Marry At Impressive Rite In Salem

An impressive ceremony marked the marriage of Dorothy Mae White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. White and Robert Raymond Puckett, of Roseburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Puckett, of Roseburg, Thursday evening in the fireplace room of the Presbyterian church in Salem. The service was read by Rev. Edwin Williams.

Snadragons, peonies, lilies and crimson rambler roses, beautifully arranged about the room, created a lovely setting for the rite.

The bride was very charming in a two-piece ensemble of blue silk crepe with dusky rose accessories and a corsage of Cecil Brunner rose buds and gardenias. She wore a single strand of pearls, given to her by the bridegroom.

Her attendant as matron of honor, Patricia Quine, was lovely in an ashen of roses sheer frock with white accessories and a corsage of lilies-of-the-valley and gardenias. Theo Ossowski, Sigma Nu fraternity brother, served the bridegroom as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Hotel Marion where the bride and bridegroom cut the first piece of the beautiful three-tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Donald White served.

When the couple return from their trip to the north, Mr. Puckett will report to Camp Roberts for a brief training period and then continue on to Fort Benning, Georgia, at which time Mrs. Puckett will resume her work at the State Industrial Accident commission in Salem.

Refreshments were served at the dining room after the program.

Light refreshments were served from a beautiful V-shaped table, very attractively decorated with baskets of roses and ferns. The evening was spent in community singing, piano solos and duets, and a speech was presented relating the life of the guest of honor.
