WAR RELIEF GROUP SHIPS LARGE BOX

The Christian Science War Relief sewing group, which meets at the Perkins building every Thursday at two o'clock, has just announced the shipment of a large box of furs to Portland, where the furs will be re-conditioned and made into linings for men's coats and jackets for men in the service overseas.

Mrs. Annie L. Russell, chairman of the group, has reported that residents of this community have been especially helpful and generous in furnishing these furs, but a call has been given for even more. Anyone having used furs to donate to this cause has been asked to leave same at the sewing room or to call Mrs. Russell.

HEALTH ASSOCIATION TO MEET ON THURSDAY

The Douglas County Health association has announced an important meeting for Thursday evening to be held at the home of the president, Mrs. Fred Fisher, on the North Pacific highway. All members and persons interested are invited to attend.

POET'S CORNER

MY VICTORY GARDEN

by J. M. Judd

I chose a place in our back yard I am telling you that ground was hard I spaded all day from sun to sun it took two days for me to get done. I had such an awful pain in my back If I moved a muscle I could hear it crack But I kept right on with my hoe and rake Instead of making a fancy cake I finally got it all smoothed down the neeest, smoothest garden in town So now I am ready to put in the seeds And later on I can pull the weeds You ask what I am doing this for Why it will help to win the war If every one will do their share it will soon be over,over there.

TRANSITION

by ALDEN HARNESSE

Through all the night in wilds afar, While lost, did Stanley Swan, A Yankee lad from Zamibar, Walk on and on and on, When red dawn lit the cloudless east And on the desert burst, To danger-stages fast increased The torture of his thirst, From where he walked, around him gleamed To spaces far and dim, That sandy waste whose silence seemed As vast as time to him, The great sun blazed like fire that day; He reeled beneath its might, But soon a green oasis lay, Before his gladdened sight, When night, like thought that soothes and calms, Across the desert crept, He reached that place of gorgeous palms And near a cool spring slept, He learned to shoot with matchless skill; He learned to hunt with care And with an ancient gun to kill Ferocious lions there, But now upon a distant isle The midnight sea belogs, With rifles of the newest style He kills the yellow dogs.

News of 4-H CLUBS

A Victory Garden club of nine members, enrolled at Dillard, is to be led by Mrs. Margaret B. Adair, teacher of the school. Some of the members of the club have their own gardens while others are sharing in work and management of the gardens of their parents. The membership of the club includes Francis Laurance, president; Bobby Hercher, vice president; Darlene Alexander, secretary; Barry Laurance, Oliver Fosback, Dick Blair, Sharon Hercher, Jim Fosback and Delmar Smith.

An advanced clothing club of four girls is enrolled at Sutherland. Miss La Verne Bolton is directing the activities. The members are Jacqueline Flory, president; Phyllis Worman, vice president; Viola Aldrop, secretary, and Lola Stowe.

County Club Agent Britton made a trip to the coast Thursday and Friday, where he visited the clubs and schools of Booth, Gardiner and Reedsport. He also met with several leaders of clubs. Friday evening the 4-H club members gave a program at the Riddle school. Mr. John Edwards, principal of the school, presided during the meeting. Several local numbers were given including those of the school orchestra. Sound motion pictures were shown by County Club Agent Britton. Following the program, popcorn and crackerjacks were sold for the purpose of raising money for a 4-H club scholarship at summer school.

Four-H leaders and members of the South Deer Creek school entertained their parents and friends at the grange hall Saturday evening. Since they already have raised money for three 4-H summer school scholarships, they made no attempt to raise any more money at the program. The South Deer Creek boy's quartet completed the balance of the program and sound motion pictures were also shown. There was a good crowd in attendance. Edenhower News by Pat Calkins

A very lovely gift was presented to Joanne Ware by the other members of the "Future Cooks of Edenhower" for her room in her new home, where the meeting of the club was held Thursday. The girls held only a short business meeting. Most of the time was taken up by an oral quiz over the cookery handbook. Refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cookies and punch, served by Mrs. Ware, were enjoyed by the group who spent the remainder of the afternoon playing games.

The members of the Girls' Cookery club have collected several large sacks of cotton rags to be sold for the fund for 4-H summer school.
