Deadline Is Cited On Referendum Petitions

SALEM, Ore., June 2.—(AP)—(AP)—Next Tuesday is the deadline for filing completed referendum petitions against laws passed by the 1943 legislature, the effect of such petitions being to postpone the effective date of such laws until the people can vote on them in the 1944 general election.

Petitions are being distributed against two measures, which would restrict the sale of fortified wines to liquor stores and levy a tax on pinball games.

Annual Conference Of Oregon Methodists Set

PORTLAND, June 2.—(AP)—Oregon Methodists will hold their 91st annual conference here June 16-20. Dr. Leslie B. Logan, pastor of the First Methodist host church, said today.

Dr. Henry Denman, executive secretary of the general commission on evangelism, and Dr. Roy L. Smith, editor of the Christian Advocate, will be principal guest speakers.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet June 17. Church laymen, also meeting on that date, will elect delegates to the 1944 general conference.

THANKS

I take this opportunity to show my appreciation to the School Board of District No. 4, the Superintendent of Schools, the Principals and Teachers, and to all others who are affiliated with the Schools, who have so graciously cooperated with me throughout the years I have driven the School Bus. My thanks also to the Parents and Children for their kindness to me. That my successor may enjoy the same cooperation is my earnest wish.

Harry Stone.
