because WE had control of the air and SMASHED his transports before they could get to where they were headed for.

MacARTHUR seems to be saying as plainly as words can say:
"Send us enough planes so that we can hold what we have. Don't leave us in another Bataan."

A HIGH Jap officer (talking obviously for our benefit) says that preparations have been completed for a vast air attack on the American mainland, and adds that German and Italian planes will join in.

We must take this with a large handful of salt, but still must consider it as a possibility.

The Japs haven't been building these stepping-stone air fields through the Aleutians toward Alaska (of which our 11th bomber command warned us yesterday) just for healthful outdoor exercise.

IN Tunisia, Rommel seems to have reached the mountain defense line that rings Tunis and Bizerte and is beginning to fight back again. After fleeing more than 1500 miles before Montgomery, he has reached his last stand.

We had a field day against the axis forces Tuesday, destroying 84 German and Italian planes with a loss of only three of our own. Seventy-three of the 84 were destroyed by Flying Fortresses in two raids on Sicilian air fields (presumably we caught the enemy planes on the ground and smashed them before they could get off).

The Germans are reported to have only about three air fields left in Tunisia.

EXCEPT for mysterious sharp tank attacks, preceded by air assault, delivered by the Germans in the Leningrad area, the bulk of the fighting in Russia seems to be in the air. Mud still hampers the ground fighting.

The military experts offer no explanation of these attacks, but suggest that they may be feints intended to draw Russian attention away from the spot where the Germans are planning a real attack in force.

Moscow is reported to be expecting heavy German attacks somewhere along the line in the next two or three weeks. The Germans are reported to be massing troops and supplies at several points along the Russian front—presumably in preparation for the spring offensive against the Russians that Hitler has been promising.

WANT TO BUY A JEEP?

EDITORIAL

By Charles V. Stanton

A LOT of you folks have been declaring your intention of buying a jeep, that all-purpose army vehicle, when the war is over. You don't have to wait that long to buy one. Of course, you will not have the use of the machine, but you can be assured it will be put to a purpose which will give you much satisfaction.

The cunning little jeep, which looks so cute yet is one of the most important weapons of war, costs the United States government $900. If you will step into your bank tomorrow and invest $900 in war savings bonds your Uncle Samuel will have the use of your jeep to help lick the Heineins and the Japs.

Perhaps $900 is a little strong for your pocketbook. Well, you can buy an army tent for $10, a winter flying jacket for $18.75 (the cost of one bond) or, if your mind runs to food, a completely equipped field range can be procured for $75.

Perhaps you would like to be sure that your soldier at the front has ample clothing. From the pictures returning from the south Pacific and north Africa, we realize it doesn't cost much to supply a pair of shorts. But after looking at the pictures from the Aleutians and Iceland we can see that the cost of $154.95 for the average enlisted man's clothing is not out of reason.

Then there is a life float for 10 people, costing $185, and, whoa! here's an army mule for $190.

Perhaps you would like to help blast a few enemy planes out of the sky. One thousand rounds of 50 calibre machine gun ammunition costs $240. If you have $600 to loan your Uncle Sam, he can use the money to buy a .30 calibre machine gun.

Of course, if we are still talking chicken feed, you might be interested in a scout car at $5,000, a primary training plane at $15,000, a light tank at $28,000 or a PT boat at $75,000.

There might even be some of you who would like to get into the upper brackets. A pursuit plane at $137,000, a Flying Fortress for $350,000, or a sub chaser at $500,000.

We could go on and on. Many thousands of items go to make up the armament needed for this war, but you get the idea. Your dollars buy these implements of warfare so badly needed at this time. We are asked to raise thirteen billion dollars as a national goal for this purpose and right here in Douglas county our quota is around two and one-half million dollars.

Why not buy that jeep or that flying jacket, or even the mule the army so badly needs and turn it over to your Uncle Sam?

It really doesn't cost you anything. You are only loaning your money and you will get it all back, with interest, after the war is over.
