is that the Italians "ain't seen nothin' yet."

AS to the air war in Germany he says the "mighty arms" of the British and U. S. air forces will "lengthen by night and by day," seeking out more industrial and military targets with "exterminating force" and that "when the major cities of Germany are disposed of we will follow the war industry of the reich to the smaller towns."

HE then adds that the RAF alone in the first six months of this year has dumped on Germany 52,500 TONS of explosive while in the same period Germany has been able to drop on England no more than 1500 tons at a cost of 245 planes.

That's significant. No one can doubt that in these months the Germans would have bombed England as hard as we're bombing them IF THEY COULD.

HE brings us up to date on the submarine war, reporting that 30 U-boats were certainly destroyed in May and that June has been the "best month we have ever known in the war."

He adds that since mid-May
 "scarcely a single merchant ship" has been sunk in the whole of the north Atlantic and that our present building capacity is far in excess of our present losses.

HE reasserts that the allies "demand from the nazis and the fascists and the Jap tyrants unconditional surrender."

Then, for our special benefit,
 he adds:

"Every man, every ship and every airplane in the king's service that can be moved to the PAC-IFIC will be sent there for AS MANY YEARS as are needed to make the Japs in their turn submit or bite the dust."

BRITISH and U. S. headquarters announce that a COM-PLETE AIR UMBRELLA has been established over the Sicilian strait. REOPENING the Mediterranean to allied shipping and thus bringing Alexandria (Suez) within 3,000 miles of England instead of 12,000 (as required by the trip around the south of Africa).

In this war of world-wide communications, that is immensely important.

OUR planes batter the Messina strait ferry from the Italian mainland to Sicily, the short route for getting axis supplies and reinforcements into Sicily.

RUSSIAN bombers attack the report of Tainan, on the Sea of Azov, two nights in succession, indicating that the Germans have been trying to move reinforcements into the Kuban delta by that route. Tainan is the only reasonably safe port left to them in that area.

RUMORS are flying thick and fast in Europe.

Rommel is reported to be massing 350,000 troops to protect the Rhone valley in France—one of the historic routes for invasion of Europe from the Mediterranean.
 Nazi motorized forces are said to be taking up positions in the Salonika peninsula—another historic invasion route leading into the Balkans.

Unending lines of nazi artillery and motorized forces are rumored to be on the move in the south of France.

THE significance of these rumors lies in the fact that Germany must now protect herself

IF WE COULD ONLY DRAW
 EDITORIAL
 By Charles V. Stanton

WE have often wished for artistic talents. We would like to be a cartoonist. We took drawing lessons once. After four classes, trying to master free-hand ovals and straight lines, our teacher informed us we were wasting his time and ours and we got the boot. Thus ended the art career.

If we could draw cartoons we would like to show a picture of a back yard. In this littered yard, with a lot of dirty wash on the line, we would picture a number of towed boys of the type commonly known as "brats".

The nearest figures of the background group would represent Vice-President Wallace and Secretary of Commerce Jones in a hair-pulling, eye-gouging battle. Further back would be Judge Marvin Jones leading Food Czar Chester Davis off the lot. In another corner, Under Secretary of War Patterson and Interior Secretary Ickes would be throwing rocks at Rubber Administrator Jeffers, who would be retaliating with his slingshot. Across the fence, John L. Lewis would be making faces at the entire group.

The central figure in the foreground would be "Papa" Roosevelt insisting to newspaper and radio reporters that all was peace and harmony on the home front and that any bad manners which might be observed on the part of his children were due entirely to the press and radio.

Maybe it's a good thing we can't draw pictures.

"Getting A Kick Out Of Life"
 A recent meeting of the Knights of Pythias lodge members were required to make short talks on selected subjects. Although the prize was won by Attorney Thomas Hartfield, we thought the expression in poetry by City Policeman Bob Redell to be well worth publication, so here it is:

- Guarding the peace of the city,
 Out on the streets through the night,
 Watching for law violations,
 Stopping a brawl or a fight.
- Greeting friends who are tipsy,
 Greeting friends who are sad,
 Sympathizing with those who are worried,
 Rejoicing with those who are glad.
- Chasing the kids in at curfew,
 Watching the elders at play,
 Watching them drowning their sorrows,
 After the toil of the day.
- Shaking hands with the heroes
 As they are called by their country to fight;
 Shedding a tear as I bid them goodbye
 And the train takes them out in the night.
- Trying to uphold law and order,
 Smiling at those who complain
 As they try to tell me my duty
 While I'm out in the storm and the rain.
- Greeting the sun in the morning,
 Going home to the wife
 Feeling I've done my duty,
 That's why I get a kick out of life!

against invasion all the long way from Greece to Norway, where as we can CHOOSE our point of attack.

