Cattle Tender Dies

Under Wheels of Train

DUNSMUIR, Calif., March 23.—(AP)—Ten cars of a northbound freight late yesterday passed over a man's body on the Southern Pacific tracks near Fisher, 15 miles south of here.

The victim was identified as J. Blonda of Hynes, Calif., who was in charge of several cars of cattle bound from Portland for Los Angeles. He apparently fell off of a car and was ground to death beneath it.

Fugitive Army Officer

Captured in Washington

FORT LEWIS, Wash., March 23.—(AP)—Joseph A. Poll, 22-year-old former second lieutenant, who escaped from Fort Lewis January 12 while in custody on charges of seditious activities, will be brought back from Washington, D. C. under military guard. Maj. James Adams, post adjutant, said the only information available here on Poll's case was that he had been apprehended in Washington.
