Organist and Choir Director, Mrs. Homer Grow. Pianist, Mrs. Max Pennie.

BIRTHDAY PARTY IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR OF THURSDAY EVENING

A very delightful party was enjoyed Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Edgar Lewis in Laurelhurst honoring eleven birthday anniversaries. Lovely bouquets of colorful spring flowers were arranged about the rooms. A delightful social hour was enjoyed and lovely refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harding, Attorney and Mrs. Dexter Rice, Ernie and Harry Butler, Mrs. B. Casey and daughter, Miss Helen; Miss Rosa B. Parrott, Mrs. J. F. Barker, Mrs. Velle Broadway, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Josse, Mrs. A. W. Baum, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Belows, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Chapman, J. J. Eppinger and Mrs. Edgar Lewis.

MID-WEEK BIBLE CLASS HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING ON THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The Mid-Week Bible class of St. Paul's Lutheran church met at the attractive home of Mrs. Roy Hebard last Thursday afternoon. The interesting topic study was based on Matthew, chapter 12, and led by the pastor, W. A. Sylvester. Mrs. Roy Hebard, the president of the class, conducted a very lively business meeting, during which interesting projects for church work were discussed. Beautiful bouquets of spring flowers were arranged about the rooms. During the social hour Mrs. Hebard, assisted by Mrs. Coenenberg and Mrs. Noyer, served lovely refreshments to the following members and guests: Mrs. V. Andraef, Mrs. L. Wilson, Miss Judy Hebard, Mrs. J. Feldkamp, Mrs. A. Coenenberg, Miss A. Meusch, Mrs. A. Erny, Mrs. P. Siemann, Mrs. W. Vogt, Mrs. L. Voigt, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Sylvester. The next meeting of the class will be held May 6th at the home of Mrs. J. Feldkamp in the Kohlhaugen apartments.

JUNIOR-SENIOR P. T. A. MEETING IS HELD AT HIGH SCHOOL TUESDAY

One of the finest programs to be held by the Junior-Senior high P. T. A. this year was enjoyed Tuesday night at the senior high school with Marshall Pengra, KRNR manager, as chairman of the program on "Juvenile Delinquency and its Relation to Post War Reorganization."

H. B. Carter, president, conducted the business session, after which Russell Carey, winner of the state championship speaking contest, gave his prize-winning talk. Mr. Pengra took over the meeting and led in the discussion of the evening's topic, which was of great interest to the parents. It was announced that the next meeting will be held May 11 with Principal Clyde Beard and Principal R. R. Brand in charge of the topic, "Are the Schools Meeting Their Responsibility to Youth for Living in a Post War World?"

These P. T. A. meetings held this year have been arranged in order that there may be more constructive thinking on the post war world by the parents and students. It is hoped that every parent of junior and senior high students will be present at the next meeting, as the evening's symposium will close the P. T. A. meetings for the school year.

Friendly teamwork on party lines

Party lines today are providing telephone service to thousands of people who otherwise might have to do without — due to shortages in vital telephone materials that have "gone to war."

With teamwork, party line sharers can greatly assist each other and help keep the lines clear for our country's war effort.

Reasonable use, prompt answering, thoughtfulness of others, are helpful to all.

Your fine co-operation is appreciated.

MRS. S. J. COOPER ENTERTAINS CLUB ON WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. S. J. Cooper very graciously entertained her bridge club Wednesday afternoon at a lovely one-thirty o'clock dessert-lunch at her attractive home in Laurelhurst. A delft blue cloth covered the serving table, which was centered with a low arrangement of pale pink magnolia blossoms. Huge bouquets of lilacs, anemones and tulips were arranged about the rooms.

A lovely handkerchief shower was given to Mrs. Vincent Beschel, who with her husband and son, Bobby, plan to move to Klamath Falls, April 24. They have been residing in Laurelhurst, since coming to this city from San Francisco a year ago. Mrs. Clyde Carstens and Mrs. Robert Kelly were guests and members enjoying the occasion with Mrs. Cooper included: Mrs. Vincent Beschel, Mrs. A. D. Parr, Mrs. Scott Williams, Mrs. E. E. Boring, Mrs. Marshall Pengra, Mrs. A. G. Henninger and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter. Mrs. Henninger assisted the hostess in serving. Contract bridge was the diversion of the pleasant afternoon hours with Mrs. Williams winning the high score prize.

BETA SIGMA PHI HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING ON MONDAY EVENING

The regular meeting of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority was held at the home of Miss Lois Uplik on Cass street on Monday.

