Bandleader Kay Kyser Turned Down by Army

LOS ANGELES, April 13—(AP)—Surgeons at the Los Angeles induction station today announced that Bandleader Kay Kyser had been rejected for military service.

Their announcement, ending one of the most controversial draft cases involving a member of the Hollywood colony, was announced after Kyser had been given special X-rays. In addition to the regular examination of his spine and one knee.

The army doctor did not disclose the exact disability on which the 37-year-old movie and radio star's rejection was based.
