DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

There are two words which have been and are today much in man's thought. One is "freedom" or liberty, and the other is "tyranny." Historically tyranny seems to have been the dominating factor. For centuries the strong have lorded it over the weak and even reduced them to slavery. But sooner or later, the man oppressed resents, protests, and rebels, and the result is revolution and freedom. It has taken centuries of suffering and struggle to achieve it. Freedom is costly. As Americans we have taken our freedom for granted and thought it as secure as the air we breathe. Not so, a wise patriot has said eternal vigilance is the price of liberty, and this price must be paid or freedom is lost. Democracy's principle is liberty under law. This is the Christian rule. Vigilance, steadfastness and fidelity to law, divine and human this is the way of freedom. Daniel Webster said, God grants liberty only to those who love it and are always ready to guard and defend it. He is the freeman whom the truth makes free, and all are slaves beside. It rests within ourselves whether we will be bond or free. Either I sacrifice my selfishness for the sake of my nation or I sacrifice my nation for the sake of my selfishness. Amen.

Douglas Realtors Greet State Heads at Meeting

Real Estate Commissioner Claude Murphy, Larry Bome, secretary of the Oregon State Association of Real Estate Boards, and Claude G. Stotts, president of the association, were guests of the Douglas County Realty board at a luncheon Monday noon at Hotel Umpqua.

Talks were made by the visitors on current real estate trends, taxes, housing and rentals. Commissioner Murphy outlined the recent legislation affecting real estate.

Election of officers of the Douglas county board was held. Fred A. Goff was elected president for the ensuing year. Roy O. Young, present secretary, was retained.

Douglas county brokers attending included Bert Wells, Howard M. Bailey, Fred A. Goff, Roy O. Young, Earl Wiley, George W. Dimmick, Ray Ruebel, W. A. Bogard and R. M. Peyton. Next board meeting will be held Monday noon, April 19, at Hotel Umpqua.

Alive and Kicking

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla.—The report of a movie patron that he had been sitting next to a dead man for 20 minutes was double-checked by the manager, who hastily called police.

R. C. McGriff, chief of the detective staff, arrived on the run, but was startled when the "corpse" revived with the plaint: "I paid for my seat for a nap—and I don't snore. What's the big idea?"

A single night raid of 1,000 bombers over the Rhineland calls for $375,000 of gasoline plus a million dollars for bombs dropped, and an average of 11 million dollars as the cost of planes lost through enemy action.