A report was given at the meeting on the duck pen concession which was Beta Sigma Phi's share in the Bond Sale Carnival which was held in the I. O. O. F. hall on March 28. The concession consisted of a large wire pen in which were two white ducks. A prize was received by each person who tossed a ring over the duck's head—six throws being given for the purchase of a 10c defense stamp. The duck pen proved to be one of the most entertaining concessions and the group sold $20 worth of defense stamps during the evening.

After the business meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess to Mrs. Helen Addison, Mrs. Bonita Skilling, Miss Amanda Anderson, Miss Mary Blodgett, Mrs. Evelyn Bell, Miss Dora Braughton, Mrs. Jane Bowker, Miss Alice Gerot, Miss Arlie Corbett, guest, Miss Yvonne Gadway and Mrs. Helen Saar.

The next meeting of the sorority is to be held at the home of Mrs. Pauline Robertson, on Winchester street on April 20.

INTER-SE STUDY CLUB HAS CHARMING MEETING TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Mrs. Fred Asam entertained the Inter-SE Study club at a very charming one o'clock salad luncheon Tuesday at the Hotel Umpqua. The table was especially lovely with an elaborate arrangement of lady slippers, centered with a single Indian Pipe and encircled by forest moss.

Covers were placed for: Mrs. F. H. Churchill, Mrs. Hill, of Glendale, and Mrs. Lena Close, of Randle, Wash., guests, and Mrs. R. B. Hampton, Mrs. Bruce Mellis, Mrs. Clyde Beard, Mrs. V. V. Harpham, Mrs. E. S. Hall, Mrs. John Ulrich, Mrs. C. M. Stark, Mrs. Delmar Ramsdell, Mrs. Theo Bond, Mrs. Jay Young and the hostess, Mrs. Asam.

Following the luncheon the group went to the attractive home of Mrs. F. H. Churchill on South Kane street, where the business meeting and program took place. Committees were appointed for arranging material for programs and program printing, for the coming year, after which Mrs. V. V. Harpham gave a very delightful review of Pearl Buck's book, "Dragon Seed."

The next meeting will be a one o'clock salad luncheon, April 27, at the home of Mrs. Jay Young, Melrose route, with Mrs. Alva Laws in charge of the program on "Trends of Chinese novels and other Chinese literature."

D. OF U. V. HOLD REGULAR MEETING AT HALL ON FRIDAY

Florence Nightingale Tent No. 15, Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War met Friday evening at the hall on Military street.

It was announced that the department president, Helen H. Dickover, of Portland, would pay her official visit to the local tent Friday evening, May 14. A dinner was planned in her honor to precede the meeting. Ruth Plumer, chairman, Anna Peterson and Anna Carson will be in charge of the dinner.

Evelyn Cyrus was appointed as instructor to instruction of ritualistic work and to report progress on same to the Department Inspector.

The cooked food sale held March 27 at Easton's grocery for the benefit of the Disaster Unit fund was reported as very successful and the local tent more than exceeded its quota to the fund.

Interesting articles were read from the National Tribune by the secretary. The evening's door prize was won by Anna Carson. The next meeting will be held at the hall April 23.

MR. AND MRS. BARKER ANNOUNCE MARRIAGE OF DAUGHTER, LOIS ADEL

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Barker have announced the marriage of their daughter, Lois Adel, to Elmer L. Giles, son of Mrs. Ida M. Giles, of Roseburg.

The ceremony was read April 10 by Rev. Ralph Mulholland in the study of the Sellwood Baptist church in Portland.

The bride was lovely in a powder blue wool dressmaker suit with gold accessories and she carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Roseburg high school and are both popular members of the younger set of this city. For the last three months the bride has been attending Northwestern Business college in Portland and Mr. Giles has been engaged in national defense work at the Willamette Steel and Electric shipyards.

The young couple spent a brief honeymoon at Seaside and are now at home to their friends at 7225 Southwest Corbett street, Portland.

DELPHIAN CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEETING WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The Delphian club held a very interesting meeting Wednesday at the attractive home of Mrs. Kenneth Ford in Laurelhurst.

Mrs. A. C. Chamberlin presenting the afternoon's program on "French Impressionism." Those present included: Mrs. A. J. Goddes, Mrs. C. A. Chamberlin, Mrs. A. J. Young, Mrs. Washington Hughes and Mrs. Kenneth Ford. The next meeting will be held April 28 at 1:15 o'clock at the Ford home with Mrs. Geddes in charge of the topic, "The 19th Century sculpture and paintings." A special feature of the afternoon will be Mrs. R. Brand's very fine talk on Leonardo da Vinci's world-famous painting, "The Last Supper." Every member is urged to be present.
