B. P. W. C. SPONSOR CHARMING BOND TEA AT PARGETER HOME
The floodlighted gorgeous pink magnolia and flowering shell-pink plum trees at the H. O. Pargeter home garden formed a very beautiful setting for the B. P. W. C. bond and defense stamp tea Wednesday from three to ten o'clock.

The spacious rooms of the Pargeter home are all arranged with attractive wide windows, reflecting the beauty of the surrounding gardens filled with rare and beautiful trees and shrubs. A gorgeous picture from every window in the home was viewed by the guests, who totaled 150 in number and the sum of $725.00 was realized in the sale of defense stamps and bonds, which were sold by Miss Martha Perry, Miss Dolma Grobe and Mrs. J. C. McCullister.

The tea table, exquisitely appointed with a low arrangement of pink magnolia blossoms and pink plum sprays, was covered by a lovely lace cloth and lighted by tall lighted white tapers. Alternating in pouring were Mrs. Thomas Atkins, president of the B. P. W. C., Mrs. E. R. Kenny, Miss Amanda Anderson, Miss Verna Carothers, Miss Ila Loubach, Miss Rosa B. Parrott, Mrs. H. H. Stapleton and Mrs. William Bell.

Mrs. Edythe Gilmour, Mrs. Clifford Barker, Mrs. E. R. Kenny, Miss Amanda Anderson, Miss Verna Carothers and Mrs. Gene Mills assisted in making arrangements for the successful and enjoyable affair and had charge of receiving and serving during the tea hours.

The B. P. W. C. has expressed its sincere appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Pargeter for their cooperation and opening their beautiful home to the public, so that the bond and defense stamp sale could be so successful. Hundreds of garden lovers every year visit the Pargeter home to see the magnolia trees in bloom.

W. S. OF C. S. HAS INTERESTING MEETING THURSDAY AFTERNOON
The W. S. of C. S. of the Methodist church met at the church parlors Thursday afternoon with Mrs. William Hoeft, president, in charge and Mrs. Melville T. Wire conducting the devotions and Mrs. A. J. Starmer playing for the group singing.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Mills

Coming as a complete surprise to their many friends in Roseburg, is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Elsie Reese, attractive daughter of Mrs. Ruth of this city, and Wm. E. Mills, of Fort Lewis, Wash., son of Mrs. Mina Parkison, of Sargent, Neb., Tuesday, March 2, at Vancouver, Wash. Rev. Roy Parcel, pastor of the Methodist church at Vancouver, performed the impressive double ring ceremony at two o'clock in the afternoon at the parsonage.

The bride was lovely in a two-piece ensemble of aqua blue with brown accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bennett (Mary Kay Glen of Roseburg), of Portland, were attendants and Mrs. Bennett wore an attractive two-piece ensemble of green velvet with brown accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Following the ceremony, the bride and bridegroom left for Klamath Falls to visit the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Reese, and then came to Roseburg. Mr. Mills left Thursday for Fort Lewis to resume his duties with the U. S. army.

Both the bride and bridegroom are very well known in this city. The bride was graduated from Roseburg high school and is now employed in the office of Dunham Transfer company. The bridegroom was graduated from high school at Annsley, Neb., and was employed by the Standard Oil company in this city, before entering the army.

HARDY-ARCHIBALD WEDDING TAKES PLACE AT MEDFORD

MEDFORD, March 13—The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Eloise Hardy to Jean Claire Archibald at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Hardy, 516 South Ivy street, Medford, was an event of last Sunday afternoon. The Rev. Harry Hansen of the First Presbyterian church officiated.

The services were read at 4 o'clock under an arch of white satin ribbon and bouvardia. White tapers flanked each side of the archway and were lighted by the bride's brother-in-law, Lloyd Crowell. Baskets of pastel and white snapdragons were used about the rooms. The pastel note was also carried out in the dress of the bride which was gray-green peplum style of spring crepe and that of the bridesmaid, her sister, Miss Margy Hardy, who wore a similar dress of dusty rose crepe.

The bride carried a small white Bible and orchids with streamers of satin ribbon and bouvardia. The bride's mother chose a pale green afternoon suit of crepe braided in yellow and green with corsage of pale yellow rosebuds. The mother of the bridegroom, who assisted with the receiving, chose a black and white afternoon suit of silk crepe and corsage of pink rosebuds and bouvardia.

Entering the room to Mendocino wedding march with Roger Wolf at the piano, the bride was given away by her father in the ring ceremony. Peen Hughes was best man.

The first piece of wedding cake was cut by the bride, and a sister of the bride, Mrs. Lloyd Crowell who wore a pastel blue afternoon dress, continued with the serving. Grandmother of the groom, Mrs. Anna Archibald, of Albany, first cut the bridegroom's cake, after which the bridegroom, mother continued at the bridal table.

The bride, a graduate of Medford high school, receiving several honors at the time, recently finished at Sacramento Junior college where she was president of the national honorary sorority, Theta Epsilon. Mr. Archibald, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Archibald, also graduated from Medford high school. He attended Oregon State College where he was affiliated with Phi Delta Theta fraternity and later attended Sacramento Junior college where he graduated last May. He was a member of the Black "S" society, an organization of outstanding athletes. Recently he finished coastguard training at Baltimore, Md.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Anna G. Archibald and Mrs. H. G. Archibald, Albany, Ore., Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Archibald and daughter, Sarah, of Grants Pass, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hardy of Ashland; Mrs. Dorothy MacArthur and Mrs. Hannah Alberts of Riverside, California.

The couple left after the ceremony for Astoria, Ore., where Mr. Archibald is stationed with the U. S. coast guard.

Both are members of well-known southern Oregon families.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald and son, Jean, formerly made their home in Roseburg, at which time Mr. Archibald was manager of the Copco, Jean attended school here, before moving to Medford with his parents.
