

SOCIETY

By JEANNE DILLARD

Social Calendar

Sunday, July 4.

Merry-Go-Round club members will entertain their families at a 1:30 p.m. picnic dinner at Glenbrook farm, home of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Smith, at Riddle.

Tuesday, July 6.

Presbyterian ladies and their friends invited to sew for Red Cross from 10 to 4 o'clock at Perkins building. Bring noon lunch.

Wednesday, July 7.

Roseburg Art and Embroidery club to meet in afternoon for pot-luck affair at home of Mrs. Alfred Neal on Fleser street.

Thursday, July 8.

Christian church ladies and friends invited to sew for Red Cross at Perkins building from 10 to 4 o'clock. Bring noon lunch. Mrs. Mable P. Taylor, sewing chairman.

Members and friends of Christian Science War Relief Sewing group asked to meet at 2 o'clock at Perkins building. Mrs. Annie L. Russell, chairman.

CHARLOTTE DILLARD IS HONORED AT BRIDAL SHOWER MONDAY

Charlotte Dillard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Dillard, was honored at a very charming bridal shower Monday evening by Carolyn Cordon and Athalia Taylor, at the home of Attorney and Mrs. Guy Cordon on Lane street.

Refreshments were served buffet style from a table attractively arranged with a centerpiece of lupin flanked by white and silver tapers.

During the evening bridge and visiting were enjoyed at which time Miss Dillard was presented with a very lovely gift. The invited guests included: Lu Britton, Florence Hamilton, Maxine Bailey, Ruth Snoddy, Anita Young, Joan Hume, Pat McClellan, Elsie Callins, Dorothy Crocker, Lois Kurtz, Ruth White, Mary Roland, Marilyn Harpham, Marge Cordon, Carolyn Cordon and Athalia Taylor, hostesses.

O. W. A. C. SPONSORS DANCE SATURDAY NIGHT

TENNILE, July 3—Tennile, Camas Valley O. W. A. C. sponsored a dance at Tennile hall Saturday evening to raise a sum large enough for the purchase of first aid equipment. Mrs. Crete Cayval donated a quilt top, which was quilted by the ladies of the Community Circle and sold at the dance, bringing in the amount of twenty dollars.

The members of the O. W. A. C. are practicing for the parade at Coquille July 5, at which a $30 prize is to be presented to the best drill platoon participating. Pvt. Eva Lakey, Pvt. Ann Lockwood and Corp. Esther Cabot will act as color guards.

Mrs. Standley has recently become a member of the club.

EAGLE'S AUXILIARY HONOR MRS. AL SMITH AT SHOWER

A lovely surprise bridal shower was given in honor of Mrs. Al Smith at her home on Mosher street by the ladies of the Eagle's Auxiliary Tuesday evening. Visiting was enjoyed during which time Mrs. Smith was presented with a beautiful gift. Light refreshments were served later.

ICE CREAM for the 4th

We can supply all your needs in ice cream for your Fourth of July picnics, dinners, etc. Ready to serve or packed in dry ice for any length of time.

Phone your orders now. DOUGLAS COUNTY CREAMERY

Yes, those dirty, grimy overalls spell Victory. They are a challenge to washdays, though, a challenge which NEW SERVICE LAUNDRY accepts... with plenty of suds and soaking turns them out spotlessly clean.

"Tough" Overalls get firm treatment, but your soft, dainty garments are given only gentle care. Send us all your laundry. Phone 88

NEW SERVICE LAUNDRY

Announces Engagement Wednesday

One of the most charming affairs of early summer was given Wednesday evening, by Mrs. Louise Marsters, at her lovely home on south Kane street, in honor of her daughter, Betty, whose engagement to Glen Caldwell of Seattle, was announced.

The rooms were very attractively decorated with a patriotic motif cleverly carried out in the red, white and blue flowers, supplied and arranged by Mrs. Earl Wiley.

A desert supper was served with the guest of honor seated at the main table, which was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a large replica of a jeweled box containing an engagement ring, fashioned of yellow daisies, with a large marguerite representing the diamond. The announcement of the engagement and the date set for the wedding, which is September 5, was found inserted between two sweetheart stickers.

