Back From Portland—Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Knight returned to their home on West First street last night, following a stay of several days in Portland visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Attorney and Mrs. William W. Knight, and family, and stopping over in Eugene to see their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Houser, and family.

Returns to Farm—Antone Bursik, Melrose farmer, returned home today following service in the army hospital corps since last August. Bursik, a veteran of the first world war, was called from the reserve and assigned to the hospital service at Camp Barkeley, Texas. He has been discharged to return to his 160-acre farm at Melrose.

Attend DeMolay Meeting—Elliot Moteschenbacher, Dick Crittenden, Dick Stark, Charles Carter, Gordon Gerretsen, Mack Brown and Bob Bashford were initiated into the order of DeMolay last evening at Eugene. They were accompanied by the following local officers, Jack Calkins, Ralph Sandsted and Charles Pratt, and the three advisors, J. P. Moteschenbacher, C. B. Calkins and Bill Unrath. Both the initiatory and DeMolay degrees were conferred.

Initiated Into Honorary—Miss Ina Farnsworth, Benson school teacher, was initiated last Saturday into Gamma chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary sorority for women in education, at the home of the president, Miss Hazel Fishwood, in Eugene. Earlier this year, Miss Verna Carothers, Rose school instructor, was initiated into the organization. Roseburg teachers attending the meeting Saturday were: Miss Amanda Anderson, Miss Ina Farnsworth, Miss Verna Carothers and Mrs. Margaret Watkins.

Yarn at Red Cross Rooms—Mrs. Dexter Rice, head of the production department of the American Red Cross here, has announced that yarn has just arrived and will be available to knitters after one o'clock today. A very large quota has been set by the Red Cross for Douglas county knitters for the month and as the yarn was so late in arriving here, Mrs. Rice states that knitters will be extremely rushed in order to complete the work by the last of the month.

Oregon Salvage Head Job Given to Rod Finney

PORTLAND, March 10.—(AP)—Appointment of Rod Finney, newspaperman of The Dalles, as executive secretary of the Oregon general salvage committee, succeeding the late Ralph Mitchell, was announced by district WPB Manager J. Fred Bergesch today. At the same time Bergesch announced removal of the office of general salvage from Salem to Portland (Bedell building). Finney had served as assistant to Mitchell since last September.

STARTS TODAY -- 4 DAYS

THE FUNNIEST PICTURE IN YEARS!

JACK BERRY

PRISCILLA LAKE

THE MEANEST MAN IN THE WORLD

with ROCHESTER
Edmund GWINN - Anne REVERE

INDIAN
Most Unique in the West

GIVE + WAR FUND

(By FLOSSIE VIRDEN)

All the month of March is Red Cross month. Mr. Charles Emery, the war fund chairman, reports donations coming in "right well". He will practically "leap" into the Red Cross war fund drive the latter part of this week. Mrs. Christine Miceli will assist and have headquarters at the chamber of Commerce, where she will graciously receive all contributions large and small. Many have left contributions at various places where they are being received—Douglas National bank, Roseburg branch of the U. S. National bank, Mr. Emery's office and the Red Cross office in the court house. Many others are waiting for solicitors to call. An effort is being made to reach every one in order that all may have an opportunity to contribute. Before you decide upon the amount you are to give, think about this: The Red Cross is the only organization that goes to the front lines with the soldier and ministers to his comfort. Then give generously.

The canteen corps met at the home of Mrs. J. E. Sawyers on North Stephens Monday evening. Mr. Ray B. Hampton of the forestry office showed colored pictures of forest scenes and forest fires. He also told of the work of the fire wardens in combatting forest fires during the hazardous season and how the forests are safeguarded. His talk was very instructive.

The Gray Ladies of the hospital and recreation corps met at the home of Mrs. T. B. Virden on North Jackson Saturday evening. There was a very good attendance and the evening was a very pleasant one.

The class in home nursing of Mrs. Arlie Olsen Galbraith started off Monday evening with an enrollment of 15. All seem delighted with the setup, and this promises to be a very interesting class.

The class in home nursing being conducted by Mrs. Edith Pickens at Umpqua is drawing to a close. The members have been very enthusiastic about the course and Mrs. Pickens as an instructor.

March is Red Cross month—give to the Red Cross!

Joe Coennenberg Listed For Hoopster Award

Joe Coennenberg, former high school basketball star at Sutherland, was among 15 University of Oregon freshmen basketball players recommended by Coach Earl Sandness for basketball awards, according to word received from Eugene. Coennenberg was one of the chief scorers of the U. of O. freshman squad this season.

Four Pay Fines Here For Drunkenness

Four fines for drunkenness have been paid in the city court by defendants pleading guilty to the charges, City Recorder A. J. Geddes reported today. A fine of $15 was paid by James Laurence, while $10 fines were paid by Howard Gordon, Clyde Goodman and Sylvester Wolf, all of Roseburg.

M. Maurice Matthews Called to Army Duty

M. Maurice Matthews of Roseburg, student at Oregon State college, has been called to active service with the army, according to word received today. He was among 51 members of the enlisted reserve ordered to report for duty March 30.

Portland Denies City Workers 48-Hour Week

PORTLAND, Ore., March 10.—(AP)—The Portland city council decided against a 48-hour week for municipal employees on grounds it would cost the city $360,000 annually and would not aid the manpower situation.

Businessman

KANSAS CITY.—Jack Kay, 10, started to the movies and found he'd forgotten to bring his half-dollar.

He persuaded the bus driver to extend credit, and persuaded the theater manager to let him tend the popcorn machine.

He earned 50 cents, paid a 20-cent admission, later paid the bus driver two fares—and arrived home with a 10-cent surplus.

Tests Slated For Students Seeking Army Training

WASHINGTON, March 10.—(AP)—High school and college students who have applied for the army's specialized training program will be given examinations to check their qualifications on Friday, April 2.

Results of the exams, to be taken at the schools, will not necessarily determine participation in the program, but will be considered along with subsequent army tests, the war department said in announcing the plans yesterday. Youths under 18 who make "outstanding scores" will be invited to join the army enlisted reserve corps, but will not be called to active duty until end of the school term which is current on their 18th birthday, the announcement added.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

considered along with subsequent army tests, the war department said in announcing the plans yesterday. Youths under 18 who make "outstanding scores" will be invited to join the army enlisted reserve corps, but will not be called to active duty until end of the school term which is current on their 18th birthday, the announcement added.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.

Students who have attained their 17th and not their 22nd birthday by July 1, who do not hold certificates of graduation from a secondary school but who are attending accredited colleges or universities.

Those eligible for the tests are: High school and preparatory school graduates who will have attained their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, regardless of whether they are attending college.

High school and preparatory school seniors who will be graduated by July 1, provided they will have attained their 17th and not their 20th birthday by that time.