Miss Dorothy Jackson

The traditional box of candy passed at Alpha chapter, Beta Sigma Phi's meeting last week at the Hotel Senator in Sacramento, California, brought members the surprise announcement of Miss Dorothy Dale Jackson's betrothal to Lt. J. Frederic Hilgenberg, army air forces.

The bride-to-be, Camp Fire Girls executive, has made her home in Sacramento for the last year and a half. She was connected with the organization several years prior to that and was stationed in Waco, Texas. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Jackson, of Salem, formerly of Roseburg. She was graduated from Roseburg high school and the Southern Oregon Education college at Ashland, after which she taught in the Fullerton school in Roseburg for three years.

Miss Jackson plans to leave her position in Sacramento sometime this month and will go to Salt Lake City, where she will make her future home.

Lieutenant Hilgenberg, now stationed in Salt Lake City, is from Danville, Illinois, and is the son of Dr. Frederic Hilgenberg. He was graduated from the University of Illinois.

Mrs. R. R. Brand Gives Charming Easter Program at Woman's Club

The annual Easter program of the Roseburg Woman's club was a very charming affair of Tuesday at a one-thirty o'clock dessert-luncheon at the clubhouse with Mrs. E. L. Knapp, hostess, assisted by Mrs. A. Murdock, Mrs. C. E. Jasmin and Mrs. Earl Ullrich.

Beautiful bouquets of daffodils, from the L. L. Wimberly gardens, were used to decorate the long tables and rooms. The Easter motif was carried out in the colorful napkins.

Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, president, was in charge and Mrs. A. J. Geddes, chaplain, opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Homer Grow very graciously gave a talk on "Easter Thoughts," after which she presented Mrs. Floyd Lewis, who very beautifully sang, "Open the Gates of the Temple," and Mrs. Morris H. Roach played the lovely violin number, "The Holy City," as special Easter music for the occasion. Mrs. Grow accompanied both numbers.

Mrs. R. R. Brand, a past president of the club, very charmingly presented the Easter program, using as her subject, Leonardo Da Vinci's world-famous painting, "The Last Supper," and the copy of the picture in glass by Miss Morietti for the Forest Lawn Memorial cemetery in Southern California. Mrs. Brand's talk was beautifully presented and was one of the very loveliest Easter programs to be enjoyed by the club in many years.

Mrs. Len B. Fishback was welcomed in to the club as a new member and Mrs. C. C. Hessemer (who is here from McMinnville visiting her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Lewis), and Mrs. Thurlow were introduced as guests. Besides the hostesses and guests, members enjoying the charming program presented by Mrs. Brand included: Mrs. H. F. Hatfield, Mrs. Floyd Lewis, Mrs. A. S. Coen, Mrs. Len B. Fishback, Mrs. Homer W. ● Your Country means it, too, when it says that sound health has become a patriotic duty—the first contribution of a citizen who seeks to further the program of national preparedness.

That's logical, isn't it? No nation, ailing and low-spirited ever put up an effective defense. What we need now is energy and optimism resulting from sound health and physical fitness.

So, may we suggest that you go and see your Doctor without further delay. And, of course, we are well prepared to expertly compound his prescriptions.