The evening was spent in playing musical games and visiting, at which time, Miss Marsters, talented musician, accompanied by Mrs. Homer Grow, sang "Now The Whole World Knows". Betty is well known in Roseburg, having been graduated from the local high school in 1941 and has been prominent in musical and social circles. She attended Linfield college in 1941 and Oregon State college this past year as a sophomore. In home economics and was active in the Euterpe singers and Madrigal club.

Mr. Caldwell, son of Mrs. I. S. Mayberry of Milton, Oregon, was graduated from Oregon State college in the school of mechanical engineering with the class of '43, as a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. He is now employed as an engineer with the Pan-American Airways in Seattle, Washington.

Those present with Betty and Glen were: Mrs. Carl Roslund and daughters, Hildegarde and Clarethyl; Mrs. S. J. Fett and daughter, Elaine; Mrs. V. V. Harpham and daughter, Marilyn; Mrs. Peterson and daughter, Mary; Mrs. Fred Bower and daughter, June; Mrs. Arthur Crocker and daughter, Dorothy; Mrs. Robert Findlay and daughter, Alice; Mrs. Homer Grow, Mrs. Charles Brand, Mrs. Earl Wiley, Mrs. Hugh Harrison, Mrs. R. L. Irvine, Mrs. Ray Hampton, Mrs. Myrtle Burr and Miss Gladys Strong.

REBEKAH LODGE HOLDS MEETING TUESDAY EVE

CANYONVILLE, July 3—Bertha Rebekah Lodge No. 188 met in regular session Tuesday evening. Following the business meeting, light refreshments were served to members and friends and gifts were presented to those having birthday in June. Those enjoying the evening were: Maude Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Will Stock, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rife and daughter of Azalea, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hamlin, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Green, Mrs. Elvin Pickett, Mrs. Ella Sullivan, J. M. Mills of Riddle, Billy Perdue and Peggy Pelham.

OFFICERS ELECTED AT CHURCH SOCIETY FRIDAY

An election of officers for the coming year was held Friday at an all-day meeting of the Women's Council of the Christian church with Mrs. Len B. Fishback, president, officiating. The result was as follows: Mrs. Len Fishback, president; Mrs. Washington Hughes, vice-president; Mrs. Harold Boucock, secretary; Mrs. C. K. Gibbs, treasurer.

The devotions were led by Mrs. Edith Ackert and a very fine program presented, at which time several of the members gave brief reviews of their part in the past programs of the year.

A lunch was enjoyed at noon after which the regular business meeting was conducted with Mrs. Mable P. Taylor in charge and during which plans for the fall bazaar were made.

Following a report on the business of the United Workers class, given by Mrs. H. C. Parslow, the meeting was adjourned.

Those present were: Mrs. J. D. Williams, Mrs. Emma Beck, Mrs. Mary Stetler, Mrs. P. M. Blushke, Mrs. Annie P. Abel, Cora Church, Mrs. H. F. Snyder, Mrs. F. I. Perry, Mrs. Mary Plumer, Mrs. Lucinda Alexander, Mrs. Anna Lewis, Mrs. Elizabeth Rose, Mrs. Persis Vowel, Mrs. H. C. Parslow, Mrs. Edith S. Ackert, Mrs. Leslie L. Davis, Mrs. Tessie Miller, Emma R. Sprague, Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. Len Fishback, Mrs. C. E. Munson, Mrs. Alma Orr, Mrs. Harold Boucock, Mrs. Mable P. Taylor, Mrs. W. H. Carter.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Rose July 16.

MRS. MICHEL HOSTESSES AT WOMEN'S CLUB

Mrs. O. F. Michel was hostess of the Garden Valley Women's club Thursday afternoon at the clubhouse. Large bouquets of roses, from Mrs. Michel's garden, were attractively arranged about the room.

It was decided that the club will join the Riverside grange in a picnic at Hutcheson's grove Sunday, July 4, and all members of the community are invited to bring a basket lunch and attend. The program for the day will be interrupted only by dinner at noon.

Riverside Home Economics club will hold a 12:30 potluck luncheon at the clubhouse Friday, July 9, at which time the members of the Garden Valley Women's club are invited to attend. Following the meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Michel to Mrs. Charlotte Knapp Hedgcock; Mrs. Georgene Mast, Lena Kersten, Mrs. R. A. Calhoun, Mrs. Harvey Ewen, Mrs. John Peyton, Mrs. H. M. Knapp, Mrs. W. D. Love, Mrs. Clem Schneider, Mrs. John Sinclair, Mrs. C. L. Spray, Mrs. Earl Strange, Mrs. Pete Sinclair and Mrs. Joe Goherville.

