Marry at Double Ring Ceremony

Miss Yvonne Gadway, charming daughter of Mrs. Loran K. Arthur, of Roseburg, and Lt. Dayton F. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Denver E. Brown, of 3013 West 26th street, Forth Worth, Texas, were married Sunday, May 9, at St. George's Episcopal church in this city. Arch Deacon Howard Russell White, of Eugene, performed the impressive double ring ceremony at 2:30 in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The bride's mother wore a blue suit and a corsage of white gardenias.

The wedding reception was held at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Beckley. Gorgeous bouquets of colorful spring flowers were arranged about the rooms. The serving table was covered by a beautiful lace cloth and decorated with Columbine and pale pink flowers. The three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature soldier bridegroom and bride, was cut by the bride and bridegroom and was served by Mrs. Ford Singleton, Mrs. D. W. Helliwell presided at the punch bowl and Miss Faith Young and Miss Dorothy Crocker served. The gifts were in charge of Mrs. R. L. Adams and Miss Athalie Taylor had charge of the guest book.

Following the reception, Lt. and Mrs. Brown left for Dorchester House and other coast points on their honeymoon and are now back in Roseburg making their home at 409 East Douglas street. For traveling the bride chose a suit of British brown with brown accessories. Her corsage was a large orchid.

The bride is a popular member of the younger set of this city and was graduated from Roseburg high school. She is employed as a secretary at the R. E. A. office.

Lt. Brown was graduated from Northside high school at Fort Worth, Texas, and before entering the service, was an employee of the Civil Aeronautics department. He is now stationed with the Fourth Fighter Command at Roseburg.
