Becomes Bride of Ivan Hatfield

Miss Mary Maud Hayden, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Earl Hayden, of 5545 N. E. Hal street, Portland, became the bride of Ivan Hatfield, of the U. S. army, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, of Roseburg, at an impressive double ring ceremony performed Saturday morning, May 22, at eleven o'clock at St. Rose church in Portland.

Tall baskets of white calla lilies, white snapdragons and candleabra holding tall white candles formed a beautiful background for the service.

The bride was charming in a suit of desert sand with dark brown accessories. She carried a white prayer book topped by a large white orchid. Mrs. Alfred H. Olson, of Portland, was matron of honor and was wearing a suit of powder blue with brown accessories and a corsage of gardenias and pink baby roses. Mrs. Hayden, mother of the bride, wore an ensemble of American beauty rose with brown accessories and Mrs. Hatfield, mother of the bridegroom, was lovely in a blue and white ensemble with white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of gardenias and rosebuds.

Terry Elder, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man and Charles Hayden, brother of the bride, and John Hulbert, Jr., also a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, were ushers. The bridegroom, best man and Mr. Hulbert were in army uniforms.

Following the impressive wedding service, a reception and luncheon was served in the rose room of the Multnomah hotel to the members of the bridal party and the immediate families of the bride and bridegroom.

After the reception and luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Hatfield left for points of interest on the Columbia highway and have spent the last three days in Corvallis, returning to Corvallis Friday.

The bride attended high school in Portland and is completing her sophomore year at Oregon State college this spring. She is a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority. The bridegroom was graduated from Roseburg high school and was a star athlete in numerous sports while attending school. He is just completing his junior year in the school of engineering at Oregon State college. He is a member of Delta Upsilon fraternity. He was recently inducted into the United States army at Fort Lewis, Wash., and was later returned to Oregon State college to complete his school year. He will be sent to officers training school, but at present they will make their home in Corvallis.

Vining maple, red roses and white peonies, with tall white tapers in candleabra placed on either side of the fireplace, and baskets of roses and peonies formed a beautiful background for the impressive wedding ceremony Wednesday evening May 26, when Miss Florence Jean Cloake, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Cloake became the bride of Private Wayne Howe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howe of this city, at the Cloake home.

Reverend H. P. Sconce, pastor of the Baptist church, performed the double ring ceremony at eight o'clock in the evening.

Proceeding the ceremony, Mrs. Clyde Beard softly played a few numbers and accompanied Mrs. Joseph Deets, who charmingly sang "Oh, Promise me" and "The Cause". With the opening strains of Schubert's Wedding March the bridal party entered the room.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a beautiful princess style floor length gown of white sheer with lace insets. She carried a white Bible topped with a spray of sweet peas and lily-of-the-valley with white satin streamers. Her finger tip veil was fashioned with a coronet of seed pearls.

Ella Mae Cloake, sister of the bride was the maid of honor, and wore a gown of rose taffeta and carried a nosegay of sweet peas.

Bert Young acted as best man for the bridegroom.

The bride's mother wore a dusty rose crepe gown with a gardenia corsage and the bridegroom's mother wore a powder blue gown and a gardenia corsage.

The tapers were lighted by Mrs. Wallace Cloake, who was attired in a sheer black gown, with deep red accessories.

At the close of the ceremony Mrs. Beard played Mendelssohn's Recessional and the bridal party and guests went to the outdoor garden where the reception was held.

A beautiful Italian embroidered cloth covered the serving table and a large mirror with a bowl of pink rosebuds and white carnations centered the table. The