The next meeting will be held at the clubhouse July 15 and all members are urged to be present.

BAPTIST WOMEN'S SOCIETY HONORS MEMBERS AT PARTY HERE ON THURSDAY

Thirty-two members of the Baptist Women's Society were present at a meeting held in the church Thursday afternoon, with Mrs. Roy Knigge presiding.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Maude Connelly, who spoke on "Faith," after which a beautiful solo, "Have Faith in God" was sung by Mrs. Knigge, accompanied by Mrs. Ben Irving. The prayer was given by Mrs. H. P. Seane.

Following the meeting a birthday party was held, honoring the members whose birthdays have occurred within the last three months. The table was attractively decorated in pink and white and a cake was cut and served to those present.

The next meeting will be held in the form of a tea at the home of Mrs. Louis Kohlhaugen August 5.

ROBERT E. LEWIS AND AUDREY DUNST MARRY AT WOODLAND, CALIFORNIA

GLENDAL, July 3—Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lewis and daughter, Beverly, have returned from Woodland, California, where they attended the wedding of Robert E. Lewis and Audrey Dunst at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thurst.

The candle-light service was performed by Rev. Todd, pastor of the First Baptist church. Lohmeyer's Wedding March was played by Beverly Lewis.

Following their trip to Lake Tahoe, the couple will travel on to Mather field, Texas, where Lieut. Lewis is stationed.

WILLAMAE MUETZEL, WILLIAM WINNINGHAM MARRY HERE SUNDAY

Williamae Muetzel, charming daughter of Mrs. Otto Muetzel of Roseburg, and William Winningham of upper Olalla, were quietly married at the home of Rev. H. P. Seane on Main street Sunday, June 13.

Following the ceremony the couple was honored at a very lovely reception held at the picnic grounds near Muetzel's mill where they were congratulated by their relatives and friends. The bride and bridegroom cut the first piece of the large three-tiered wedding cake, which was later served by Mrs. Courtney Muetzel and Mrs. Laurence, and received many beautiful gifts with good wishes. Mrs. J. M. Ware and Mrs. Stace Laurence were in charge of the reception.

The invited guests were: Mrs. Otto Muetzel, mother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Arwell Muetzel, Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Muetzel and daughter Nancy, Anna Duzenberry, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Northcraft and sons, John and Mortain, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ollivant, Mr. and Mrs. Rosser Jenkins, Mrs. Helen Boyer and daughter Julia of Grass Valley, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hodges, Mrs. Edna Albro and son Chauncey, Mrs. Oscar Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Polomishie, Mrs. Willis Brittain and son Wayne of Tugh Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ollivant and grandchildren, Donna and Gale of Medford, Mrs. A. Neureiter, Mr. and Mrs. George Radloff, Mrs. Milly Steen of Roseburg, Mrs. Oscar Rowland, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Prock, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gopen and children, Wilma, Dorothy and Marie, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Winningham, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer, Mrs. Josephine Parkhurst, Zola Weber, Dave Wilson, C. C. Carter, Ronnie Owens, Roy Calkins, Joan Winningham, David Parkhurst, Henry Best, I. F. Fisher, Roy Kouns, Wendal Neuvall, Clarence Winningham, Lyle Baker, Sanky Van Gundy, Oscar Sargent, George Sargent, Mrs. Beatrice Renick, Violet Parkhurst, Clarence Baldwin, Irvin Parkhurst, Earlmae Palmer, Rachel Parkhurst, Arbutus Albro, Joe Neuvall and Mrs. J. M. Ware, and Mr. and Mrs. Stace Laurence.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attractive in a white silk suit with navy accessories and a corsage of pink rose buds and gardenias and was attended by her sister, Verna Guile, who chose a yellow ensemble, white accessories and a corsage of gardenias and stephanotis. The bridegroom was assisted by his brother, Glenn Miller, as best man, with Gordon Stewart, Albert Weiss, and Harold Cacy as ushers.

