HOME NURSING MIXED CLASS TO CLOSE REGISTRATIONS THIS WEEK

Registrations for men and women to take the American Red Cross Home Nursing class will close this week, according to a recent announcement made by the committee.

Men and women desiring to take this evening class course in Home Nursing are asked to register at once by telephoning either Mrs. G. C. Finlay at 650-J or Mrs. W. H. Carter at 749-J. Mrs. Ivan Pickens, registered nurse, will be instructor of the class.

This will be the first Home Nursing class to have both men and women enrolled. A great number of women have already completed the course. Throughout the state, the Red Cross has received assistance by a large number of men to take the class and already a number in the Portland area have received their certificates of award for completing the course satisfactorily. There are already men enrolled in this class, which will be started soon, so any more men desiring to register, are welcome to join the group for the course of instruction.

As many women as possible, who have already completed the Home Nursing class, are asked to be at the starting point for the Victory day parade Wednesday to take part in the parade demonstration. The Home Nursing unit hopes to have a fine representation in the parade.

Whose Job Is It?

MOST community matters vitally affect every individual of that community and it is not only right and proper that they should take an interest in them and try to help solve them, but it is their duty and responsibility to do so.

There's a Big Job to Be Done and Your Help Is Needed

Never before, we believe, has the Umpqua Valley needed the cooperation of all its citizens more than at the present time. Opportunities for commercial development are bobbing up all around us—developments that will be permanent and not just war-time bubbles.

Let's nurture these budding possibilities and make a better community for all concerned—
