KELLOGG GRANGE HAS MEETING AT HALL ON WEDNESDAY EVENING

Kellogg grange met Wednesday evening at the hall with Master Cornelius Miller presiding. Past Master Eugene Fisher conferred the first and second degrees to three new members, Mrs. Dayton Minter, Harold Minter and Wesley Simpson.

Home Economics chairman, Paula Anderson, reported that plans are underway for the carnival to be given in May. The exact date will be announced later. She also reported on the successful Home Economics club meeting held early in April.

Eugene Fisher, agricultural chairman, reported on the new seed cleaner to soon be installed at the Grange Supply in Roseburg. Dayton Minter, legislative chairman, reported on a very important farm bill.

The highlight of the interesting lecture hour was the surprise reception for Master and Mrs. Cornelius Miller. A beautiful gift was presented to the couple from the grange by Paula Anderson. Group singing was enjoyed and accompanied by Elizabeth Fisher. Lecturer Mabel Rader read her original paper, "The Kellogg Grange Review."

The serving table was covered by an exquisite lace cloth and centered with a flower arrangement in beautiful Belgian glassware and flanked by tall pink tapers. Lovely bouquets of spring flowers were arranged about the room.

Delicious refreshments were served to: Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hutchinson, Mr. and Mrs. L. Myers and Beverly Ann; Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Rader, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Bullock and Barbara and Gary; Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Minter and Harold; Mrs. Christine Miller, Mrs. Paula Anderson, Miss Pearl Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Myers and Robert, of Columbus, Kansas; Harry Anderson, Gail Madison, and Wesley Simpson.

The next meeting will be held at the hall May 12. All members are urged to be present.

MID-WEEK BIBLE CLASS HAS DELIGHTFUL MEETING ON THURSDAY

Mrs. Julius Feldkamp very graciously entertained the Mid-Week Bible class of St. Paul's Lutheran church at her comfortable home in the Kohlhaagen apartments Thursday afternoon.

The buffet table was covered by a very beautiful hand-crocheted lace cloth and centered with an attractive arrangement of colorful spring flowers.

The interesting topic study, led by Rev. W. A. Sylvester, was based on Matthew, chapter 12. During the business meeting the president, Mrs. Roy Hebard, appointed the luncheon committee for the annual church mission festival and Sunday school picnic to be held June 27. The ladies appointed included: Mrs. Russell Kaine, chairman, Mrs. P. Sieman, Mrs. A. Schlick and Mrs. W. A. Sylvester.

During the social hour, the hostess, Mrs. J. Feldkamp, assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. O. J. Feldkamp, served delicious refreshments to: Mrs. V. Andraeff, Mrs. R. Hebard, Mrs. R. Kaine, Miss A. Meusch, Mrs. A. Schlick and daughter, Donna, and son, Michael; Mrs. P. Sieman, Mrs. W. Vogt, Mrs. L. Voigt, Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Sylvester, and J. Feldkamp and grandson, Jerry Feldkamp.

The next meeting of the class will be held May 20 at the home of Mrs. A. Schlick at 640 S. Pine street.

Saturday, May 15.

Catholic ladies to sponsor food sale at Easton's grocery. Proceeds to benefit school playground of St. Joseph's, Catholic school.

Service pins will be awarded to many ladies of the Roseburg Filter center at a banquet to be held at 7 p. m. at the Hotel Umpqua. Former members of the filter center desiring to attend are asked to make reservations by calling the army.

The morning shift at the filter center honored Mrs. S. F. (Phyllis) Thompson at a very lovely breakfast party at the army Tuesday morning. Mrs. Thompson has been a member of the shift and left Wednesday for San Francisco to reside. Her husband was recently inducted into the army.

The breakfast table was especially beautiful with an arrangement of rhododendrons, roses and tulips. Lt. Dayton Brown took a picture of the table in color. A lovely corsage and a gift were presented to Mrs. Thompson from: Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. Harry S. Black, Mrs. J. E. Johnson, Miss Walker, Mrs. J. L. Pounds, Mrs. Betty Haley, Mrs. Cramer and Mrs. Cherryholmes.

Miss Virden Honored at Dinner

News-Review engraving.
Miss Louise Virden

Miss Louise Virden, selectee for Officer's training in the WAVES, was complimented by a group of her friends from the U. S. V. A. Thursday night at a delightful dinner party in the club room of the Umpqua hotel. During the evening, Miss Virden and her mother, Mrs. T. B. Virden, were each presented with a beautiful corsage of gardenias and sweet peas. The table was attractively decorated with bowls of spring flowers. Novel Victory motif place cards, hand decorated by Miss Gjevre, acting chief of the Arts and Crafts department, marked covers for the following guests:

Miss Louise Virden, guest of honor, Mrs. T. B. Virden, Mrs. Geraldine Sheehy, Miss Margaret Johnson, Mrs. Edna Dickey, Miss Loretta Kelly, Mrs. Esther Belt, Miss Marguerite Feuerstein, Mrs. Ruth Smith, Mrs. Doris Peters, Miss Inez Crosta, Miss Rose Rinnella, Mrs. Melba Lovell, Miss Hulda Gjevre, Miss Eleanor Eastling, Mrs. Beulah Palmer, Mrs. Laura Crampton, Mrs. Mona Riley and Mrs. Adeline Powe.

Miss Virden received her earlier education in Roseburg, and later attended Oregon State college, and is a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority. She is scheduled to arrive in New York City May 17th where she will enter Columbia university for preparation in becoming an officer in the WAVES. It was with reluctance that her many friends and colleagues at the Veterans Administration bade the beautiful Louise farewell Thursday night. "Gorgeous" as she has been nicknamed by her intimate friends has been respected and admired by all who have come in contact with her. She has performed her duties as operator of office devices and information clerk at the Veterans Administration in a conscientious and proficient manner, and her radiant personality, queenly dignity, and modest charm will, undoubtedly, create stepping stones to ever rising heights of accomplishment and recognition. The U. S. V. A. is proud to have Miss Louise Virden as its representative in the WAVES.
