Bald Excuse

NEW YORK (AP)—Special Agent Edward E. Conroy of the Federal Bureau of Investigation claims to have heard the best so far as alibis among draft delinquents go.

This, Conroy related, was the explanation of a Queens resident arrested on a charge of failing to report for induction.

Worried over his thinning hair, the man declared he felt the army would not give him hair treatments. He added that he planned to stay out of the service until he had a chance to grow some new hair.
