KELLOGG GRANGE HAS FINE MEETING

The Kellogg Grange held a very interesting meeting Wednesday evening at the hall with Master Cornelius Miller in charge.

It was voted to purchase material for a community flag to be made by the Home Economics club. Helen Gill Miller was welcomed into the grange and was presented with a beautiful bouquet of Dutch iris and white lilac.

The Home Economics club meeting was announced for Wednesday afternoon, April 21, at the hall. All members are urged to be present.

The lecturer, Mabel Rader, presented a most interesting program with "Victory Gardening" as the theme. The program included: two hymns, "Work for the Night Is Coming," and "Bringing in the Sheaves," sung by the group accompanied by Elizabeth Fisher; Roll-call was answered by "My favorite vegetable and the one I dislike," after which J. B. Rader gave a short talk on the REA power lines to be completed soon. Helen Miller gave an interesting talk on "Unusual Vegetables," and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Smith presented a short skit, "Victory Garden." Mrs. Gill Madson read an important letter from the state grange steward. A contest "Naming Green Vegetables" was enjoyed and a prize was awarded to Helen Miller, winner.

Supper partners were chosen by matching letters forming names of garden tools. Delicious refreshments were served by J. B. Rader and Alfred Haines to Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Miller, Mrs. Christine Miller, Mrs. Mabel Rader, Mrs. Lloyd Myers, Mrs. Elizabeth Fisher, Miss Pearl Monroe, Mrs. Emel Anderson, Harry Anderson, Gail Madison, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Smith, Hal-deon Smith, Wilbur Anderson, Dayton and Harold Minter, Donald Mode, Mac McCracken and Roy Fisher.

Baseball Shoes in Work List Only for Majors

WASHINGTON, April 20.—(AP)—Baseball, which opens its major league season today with a game between the Philadelphia Athletics and Washington, has received a pair of official pats on the back.

The OPA yesterday ruled that baseball shoes, owned by the various professional clubs, were "work shoes" and thus could be obtained without coupon No. 17. The same shoes, when used by semi-pros or amateurs, fall into the dress shoe classification, however.

Later in the day Paul V. McNutt, head of the Manpower commission and who will hurl the first ball in today's opener, said he thought baseball was here to stay—even during the war—because it doesn't have to be a young man's game.
