until EVENTS clear the air.

THERE'S nothing of great importance from the South seas. Our planes smack five Jap destroyers conveying a supply ship—probably to some Jap island base. Some 30 or 40 Zeros appear off Guadalcanal and are chased off by our fighters. Score: 16 Zeros shot down to 6 of our planes. Riska is bombed again.

ON the home front, FDR vetoes the farm bloc bill to exclude benefit payments in computing farm parity price formulas. (Benefit payments are what the farmer gets as a subsidy to induce him to do what the government wants, such as planting certain crops or not planting others.)

He urges congress to uphold his veto, saying it is impossible to control the cost of living unless ALL its vital elements are stabilized.

HE adds: "The time has come when EVERYONE—farmers, workers, managers, investors—must realize that living standards CANNOT BE IMPROVED in time of war." He goes on: "On the contrary, we must all CUT our standards of living for the duration. We must adopt simple wartime standards."

IT was FDR who told us, along toward the end of his third-term campaign in 1940, that even if we had to fight a war we would give up NONE OF OUR SOCIAL GAINS.

Hard experience has taught him much. With the burden of a world war on his shoulders, he knows better now.

He knows we'll give up whatever we HAVE to give up IN ORDER TO WIN.

DON'T scoff at the president's change of mind. With the stern realities of war pressing ever closer and closer around you, you've probably changed some of YOUR OWN opinions.

This is no time to scoff and quarrel and backbite. It's a time to FIGHT.

DON'T, however, be so simple as to doubt that WHATEVER is done in Washington (including the president's farm veto) is motivated largely by politics.

One of the big factors influencing decisions there is always WHO WILL WIN THE NEXT ELECTION.

That is one of the more or less unavoidable shortcomings of our form of government which with all its shortcomings, is worth fighting for.

POLITICS, unfortunately, entered heavily into the legislation by means of which we're trying to control prices, resulting in a ceiling that is FULL OF HOLES. The holes were put there to please organized groups of voters.

We're paying the penalty now.

Immunization Clinic Set for Tomorrow

Dr. E. J. Wainwright, county physician, and Mrs. Hazel Lytle, county health nurse, will conduct the annual immunization clinic at Roseburg Senior High school Tuesday, April 6, starting at 10 a. m. It was announced today. Smallpox and diphtheria immunization will be provided, together with tuberculin and Schick tests. Cooperation of parents and students is urged.

FARMERS TO BE PROTECTED

EDITORIAL

By Charles V. Stanton

THE Douglas county mounted police reserves, have been very much in the news the past week. This organization created to serve as a defensive unit in event of enemy raid or invasion, has been called into active duty to combat an enemy at home—the cattle rustler and the poultry thief. The members of the mounted reserve were enlisted largely because of their ability in horsemanship and their common love of horseflesh, but in their new duties they are patrolling with automobiles to cover greater distances.

The service they are being called upon to perform is far different from any they had anticipated. But they were organized as a civilian defense group to protect lives and property and whether the threat is from a foreign enemy or from one at home, they have shown they are prepared and ready to do the duty assigned them.

We hate to think we have people in Douglas county who have no respect for the property of their neighbors. Yet it is a fact there are some who will steal, kill and destroy the property of others for their own gain, or, as has happened in some cases, simply for amusement. Farmers report continuing losses of cattle, sheep, hogs, chickens and turkeys. These thefts have increased with federal meat rationing. Spotlights hunting at night for deer have slain valuable horses and cattle. Some of these thefts indicate the work of organized black market operators, but for the most part they apparently originate right here in Douglas county with people who are so unscrupulous they will steal from their neighbors.

Because of the publicity given conditions in Douglas county it might be surmised the situation is worse here than elsewhere. The fact is, however, there are fewer thefts here than in many other sections of the coast, particularly in some parts of California. Sheriff Bud Carter and Captain Al Bashford have called the mounted reserves into active service to make sure that conditions shall not become as serious as they have elsewhere. Action now to prevent wholesale thefts from spreading into Douglas county will save the farmer and the livestock owner a great many dollars in future months when the pinch of meat rationing is more general.

The operation of the patrol will not affect law-abiding citizens beyond, perhaps, the occasional halting of automobiles travelling on county roads at night. Certainly the minor discomfort of being required to stop momentarily for identification and search should not concern the citizens who desire to aid in protecting the farmer against loss. The work of the patrol, however, will seriously handicap those who propose to profit by thievery.

The cooperation of all good citizens of Douglas county should be given the sheriff's office and the police reserves in their anti-rustling campaign. The sheriff should be notified of suspicious activities. All information that will aid in the apprehension of law violators should be freely given. The sheriff has promised to keep information in strictest confidence and all reports will be carefully investigated before action is taken in order that no innocent person shall suffer.

The average farmer is having a hard enough time today without suffering the loss of his cattle, sheep and poultry, or the wanton destruction of his fences and buildings. If the mounted police reserves can give him the protection to which he is entitled, they will have performed a most worth-while task.

Dairy to Suspend Retail Delivery

The Umpqua dairy will suspend retail deliveries of milk after Saturday, April 10, it was announced today by O. J. Feldkamp, manager. After this week, he stated, Umpqua dairy milk will be available only through stores.

Inability to secure labor to efficiently operate the delivery routes was reported by Mr. Feldkamp. "We have made every effort," he said, "to secure persons willing and capable of maintaining the delivery service, despite the fact that the service occasioned considerable financial loss, due to the high wages we were required to pay. We have not been able, however, to make satisfactory arrangements and must cease further deliveries after this week."

