Engagement Is Announced

News-Review engraving.

Miss Elizabeth Anne Newenham

City Superintendent of schools, Professor and Mrs. R. L. Newenham, of 1419 Argonne drive, North Chicago, Illinois, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Anne, to the Rev. Clarence Albert Chamberlain, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Chamberlin, of Roseburg.

Miss Newenham was graduated from Waukegan high school in 1940, where she belonged to the national honor society and was president of the Girls League. She is now completing her junior year at Lake Forest college and is a member of Alpha Delta Pi social sorority.

The Rev. Mr. Chamberlain has been pastor of the North Chicago Methodist church since being graduated from Garrett Biblical Institute last June. He was graduated from Roseburg high school in 1935. During his high school years he made an excellent record in scholarship and personal conduct. He was a member of the Warrior Guards, glee club and Faraday club. He participated two years in the school operettas and aided in the annual Hi-Jinx and the senior class play. He was also an officer of the class and composed the words and music of the class song. Later he was graduated with high honors at University of Oregon. He is affiliated with Delta Tau Delta, social fraternity, and Phi Mu Alpha professional music honorary society. Since he enlisted in the navy for chaplain service early in January, he has been awaiting his call, which he has just received and has left for Williamsburg, Virginia, to take 10 weeks special training. No date has been set for the wedding.

DAYS CREEK, April 24.—A wedding of considerable local interest was solemnized in Eugene, Saturday, March 27, when Roberta Walker Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Walker of Eugene became the bride of Cpl. John Hutchinson, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hutchinson of Days Creek. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed at six o'clock in the evening by Dr. Earl Parker, pastor of the First Methodist church at his home.

The bride, who was most attractive in a street suit of teal blue with accessories in beige, wore a very lovely corsage of pink rosebuds. Her bridesmaid, Miss Gem Hutchinson, a sister of the groom, was dressed in a street dress in beige with brown accessories. The bride's father, J. J. Walker, acted as best man.

Present at the ceremony beside the bride party were the bride's mother, Mrs. J. J. Walker, her grandmother, Mrs. M. Carmony and her aunt, Mrs. A.

F. Westphal, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Walter Hutchinson. Later in the evening a small reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Following a wedding trip to points in the northern part of the state and at the coast Cpl. and Mrs. Hutchinson came here for the week-end of April 3 after which the former left for Victorville, Calif., where he is stationed at an air field with a medical detachment. Mrs. Hutchinson returned to Eugene where she plans to make her home for the duration after which they expect to make Days Creek their home.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hutchinson are well known here, the latter having attended the local high school while making her home at Tillamook some years ago, while the former has spent practically his entire life here. Following his graduation from the local high school he attended O. S. C. before entering military service. He had for several years been employed by the forest service.
