DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

Humanity has ever sought for security, safety and protection; for freedom from fear, danger and anxiety for the assurance of being in harmony with God. If people were as zealous about the security of their souls as they are about their stocks and bonds and possessions, there would be less crime, warfare, strife, and sorrow in the world. Physical and material things of life are directly related to the spiritual. Spiritual and material depressions go hand in hand. So Jesus emphatically taught "Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Too often people seek the things first without the righteousness, when we understand the true relationship between the spiritual and the material, life will take on a new aspect. Like a bird in the tree tops, it knows that if the bough breaks, it has wings to carry it to safety. So we set our affections on things above, not on the things of the earth, for the things of the earth will perish, but the things above will endure forever. "Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit." Amen.

age Monday, will lead the evening prayer. Flora Spencer will read a poem composed by her mother, Mrs. Effie Spencer. There will be a beautiful baptismal service.