Umpqua dairy milk, Feldkamp stated, will be distributed to practically all food stores and may be purchased there by customers.

Snell Names Two New Liquor Board Members

SALEM, Ore., April 4. (AP)—G. P. Lilley, Baker, and Matt Wilhelm, Eugene, were appointed yesterday by Gov. Snell as members of the Oregon liquor control commission. They will replace E. R. Fatland, Condon, and J. N. Chambers, Salem, both of whom submitted resignations recently because of the press of other affairs, the governor said. Lilley is manager of Baker war industries and of the William

Mrs. Archambeau Dies at Sutherlin

Mrs. Louise Belle Archambeau, 74, widow of Francis Adolph Archambeau, died Saturday night at her home in Sutherlin. She was born in Old Oakland, March 10, 1869, the daughter of the late Captain W. H. and Melinda Crouch, and was educated by tutors and at the Oakland academy and the Academy of the Sacred Heart at Salem. She spent the major part of her life in Oakland and Sutherlin except for the period from 1902 to 1916, when she made her home in Eugene. Her husband died Oct. 24, 1920.

She is survived by a daughter, Miss Louretta M. Archambeau, and a son, William Ernest Archambeau, both of Sutherlin. The son is at present engaged in naval work in California. She also leaves three grandsons and a sister, Mrs. Mary Evans, Canyonville. Six brothers and a sister are deceased.

She was a life-long member of the Presbyterian church. Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

Legion Post Here Sets Program for Army Day

A display of flags Tuesday in observance of Army day is urged by Governor Snell in a proclamation urging recognition for the armed forces who on battlefronts throughout the world are upholding in glorious fashion the splendid traditions of the American soldier.

The Army day celebration, which is endorsed by President Roosevelt, congress and the secretary of war, as well as the governor, will be lacking in parades and large gatherings.

In Roseburg, the principal observance will be sponsored by Umpqua post of the American Legion with an 8 o'clock program at the Knights of Pythias lodge hall.

Post-War Project Group Named by Gov. Snell

SALEM, Ore., April 4. (AP)—Gov. Snell yesterday completed his panel of experts who are to study post-war problems when he named his six members of the committee on post-war readjustment and development created by the 1943 legislature at his request.

The governor's appointees: E. B. MacNaughton, Portland banker; George H. Buckler, Portland building contractor; A. A. Lausmann, Medford lumber mill owner; Wayne Stewart, Dayville stockman; Del Nickerson, executive secretary, Oregon Federation of Labor; Stanley Earl, executive secretary, Oregon CIO.

The governor also announced that Dr. Victor P. Morris would represent the University of Oregon school of business administration and economics and Dean R. H. Dearborn the Oregon State college school of engineering on the committee.

Hi-Y Club Two-Thirds Way to Jeep Fund Goal

Twenty-four hundred dollars in United States war bonds and stamps have been sold by the Hi-Y club at Roseburg High school since March 1. The amount expected to be obtained by April 15 is $3,000 or an amount sufficient to purchase four jeeps. The drive is under the direction of Jim Osborne.

News of Men From Douglas County In War Service

Word has been received here that Lt. Jack Pershing Bathrick, son of Mrs. R. L. Bathrick of Roseburg, has been transferred from the army training camp at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, to Camp Blanding, near Starke, Florida. Mrs. Bathrick, nee Kathryn Busenbark of this city, has been in Oklahoma with her husband and accompanied him to Florida. She is a daughter of County Judge Busenbark.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Whittenburg, 112 W. Douglas St., Roseburg, have received word that their son, Golden B. Whittenburg, has been promoted to corporal in the U. S. army and has been transferred from Camp Carson, Colo., to Camp Savage, Minn. They also have had a letter from another son, Woodrow W. Whittenburg, who was made a prisoner of war at Wake Island, that the prisoners are being furnished with clean barracks and are given good treatment at the internment camp at Shanghai, China.

Barton Hoyt Brown of Roseburg has been graduated from the naval school in electricity and radio at University of Houston and has been assigned to advanced training. His wife and son reside in Portland.

Leslie Heaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Heaton, Oakland, Ore., is now situated in Alaska, where he is serving with an anti-aircraft coastal defense battery. He has been in Alaska for the past four months. A graduate of Oakland high school, he has been in service since Dec. 1941.

Word has been received here that Lowell Russell, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Russell of this city, has passed his final examination in the naval aviation maintenance school at Norman, Okla., with a grade of 98. He expects to be sent into active service in the near future.

DIAL LOG

Monday again and don't forget our two favorite programs to-night, "San Quentin On the Air" (8:30) and "Double or Nothing" (8:30). Sir Cedric Hardwicke will say "Thank you, America" in behalf of the more than four score British film stars in this country, when he guest stars on the quiz program, Monday. It is also the day when we have plenty of news commentators. As for us, we like to taper off in the evening with Glenn Hardy and the "Newspaper of the Air"—just straight news reporting with no prophesying or predictions. It's as satisfying as a good steak dinner after a diet of marshmallows (more vulgarly known as "wind") pudding.

Now for Tuesday morning friend, have you listened to any of the "Garden Talks"? If you are one of the millions of amateur gardeners struggling through your last agonies of planting vegetables, you'll find some good, useful information here. It's a fifteen minute talk and of course we always did like the theme song, "Yees". Also Tuesday a m. Cheer Up Gang (10:30) and Organ Chimes (11:15).

P. S. Did you listen to "Nobody's Children" today? and we hope you remembered the new time for the "Johnson Family".
