ASSEMBLY PRESIDENT VISITS REBEKAH LODGE HERE TUESDAY EVENING

The Roseburg Rebekah lodge No. 41 held one of the most interesting meetings of the year on Tuesday evening, March 9, when Miss Madeline Rossner, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon made her official visit. Miss Rossner was accompanied by the assembly marshall, Mrs. Ossie Fields, of Portland and assembly conductor, Elizabeth Buhn of Grants Pass.

The Theta Rho Girls club of Roseburg presented a very beautiful and impressive "Rose Drill." The girls were dressel in pastel colored formal dresses, and at the close of the drill each presented a beautiful red rose to President Rossner, who responded most graciously to this tribute.

The Rebekah degree was conferred upon the following candidates: Ora W. Carter, Elsie Dimmick, Mamie Griesel, Dorothy Smith, Ellen Pennie, Wilamae Muetzel, Margaret Ann Saunders, John L. Saunders, Blanche K. Marr, Jessie K. Thomas, Irene Yarnell, Alta Bartram, Ethel Kluver, Vivian V. Stephens, George J. Thomas, J. S. Marr, Edwin A. Bayliss, Cyrus C. Dimmick and William A. Hudnell. This was the largest class initiated in the state so far this year, and speaks for the interest and enthusiastic work of the Roseburg members. George Dimmick and Marie Finley were also received as members by transfer.

A delegation from Umpqua lodge at Elkton, numbering sixteen members, and twenty-one from Myrtle Creek were presented in a body and welcomed. Other lodges represented in the fifty-nine visitors present were Sutherlin, Myrtle Point, Cottage Grove, Ashland, Grants Pass, Dayton, and Canyonville. Eighty-eight members of Roseburg lodge were present.

Ralph Russell announced that a one-day session of the grand lodge of Oregon will be held in Portland, May 19, 1943.

The Good of the Order chairman, Ethel Bailey, presented two program numbers: a musical reading by Myrtella Cannady and vocal solos by Mary Myers.

President Rossner gave a short address stressing cooperation and fraternalism. Short talks were also given by Ossie Fields, Elizabeth Buhn, Ralph Russell, Edythe Kelley, and Ethel Bailey.

Lena Porter, noble grand, in behalf of the lodge presented a lovely gift to Miss Rossner. The door prizes were won by Mrs. Argie Beals, and Ethel Kluver.

An invitation from the I. O. O. F. lodge for dinner and celebration of their eighty-fourth anniversary March 18, was accepted.

Following the meeting refreshments were served in the dining room at tables gaily decorated with spring flowers.
