Marry at Impressive Ceremony

Lt. and Mrs. Sidney Charles Moon, Jr.

Pink azaleas, white roses and carnations formed the beautiful background for the impressive wedding Tuesday evening, May 18, of Miss Corinne-Anne Perry, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Perry, of Roseburg, and Lt. Sidney Charles Moon, Jr., only son of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Moon, Sr., of Hemet, California, at the First Christian church in this city. White cathedral candles in candelabra centered the rostrum. Rev. Len B. Fishback, pastor of the church performed the impressive double ring ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening in the presence of more than two hundred friends and relatives.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Frances Lintott played pipe organ music and accompanied Mrs. Donald Perry, of Stockton, Calif., sister-in-law of the bride, who very charmingly sang, "Because" and "I Love You." With the opening strains of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin's Wedding March, the bridal party advanced to the altar.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a floor-length wedding gown of white lace and net. The bodice of lace was form-fitting and the sleeves were puffed and elbow length. She carried a white Bible topped by a spray of gardenias and stephanotis. Her finger-ring veil was fashioned with a coronet of seed pearls and she wore a single strand of pearls around her throat.

Mrs. Charles Hart, matron of honor, was charming in a floor-length gown of turquoise blue net with matching Juliet cap topped by Cecil Brunner rosebuds. She carried a white Bible and spray of Cecil Brunner roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Carl Wasson, in rose-colored net, and her sister, Miss Dorothy Crocker, in pale pink faille, were bridesmaids, and carried Colonial bouquets of yellow carnations. They wore white flowers in their hair.

Corporal Donald Perry, of Stockton, Calif., brother of the bride, was best man and Technical Sergeant Charles Hart and Sergeant David Orpin were ushers.

The bride's mother wore an attractive ensemble of black trimmed in white. Her hat and accessories were black and white and she wore a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a lovely American Beauty colored red ensemble with matching hat and veil. Her corsage was of gardenias.

The altar candles were lighted by Miss Rose Lorine Perry, of Camas Valley, a cousin of the bride. She was lovely in a floor-length frock of pale blue georgette.

At the close of the ceremony, Mrs. Lintott played Mendelssohn's Recessional. The church decorations were in charge of Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Washington Hughes and Mrs. E. F. Waggoner.

The wedding reception was held in the church banquet room.

The serving table was beautifully appointed for the occasion and was centered with a large mirror, encircled by Cecil Brunner rosebuds, and holding a large bouquet of Columbine and rosebuds. The beautiful three-tiered wedding cake was topped by a miniature soldier bridegroom and bride. The bride and bridegroom cut the first piece of wedding cake. The cake was served by Mrs. W. H. Carter and Mrs. J. A. Hart with Mrs. Washington Hughes presiding at the punch bowl. Assisting in serving were: Mrs. E. F. Waggoner, Miss Edna Collins, Miss Melba Wilson and Miss Lucia Britton. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. Donald White.

Gorgeous bouquets of beauty bush, iris, azaleas and roses were arranged about the room. Mrs. Washington Hughes and Mrs. W. H. Carter were in charge of decorating and arranging the service table.

Out-of-town guests present included: Mrs. Sidney C. Moon, Sr., of Hamet, Calif., mother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Perry and daughter, Miss Rose Lorine, and son, Robert, of Camas Valley; Mrs. R. M. Day, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harlow and daughter, Charlene; Mrs. Wayne Robertson and Miss Edith Hazard, all of Eugene.

Following the wedding reception, Lt. and Mrs. Moon left for the mountains on their honeymoon, after which the former will return to Camp Cook, Calif., to resume his service in the U. S. army and the bride will remain for the present in Roseburg. For traveling the bride chose a pin stripe navy blue suit-dress with navy and white accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

The bride is one of the most popular members of the younger set of this city. She was the only granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Alley, prominent early-day residents of this city, and of Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Perry, of Roseburg, and she is a niece of Charles V. Stanton, editor of the Roseburg News-Review, and Mrs. Stanton. She was graduated from Roseburg high school and attending University of Oregon a year and Chapman college in Los Angeles two years. She is a member of Beta Chi sorority. At present she is employed at the Douglas National bank, where she is continuing her work.

The bridegroom was graduated from high school at Hemet, Cal., and was captain of the football and basketball teams. He attended Chapman college in Los Angeles for two years; president of his class his senior year and was a member of the Chapman Knights. He received his B. A. degree from Chapman college in May 1942. He was recently commissioned a second lieutenant in the army medical administrative corps and is assigned to duty at Camp Cook, Calif. His parents reside at 130 Los Lunas Street, Hemet, Calif.
