DAILY DEVOTIONS

DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

The Way to Freedom

Many a person has spent considerable money for supposed "cures" for the liquor habit, only to find them of little value in the end. To gain freedom from the shackles of alcohol, the slave himself must deeply desire freedom. He must be prepared to exert his will power to the utmost to let the stuff alone. He must avoid the sight and the smell of it and the company of persons who drink it. He should not smoke or chew tobacco, and he should avoid all speed or highly seasoned food and the use of much salt. He may need to go to some institution where special eliminative treatments are given and from which he is not permitted to go out to secure liquor. This will help, but even then he will need the encouragement of friends and relatives who are sympathetic and it may take strong faith in divine power to set him free. Freedom from drink does not come in a bottle. It calls for a hard stern fight. But victory is possible and is well worth the effort.

"Down in the human heart, crushed by the tempter, Feelings lie buried that grace can restore.

Touched by a loving heart wakened by kindness, Cords that were broken, will vibrate no more." (H.O.S.) Amen.

Lambs 13.50-14.00, few 14.25; common-medium 10.00-12.00; old crop shorn lambs 8.00-11.00; good ewes 5.00-50; common down to 2.00.

On January 1, 1943, there were 25 million A ration books for passenger cars in the hands of consumers, 6,400,000 of the B books and 3,600,000 C books.
