nea (the nearest Spanish point to Gibraltar) to the effect that the allied convoy includes 20 transports loaded with landing barges and armored vehicles.

Your map will tell you that such a move by our side wouldn't be out of order at this moment. If the Italian islands of Sardinia and Sicily could be taken, the German goose in Africa would be cooked and the Mediterranean sea route would be opened.

If such an enterprise is in the wind, this may be the final desperate moment when the Italian fleet (long since taken over by the Germans) will be thrown into the fight.

AT Novorossisk, in the Kuban delta, the Germans are resisting ANOTHER siege—by the Russians, who are reported to be closing in. In terrific air battles there, the Germans are said to have lost 125 planes in two days.
The dispatches say the Russians in the Kuban are getting a large volume of U. S. supplies (including planes), which come in by way of the Persian gulf and Iran.

DORTMUND in Germany is hit by British bombers, 30 of which fail to return—indicating that the raid was a big one.
An RAF spokesman says allied air attacks on Germany are keeping four-fifths of Germany's night fighter planes pinned to Western Europe (thus preventing them from fighting on other fronts, such as Russia and Africa).

IN Sofia (capital of Bulgaria) the Bulgarian chief of police (probably a German tool) was slain Monday night. A reign of terror followed and Sofia's streets are reported to be deserted.
There's evidently considerable unrest among the Bulgarians.

AP Correspondent John M.
Aghtower says in Washington that when the time comes to throw the Japs out of the Aleutians the job will have to be done by American troops landing under fire and fighting with guns, bayonets and grenades until the last Jap surrenders or dies.
The Kiska and Attu Japs, he says, have GONE UNDER-GROUND, as the British did at Malta, and can't be dislodged by bombing.

WE know by this time how important Malta has been to the British, and can't help fearing that back in the days when Kiska and Attu could have been had for the taking, Washington was so preoccupied with Europe that it overlooked an important bet in the Aleutians.

U. S. bombers based in China make a surprise attack on Jap-held Haiphong in Indo-China and the Jap island of Hainan.
(See map).

This suggests that if we had MORE BOMBERS in China we could work havoc on Jap communication lines through the South China sea.
Newly-Bought Ranch
Retains Berry Laurels
For many years A. J. Tuck, Edenborer gardener, has been either the first or one of the first strawberry growers to bring berries to the News-Review as the berry season opened. Mr.
Tuck recently sold his property and is leaving for New York to make his home with his daughter. It appears, however, that he has given instructions to his successor for Daniel D. Strong, formerly of Los Angeles, who acquired the property, has presented the News-Review office with a box of fine and fully ripened berries grown on the Tuck place.

YOUR CHANCE FOR SERVICE

EDITORIAL

By Charles V. Stanton

It is welcome news that observers and filter center workers are to be awarded medals by the United States government in recognition of their services. If any awards are to be made for distinguished service, certainly these men and women are entitled to such honors.

It has been customary throughout the ages to reward the men who distinguished themselves upon the field of battle. Today our military men proudly wear the bits of colored ribbon which signify the campaigns in which they have served and the honors they have received from a grateful government.
Daily we hear and read of heroes to whom medals have been given for particular acts of bravery or faithful adherence to duty. But no less entitled to recognition and appreciation of this nation is the civilian army of men and women who make voluntary sacrifice, without compensation, to protect our shores.

It is no easy task to spend long, lonesome hours at a listening post, awaiting the sound of airplane motors. There are a few comfortable shelters, but for the most part the observation posts have been hastily prepared and have few comforts. Braving wintry weather, serving many hours, week in and week out, becomes a monotonous task.

Women who serve the filter board would greatly prefer to be at home engaging in household tasks or enjoying the social contacts of normal times. They do not relish the broken rest, the absence from family and home and the tiresome task of unvaried monotony.

It is easy to understand why some become discouraged when the task is placed upon so few people. If all who are perfectly able to assume a part of this burden would only take their rightful share of the load, there would be no excessive labor for anyone. But there is a great majority of people who apparently are not willing to make even the small measure of sacrifice that assisting in this work would entail. The civilian side of the Aircraft Warning Service is purely voluntary. No one, so far, has been compelled to enlist. Because of this fact a few patriotic people have carried a load that should be divided among many times the number of those presently engaged in the service.

There is always a need for observers and filter center workers. There are many people who have no legitimate reason for failure to participate. If you are one who has failed to do your share, why not enlist now? The chief observer in your district would welcome your enlistment. If you live in Roseburg or vicinity, enroll with the Fourth Fighter command at the Roseburg armory. You are vitally needed. The Aircraft Warning Service is a part of the U. S. army. As a member, you become a soldier in service of your country. Certainly that fact should bring you a measure of self-satisfaction.

A great many newcomers have arrived to establish homes in Douglas county within recent months. At the same time many of our former residents have moved away. Unless replacements are found for those who move from the community, in cases where they have been working in the Aircraft Warning Service, the task of maintaining efficient service is increased for the few remaining. Therefore, if you have recently moved into the county, your help also is solicited. Be a good neighbor; share the load; enlist now.

No Accord Reached On Rail Workers' Demands

CHICAGO, May 7.—(AP)—An emergency fact finding panel announced today it had failed to settle the dispute between 900,000 railroad non-operating workers and the nation's principal railroads—over union demands for higher wages.
L. L. Sharfman of the University of Michigan, chairman of the panel of three members who have been hearing the case since March 1, said it had "made every reasonable effort" to settle the controversy.
The panel now will retire into executive session, the chairman said, and prepare its report for submission to President Roosevelt.

There are only about 5,000 Rocky Mountain bighorn sheep left in the nation.

A band of wild peccaries will attack a hunter who kills or wounds one of them.

DIAL LOG

By SUSAN

Here's the completed set-up for "Let's Talk It Over" tonight at 8:30. Charles Stanton, News-Review editor and also well known for his stirring rendition of "Barnacle Bill, the Sailor", will act as moderator—although, considering the subject under discussion, referee might be a better term. The gladiators will be Frank Ward, Bruce Mellis (local R. H. S. twig-bender), Dr. Geo.
Houek and Dr. Edwards (one M.
D., one D. D.). And the subject under discussion, you'll remember, is "What Will We Do With Germany and Japan After the War?"

Good program spots on Saturday and Sunday are thicker than plums in a pre-war plum cake.
Take Saturday evening for example: there's "Chicago Theatre of the Air" at 6:15. They are going to do "Starlight Interlude", which relates in drama and music the thoughts of a young soldier as he lies in a shell hole on a Far East battlefield. Then there's the fight (Johnny Greco vs. Terry Young) at seven, and to give you a bit of variety there will be "This Is the Hour (8:00) and Halls of Montezuma at 8:30.

Sunday at 12:30 a special Mother's Day program is scheduled. Mary Plekford and John Charles Thomas will be featured guests and the American Mother of 1943 will be introduced. Bobby Hooley is also going to salute the mothers on his Rocking Horse Rhythms (7:45). He'll sing "Ma" and "For Me". His girl friend for the evening is seven-year-old Lenore Rasig, who is billed as a miniature Gracie Fields and will mimic one of the Gracie Fields' numbers—we can't seem to remember the title, but it's one about the thing-a-ma-bob.

Camas Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Casper were callers at the L. M. Owens home Sunday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Heibert and children spent Saturday afternoon at the home of a brother, Art Heibert, in the Valley.
