Mrs. Homer Grow Presents Pupils In Musical Workshop Recital

Among the interesting musical affairs of late spring was the recital given last Saturday afternoon by the piano pupils of Mrs. Homer Grow in compliment to the mothers and a few special friends. The attractive residence studio was arranged to carry out the "Musical Workshop" motive, and decorated in tall yellow irises and flame colored snapdragons.

Assisting artists were Mr. Leroy Hatt, popular baritone, and Mrs. Morris Roach, whose violin solos have delighted Roseburg audiences for the last several years.

The students, ranging from beginners of a few weeks to advanced players with years of experience, presented a pleasing and varied program. Of interest to the group was the announcement that Tresa McMannis, advanced student from Myrtle Creek, will enter the University of Oregon next fall where she will major in music.

Following the program an informal hour of visiting was enjoyed. Mrs. Grow served lovely refreshments, assisted by the older students. The following program was given:

Dark Eyes, Russian folk melody, Mary Jeanne Miles.

Starlight Waltz, Brainard, Nancy Caskey.

Parade of the Cub Scouts, Hel-lard, Bobby Jump.

When the Wind Blows the Cradle Will Rock, Sister Cecilia Claire, Ruth Jump.

L'Avallanche, Heller, Mary Anne Caskey.

Andantino, Lemare, Bobby Church.

Spring Song, Mendelssohn, Joan Ruter.

Vocal, Calm as the Night, Bohm; Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes, English traditional, Mr. Leroy Hatt.

Crisis Cross Transposition F major, F sharp, Williams, Betty Wilson.

The Bells, Williams, Edna Pope.

Finlandia, Sibelius arranged by Eckstein, Frederica Hamilton.

None But the Lonely Heart, Tchaikovsky, Ruth Anne Ruhl.

Chant Sans Paroles, Tchaikovsky, Melva Jean Pennie.

Largo, Handel, Betty Jane Roberts.

To a Wild Rose, MacDowell, Mrs. Morris H. Roach.

Cradle Song, Brahms arranged by Eckstein, Ruth Nelson.

Hallelujah Chorus, Handel arranged by Thompson, Morene Moore.