Preceding the service "Because" and "Oh Promise Me" were sung by Mrs. Joseph Deets, accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Stewart.

Following the ceremony, a lovely reception was held at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Weiss on Main street, at which Mrs. O. J. Feldkamp, Mrs. Lewis McFee, Mrs. Arthur Travis and Loretta Bailey assisted. Barbara Ann McFee had charge of the guest book.

The rooms were attractively decorated with baskets of snapdragons and gardenia floats and the table was beautiful with a centerpiece of snapdragons encircling a large three-tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and bridegroom, of which the first piece was cut by Mr. and Mrs. William Miller. Tall ivory tapers stood on either side. Those present at the reception were: Mrs. Cowan, James Miller, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Coffel, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Travis and daughter, Janice; Mrs. Gladys Bruton and Orin Hugh of West Fir, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McFee and daughter, Barbara Ann, of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Muller, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Feldkamp and son, Jerry; William D. Gaylor, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McKeen, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Darby, Loretta Bailey, Mrs. Roy Hebard, Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Ender, Mrs. Roy Hebard, Betty Findlay, Mrs. Mable Harness, Mrs. Eva Barr, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Black, Mrs. Thomas Neal, Mrs. Bertha Blake, Harold Cacy, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Jacobs, Russell Kaine, June Geetz, Mrs. D. H. Lenox, Ruth Snoddy, Everett Davenport, Frank Street, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. James Darby, Mr. and Mrs. William Fetter, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rapp and daughter, Sandra Kay; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Willet, Mrs. Ethel Crocker and daughter, Betty Lou; Maude Neal and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Guile.

At present the couple will make their home in San Francisco, California, where Mr. Miller is attending officers training school.

service, etc., may be obtained by calling at the local Red Cross office, 411 Perkins building.

During Roseburg's disastrous fire of a few days ago, the Canton corps served hot coffee and doughnuts to the weary firemen. Several members of the corps were also on hand at Finlay field dispensing poppers during the recent Bond Drive program. This energetic organization is always on hand at the time its service is most needed.

Before leaving on a much needed vacation, Mrs. Dexter Rice, chairman of production, made a shipment of 873 articles (clothing and unfilled ditty bags) that have been made by the large number of volunteer workers who give of their time at the sewing room. Some work on garments in their homes. During the absence of Mrs. Rice, Mrs. C. E. Roberts will supervise production.

The publication will be issued periodically, will be mailed free and will share with the families of prisoners of war and all those who are less directly but none the less keenly interested in their welfare, the information gathered by the American Red Cross from many sources about them. The first mailing list is compiled from the names of next of kin in official prisoners of war records of the proved marshal general.

A report of the hours of service for the year closing June 30, 1943, of the Hospital and Recreation corps (Gray Ladies) reformed at the Veterans facility, has just been received at the local Red Cross office. It shows 371 hours of volunteer service given the patients at that institution. Owing to the large number of patients, there is need for an increased number of Gray Ladies to assist in this work. The 1943 class should be organized soon. Information concerning the training required, hours of

Marry At Impressive Rite Tuesday

Photo by Charles Stumbo

An impressive candlelight ceremony marked the marriage of Ethel Guile, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Guile and William J. Miller, of the U. S. merchant marine, son of James Miller, Tuesday evening, June 22, at the First Baptist church. Rev. H. P. Seane performed the service before an altar flanked by tall candleabra and mixed bouquets of white snapdragons and sweet peas.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attractive in a white silk suit with navy accessories and a corsage of pink rose buds and gardenias and was attended by her sister, Verna Guile, who chose a yellow ensemble, white accessories and a corsage of gardenias and stephanotis. The bridegroom was assisted by his brother, Glenn Miller, as best man, with Gordon Stewart, Albert Weiss, and Harold Cacy as ushers.

Preceding the service "Because" and "Oh Promise Me" were sung by Mrs. Joseph Deets, accompanied by Mrs. Gordon Stewart.

Following the ceremony, a lovely reception was held at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Weiss on Main street, at which Mrs. O. J. Feldkamp, Mrs. Lewis McFee, Mrs. Arthur Travis and Loretta Bailey assisted. Barbara Ann McFee had charge of the guest book.

