SHIRLEY RIEBEL MARRIES LT. FURCHNER AT ST. LUKE'S ON EASTER

GRANTS PASS, April 26, 1943.—Miss Shirley Riebel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Riebel, became the bride of Lt. Fred H. Furchner in a candle-light ceremony at 7 o'clock Easter evening at St. Luke's Episcopal church. Archdeacon H. R. White of Eugene read the wedding rites before the altar beautifully decorated with Easter lilies and bridal wreath.

The bride was lovely in a wedding gown of heavy white satin. The dress made on princess lines had long sleeves and a long train. The V neckline was outlined in seed pearls and the bodice band was of seed pearls. The short veil was held in place by lilies of the valley. Her corsage was an orchid surrounded by white bouvardia and lilies of the valley.

Alan Riebel gave his sister in marriage. Mrs. William Black was matron of honor. Her long gown of pink complemented her blonde coloring. She carried a nosegay of pink roses and lavender sweetpeas and her headress was a Juliet cap of tiny pearls.

William Black acted as best man. Don Furchner and Gale Smith were ushers.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Charles R. Cooley, attractively gowned in blue, played a 15 minute organ concert. At the entrance of the bride party, she played Lohengrin's "Wedding March" and for the recessional Mendelssohn's "Recessional."

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held in the parish hall. A five-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom, was served by the silver services were Miss Maralee Fry and Mrs. Don Telford. The table, covered with a lace cloth, was lighted by tall white tapers and centered with a bouquet of white lilies and narcissus.

For going away the bride chose a Glen plaid suit of grey and blue. Her accessories were blue and her corsage an orchid.

Lt. and Mrs. Furchner left by motor after the reception for Crescent City. Following a wedding trip up the coast, they will go to Moses Lake, Wash., where Lt. Furchner is instructor in a B17 bomber school. He returned last March from the south Pacific battle area where he served as pilot of a Flying Fortress. He took part in the Battle of Midway and had been at the Guadalcanal front almost from the beginning of hostilities there. He is a former student at the University of Oregon.

The bride attended Mills college and has served as secretary at the local rationing board since its inception.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Riebel's brother, John Meissner of Roseburg.