NAVY SECRETARY KNOWS
 speaking in Coronado, warns us that the war may last four or five years more — which, of course, is likely enough.

One has the unpleasant feeling, though, that Knox is merely talking to keep us from feeling TOO GOOD as a result of recent hopeful developments — that he's "handing us" instead of telling us facts.

There has been too much of that since and INCLUDING Pearl Harbor.

On Saturday and Sunday this week you'll find so many good spots you'll just dial 1490 and relax, because there's all types and styles of entertainment everything from operatic stars to hot swing. Here's a few appetite teasers on Saturday's shows to whet your appetite for instance, Brazilian Parade (1:30), presents Ramona, the famous singing pianist who used to be with Paul Whiteman's orchestra. Two gamblers about to kill "The Cisco Kid" (4:30) in the thriller entitled "The Girl Who Dressed in White" and the famous O. Henry cowboy some bad moments. But the high spot of the day will be Chicago Theatre of the Air presenting "A Century and Sixty Seven," with such music as "Pale Moon", "Home On The Range" and "By the Waters of Minnetonka". Barbara Luddy, whom you'll remember as the star of the Star Nighter program, and who has been voted the best radio actress of the year, will receive her award during the program. Greer Garson and Bette Davis were in second and third places, respectively, so it seems the critics must rate the Luddy gal pretty high. Now for

Storm-Caused Fires in Umpqua Forest Subdued
 Electric storms during the first of the week scattered seven fires throughout the southern part of the Umpqua National forest, V. V. Hauptman, supervisor, reported today. Six fires were in the South Umpqua district and one was reported in the Diamond lake district. Each of the strikes was quickly controlled with no damage. Precipitation accompanying the storm aided in control, Hauptman said.

State legislatures of Colorado and Wisconsin have adopted statewide retirement systems for municipal employees.

All Diamond Lake Roads Now Open for Travel
 All roads to Diamond lake are now open for travel, V. V. Hauptman, supervisor of the Umpqua National forest, reported today. The Union creek road has been cleared of snow and the resort can be reached either by that route or by way of the North Umpqua road, as well as by the east entrance.

Hauptman states he has been advised that the resort is to have a few accommodations open over the weekend and through the remainder of the season. About 25 housekeeping cabins will be made available and will be fully furnished except for bedding. Stoves and all will be available and about 50 boats will be provided for use by fishermen.

DAILY DEVOTIONS
 DR. CHARLES A. EDWARDS

A worthy finish is better than a good beginning. The prizes of life are never bestowed on those who make a good start, but on those who win in the finals. Some people make a brilliant showing in the early stage of a contest. Everything seems in their favor, and they are far ahead of other competitors. But they are unequal to long, sustained effort, and they grow disinterested, lose sight of their goal, and begin to lag. Others get a bad start and labor under terrific handicaps, but by persistent effort, by seizing every advantage and never losing sight of the goal, they finish triumphantly. Some grow weary in well-doing early in life, others quit after long and arduous struggle. Many a worthy life goes down to defeat in the last stage of the struggle. Not how we begin, but how we end, counts. The crown of life is promised only to those that are faithful unto death. "Thou wilt always rejoice in the evening, if thou spend the day profitably." It is the brow of the conqueror that is arrayed with the laurel of victory, and to those who win are promised the crown of life. Amen.

THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
 Rev. H. P. Sconce, pastor.
 "The Lord's Supper" is the sermon topic Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. How often should this ordinance be observed? Is it a sacrament or a memorial? Who is worthy to partake? What does it mean to eat Christ's flesh and drink his blood? Frank Grubbe will sing "The Holy City."

"Honestly Preacher, I Am Perplexed" is the sermon topic Sunday night at eight o'clock. As a Christian, what should my attitude be toward the observance of the Lord's day? Is it right to use tobacco, drink, dance, play cards and attend the movies? Is something right in one section of the country but wrong in the other?

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davidson, newcomers in the community will give their Christian testimony and tell how they like Roseburg. There will be a beautiful baptismal service and special music.
