Poultry

WANTED custom hatching. My capacity is limited, so orders will have to be placed in advance. A blood test certificate of recent date and signed by competent field man must accompany all eggs brought in and I will definitely reserve the right to refuse to set eggs from flocks whose records are not absolutely satisfactory. I expect to operate the year round, but my machine is not so large that I will have to accept inferior eggs to keep it running.

Poultry men of Douglas county have suffered and will continue to suffer heavy losses from pullorum unless we do all in our power to wipe it out. I will appreciate your cooperation and patronage. Ken Reynolds, 444 N. Jackson, Roseburg.
