Miss Virginia Kearley

A wedding of much interest in Roseburg will take place Monday, April 26, at the Charles B. Chambers home in New York City, when Miss Virginia Kearley, daughter of Mrs. Ethel Parish Kearley, and the late Seward C. Kearley, of Palm Beach, Florida, will become the bride of Lt. Gilbert C. Finlay, son of Dr. and Mrs. G. C. Finlay, of Roseburg. The wedding will be attended by the Chambers family, the bride's mother and the bridegroom's uncle and aunt, Captain and Mrs. Gordon T. Finlay, of Norfolk, Virginia.

The bride-elect was graduated from high school in Palm Beach in 1936 and attended Sullins Junior college at Bristol, Va., and was graduated from Northwest-

HIGH SCHOOL HOME EC CLUB PARTICIPATES IN NUMEROUS ACTIVITIES

The Home Ec club of Roseburg high school has participated in many activities throughout the school year, both social and patriotic.

The social events were: A skating party given by the F. F. A. for the girls and a party in return, for the F. F. A. by the Home Ec club. The girls also served at two banquets; for the F. C. A. and for the F. F. A. At Christmas a beautiful initiation tea was held, to which all mothers were invited.

The work has consisted of making 10 bed jackets for the Red Cross and making and filling 20 ditty bags for soldiers. The money for these bags was raised by contributions from the other various school clubs. $28.25 was raised and after the ditty bags were completed, $17.35, the remaining money was donated to the Red Cross.

The guest speakers for this year have been especially fine ones and the club considers itself very lucky to have had these people. Mr. Beard spoke about the girl's part in being loyal to the boys who have gone to fight. Mr. Johnson had a very interesting account of the Red Cross activities both in Hawaii and in the United States. She also told how the Home Ec club could aid the Red Cross. Mrs. Mills spoke about the change in wartime furniture from that of the past. She is from Josse's Furniture store. Mr. Leroy Hiatt gave his viewpoint on what the man looks for in women. The club also hopes to have Mrs. Atkins from Fisher's Department store in the near future, to speak about textiles before and after the war.

As a fitting end for the activities of the club, they purchased $72.35 in war stamps and bonds toward the school's jeep drive.

Club officers for this year are: president, Helen Wann; vice-president, Barbara Becker; secretary, Georgene Johnson; treasurer, Ruth Hansen; historian, Ruth Lewis; reporter, Eula Carahan; song leader, Carol Crossland; custodian, Beverly Kruse; and advisor, Mrs. Margaret Watkins.
