any legislative body would pass one or if it would be constitutional if passed.
 Far be it from this writer to try to get at what a politician means when he talks, but I feel statement LOOKS like a broad hint that the WLB is headed for the scrap heap.

RECENT dispatches report that sentiment in the senate AGAINST the roll-back and subsidy idea is growing. Senator Clark's proposal to STRIP federal agencies of their subsidy-paying powers is said to be gaining strength.

IT'S a nasty mess.
 But what can we expect after decades of politics based on the principle of "I'm going to get MINE and to hell with the country?"

It looks as if the chickens hatched from this cynical concept of government are beginning to come home to roost.

ON the shooting side of the war, Wuppertal, in the Ruhr valley, is attacked again "in great strength". Thirty-three bombers fall to return. Extremely heavy defense—anti-aircraft guns searchlight batteries and fighter planes—is reported.

Wuppertal proves two things:
 1. In our campaign against Germany from the air, we have reserve strength enough to absorb our losses and GO ON.
 2. German military forces are being strongly concentrated WITHIN GERMANY for the defense of Germany itself. That means taking them from somewhere else.

THE idea is growing among "informed observers" that a screw is loose in the German plan to attack Russia again this summer. It is believed that our sustained bombing has something to do with the loose screw.

AN "unofficial source" in London says the Germans are PULLING IN some of their Mediterranean garrisons, notably those in Sicily, Sardinia and Corsica, where only Italians are left.
 He says the axis has 75 divisions (about 1,250,000 men) in Yugoslavia, Greece, Crete and some of the larger Aegean islands.
 That suggests that the Germans think the big push from the south will come by way of the Balkans.

Boistering this idea, 50 American Liberators, operating from bases somewhere at the east end of the Mediterranean, hit Salonika, which is the entrance to the Vardar-Struma gate into the European fortress.

IN the news from the Mediterranean, this significant sentence occurs: "Once again allied planes RULED THE AIR." Getting complete command of the air will be the FIRST step to be taken before there is ANY invasion of Europe.

Eastern Oregon Ships 30 Cars of Cherries

MILWAUKEE-FREEWATER, Ore., June 28—(AP)—Thirty cars of cherries left here last week for eastern markets.
 Rains have damaged the fruit considerable and slowed shipping.
 Culling is running about 30 percent. Growers are profiting in spite of increased costs. Many are doing selective picking and culling themselves to lower overhead and relieve labor shortage at packing houses.

OUR NEED FOR MORE FUN

EDITORIAL

By Charles V. Stanton

THIS writer participated Saturday in a lot of horseplay at Portland. As a member of a delegation of "Umpqua Valley Paul Bunyan Loggers," we donned an outlandish costume and engaged in a program at the expense of The Oregon Journal, which made an innocent error in printing the picture of the old Roseburg National bank building, razed in 1937, to make way for the present home of the Roseburg branch of the U. S. National bank.

The result of this trip was contact with many mighty fine people in Portland, more publicity than Roseburg could have secured with the expenditure of hundreds of dollars, the renewing of old acquaintanceships and the making of some new friends as well as a general good time.

It has long been our theory that we residents of Roseburg and Douglas county take life altogether too seriously. The old adage "All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," can be reflected in community as well as in individual life. We have contended for many years that Roseburg would be a better town in which to live if we concerned ourselves a little more with having a good time.

Phil Jackson, editor of the Oregon Journal, who won the unqualified admiration of the Roseburg group for being such a good sport in a somewhat embarrassing spot and taking the public "ribbing" with such good grace, was only "kidding," when he made the statement that Portland could not be expected to know about Roseburg when Roseburg called so seldom.
 Although spoken in levity, his words carried most serious truth.
 Frequent visits are necessary to maintain a spirit of neighborliness. It also is true that more friends can be made in an hour at a funfest than in a year spent around a business conference table. Communities devoting a good deal of time to fun and sports are not only well known and liked but are better than average business towns.

Grants Pass, with its exuberant Cavemen, furnishes an outstanding example. Grants Pass and the Rogue river valley owe much of the popularity that section enjoys to the organization maintained for so many years by its business and professional men. No amount of money could secure the favorable publicity the Cavemen have furnished through their unorthodox entertainment.

Communities supporting good sports programs find such activities to be profitable to business. Thousands of dollars spent in advertising would not have compelled the attention Medford gained by successive years of high school football and basketball championships. Time spent in play is not altogether wasted.

Roseburg needs some live-wire organization that will gain attention of other communities to the Umpqua valley. The organization of the Umpqua Valley Paul Bunyan Loggers for the purpose of the trip to Portland holds potentiality for future activities of like nature. The clan should not be permitted to dissolve. Instead, it should be enlarged and perfected with the one purpose in mind of providing more fun at home and spreading the name of the Umpqua valley over a wide area.

DIAL LOG

NOT By SUSAN

Whadyuh do Monday nights?
 If you go for action—western or detective—and get a bang out of a good quiz show, then KRNR is your dish, startin' at 7:30. First comes yer ole pal "Lone" ridin' Tonto (or is it Silver) all over the country. At 8 comes Bulldog Drummond, with much steambot whistlin' and atmosphere so thick you can practically see the fog (he brings it with him for his American adventures). At 8:30 Double or Nothing for a half hour of questions and answers on which there ain't no such a thing as a Soldier or Sailor makin' a wrong answer (twich is the way it should be). By that time you're ready for News at 9 with Glenn Hardy, next a little Hi Neighbor count music (ain't bad, either).
 Then Uncle Sam at 9:30, following by Fulton Lewis, Jr. himself but transcribed. Some folks been saying Fulton was slippin' a little. Whichever way it is, I'll say he's walking a slippery path, brother!

SPECIAL ATTENTION YOCKS and any kinda stuff to get your full attention! The Paul Bunyan Loggers from Roseburg brought home a recording of their "Invasion" of Portland which was aired at Portland's Victory center, Gonia, run by Tuesday night at 8:15. If you want to hear what the loggers spokesman said and what Phil Jackson, editor of the Oregon Journal, said be sure yah tune in Tuesday night at 8:15. Took a good look at Tuesday morning's program and it was just about as usual. U. S. marine band at 9:35. Like pipe organ music? Len Salvo plays from Chicago at 1:45.

 Well, strength to your ears, and don't forget—the poorest man in the world gets free on radio what the richest man in the world couldn't buy!

Vehring Sells Farm at Brockway to Arizonans

Mr. and Mrs. Houston L. Walsh of Phoenix, Ariz., who have been visiting here for several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. O.
 Ream, are to become Douglas county residents.

They left today for their home to make arrangements to move here, having purchased the Fred Vehring ranch at Brockway through the Wiley Real Estate agency. The 236-acre ranch is devoted to stock raising. Mr. Vehring, who is employed as a painter at the Veterans facility, will move to Roseburg to be nearer his place of employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Walsh plan to return to Roseburg within 60 days to take over the ranch, where they plan extensive improvements.

Mr. Walsh is president of the Arizona Directory company and for several years was the city manager of Phoenix.

Frank W. Long Top-Honor
 "Grad" as Mortician

Frank W. Long, manager and funeral director for the Douglas Funeral home in Roseburg for a number of years, was graduated Friday from the San Francisco College of Mortuary Science, where he has been a student since last October.

According to a report by D. E.
 Ashworth, dean of the school, Long was graduated with an average grade of 99, the highest average grade ever received by a student completing the course in the college. Subjects taught included anatomy, hygiene, embalming, pathology, chemistry, mortuary administration and law, bacteriology and restorative art.
 Long, Dean Ashworth reports, was the president of his class.
