Around the County

Days Creek

DAYS CREEK, April 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Stiltner and their daughter, who have been living on upper Days creek, have moved to Canyonville to make their home.

Albert Poole of Los Angeles and his mother, Mrs. J. L. Poole, who has been spending several weeks in southern California, arrived here early in the week having been called north by the serious illness of J. L. Poole who is receiving medical treatment in Roseburg.

Mrs. Pete Ullam, Mrs. Fred Wright and Mrs. Florence Clark and daughter, Sharon, were recently attending to business matters in Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wright have received word that their nephew, George Wright, who is in the air forces, is at present taking an advanced engineering course at O. S. C. As a boy he made his home here, as his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Josh Wright, now of Darby, Mont., then owned what is now the W. T. Wright place. He is also a nephew of Jay Wright and Jack Higgins, well known Millo residents.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hill have had as their guests the past week their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert V. Hill, her small son, Dennis Reid, and her aunt, Mrs. Jack Soisson, all of Seattle. They left Thursday to return to that city. Mrs. C. C. Hill accompanying them to Dixonville where they stopped for a short visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Brown.

Miss Catherine Ferguson returned late last week from Clairmont, California, where she had been spending a short time attending to business matters. While in Alameda visiting at the home of relatives she had an unexpected opportunity for a short visit with her nephew, Lester Ferguson, who is stationed at Sacramento with the signal corps.

Mrs. Roy Duncan recently took George Ross to Roseburg for medical attention for his eye which had been causing him considerable trouble for some time. They were accompanied by Mrs. A. E. Moore and son, Elton.

Mrs. Bruce Baker has returned to her home here from Los Angeles where she had been spending several weeks with Mr. Baker who is employed there. She was accompanied here by her sister, Mrs. Irena Schmid, of Los Angeles who will be joined by Mr. Schmid. They plan to eventually make their home in this vicinity. Mrs. Baker went south with her son, Don Acord, who had been on furlough from his duties as flying instructor at a basic flying school at Merced, Calif.

Miss Margie Wright has gone to Myrtle Creek where she has accepted employment at the Citizens State bank.

Chester Stiltner recently sold his property on upper Days Creek to Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hoffmeister, formerly of Roseburg, who are now living on the place. Their daughter has entered high school here.

Mrs. Bill Bromley, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hutchinson for several days, left early in the week for Ashland to spend a few days with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Mather recently had as an over-night guest their son-in-law, Pvt. Ira Brock, who was en route from the air base at Lemoore, California, to Newport where he planned to spend his furlough with his wife and his mother, Mrs. Alice Feater.

Mr. and Mrs. Othel Cook and their family, who until recently have been residing at Sutherlin, have moved into the Weaver building which was temporarily used to house the store until the new store building was completed last year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Tison were business visitors in Roseburg Tuesday. They also visited at the Dixonville home of the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Tison.

Achie Ferguson was transacting business in Roseburg Wednesday being accompanied as far as Myrtle Creek by his son, Norval, who remained there to have some dental work done. When they returned in the evening, Miss Catherine Ferguson who had been spending a few days in Roseburg came with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Welch were Roseburg visitors Wednesday. While there they called on J. L. Poole who is a patient at the Mercy hospital.

Tenmile

TENMILE, April 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Purley Hahn and two daughters, Evelyn and LaVerne, left Tuesday on the afternoon bus for Grants Pass to visit Mr. Hahn's brother, Dennis Hahn, and sister, Mrs. Johnny Abbot, and families.

Clifford Howard came up from Myrtle Point the first of the week to visit his mother, Mrs. Della Howard.

Mrs. Minnie Mellius spent Thursday with Mrs. Roland Lockwood. Mrs. Mellius has recently returned from Los Angeles where she went last January for medical treatment. Mr. Mellius went to Grants Pass Friday to meet her and they remained until Monday with former California neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Barnes have sold their ranch to Mr. and Mrs. Bush of Myrtle Creek, who will take immediate possession. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes will move to Dilard, where they will occupy the house belonging to Mrs. Barnes's sister, Mrs. Bell Clark, for the present.

Mrs. Johnny Cabot and daughter, Mary Ann, were shopping and transacting business in Roseburg Thursday.

Charles Siegel returned Friday from Corvallis and Monroe, where he visited his son, Harold Siegel, and family. He went up with his grandson, Leslie Siegel, who went to Corvallis to take tests of his college work, which he had to leave last winter because of illness.