The rooms were attractively decorated with baskets of snapdragons and gardenia floats and the table was beautiful with a centerpiece of snapdragons encircling a large three-tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and bridegroom, of which the first piece was cut by Mr. and Mrs. William Miller. Tall ivory tapers stood on either side. Those present at the reception were: Mrs. Cowan, James Miller, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Coffel, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Travis and daughter, Janice; Mrs. Gladys Bruton and Orin Hugh of West Fir, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McFee and daughter, Barbara Ann, of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Muller, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Feldkamp and son, Jerry; William D. Gaylor, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McKeen, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Darby, Loretta Bailey, Mrs. Roy Hebard, Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Ender, Mrs. Roy Hebard, Betty Findlay, Mrs. Mable Harness, Mrs. Eva Barr, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Black, Mrs. Thomas Neal, Mrs. Bertha Blake, Harold Cacy, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Jacobs, Russell Kaine, June Geetz, Mrs. D. H. Lenox, Ruth Snoddy, Everett Davenport, Frank Street, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. James Darby, Mr. and Mrs. William Fetter, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Rapp and daughter, Sandra Kay; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Willet, Mrs. Ethel Crocker and daughter, Betty Lou; Maude Neal and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Guile.

At present the couple will make their home in San Francisco, California, where Mr. Miller is attending officers training school.

service, etc., may be obtained by calling at the local Red Cross office, 411 Perkins building.

During Roseburg's disastrous fire of a few days ago, the Canton corps served hot coffee and doughnuts to the weary firemen. Several members of the corps were also on hand at Finlay field dispensing poppers during the recent Bond Drive program. This energetic organization is always on hand at the time its service is most needed.

Before leaving on a much needed vacation, Mrs. Dexter Rice, chairman of production, made a shipment of 873 articles (clothing and unfilled ditty bags) that have been made by the large number of volunteer workers who give of their time at the sewing room. Some work on garments in their homes. During the absence of Mrs. Rice, Mrs. C. E. Roberts will supervise production.

The publication will be issued periodically, will be mailed free and will share with the families of prisoners of war and all those who are less directly but none the less keenly interested in their welfare, the information gathered by the American Red Cross from many sources about them. The first mailing list is compiled from the names of next of kin in official prisoners of war records of the proved marshal general.

A report of the hours of service for the year closing June 30, 1943, of the Hospital and Recreation corps (Gray Ladies) reformed at the Veterans facility, has just been received at the local Red Cross office. It shows 371 hours of volunteer service given the patients at that institution. Owing to the large number of patients, there is need for an increased number of Gray Ladies to assist in this work. The 1943 class should be organized soon. Information concerning the training required, hours of

Around the County

Elkton

ELKTON, July 1—Mrs. Stanley Turnowski returned Tuesday from Portland where she has been visiting during the past week.

Mrs. Jessie Ryno of Edmonds, Wash., was a house guest at the Marietta Haines home over the weekend.

J. L. Cook of Eugene was an Elkton visitor Saturday. Miss Theresa Traylor of Portland has gone to Yoncalla to visit Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McMichael. Miss Traylor has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hargan and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hargan.

Mr. and Mrs. John Terry have moved from the A. L. Butler place to the Franklin cabins.

Miss Gladys Barron, who has been working for Mr. and Mrs. Louis Frost, has returned to her home at Yoncalla.

Mr. and Mrs. Aldridge have bought the L. Kerslager place next to the river. Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Marsh have bought the old stage garage and shed. They will use the buildings in connection with the feed store.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Slagle have returned to Portland after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Slagle.

Rev. and Mrs. M. Fox have returned from Portland, where they have been attending the conference of the Methodist church. Rev. and Mrs. Fox will go to Fos-sil, Rev. Hotchkiss is being sent to take Rev. Fox place.

Bill and Stanley Smith have left for military service. Bill is entering the army and Stanley will go into the navy.

Mrs. O. W. Hancock is visiting her mother, Mrs. Marietta Haines.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jeeters have been house guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gorman the past week. Mr. Jeeters is from the Seattle Naval Base and is here for a rest.

Mrs. Dorothy Stevens, Leon Maspin, Lenore Gates and Norma Gates, of Woodland, Calif., are visiting Mrs. Edith Gates. Richard and Gates of Portland is also visiting the Gates home.

Word has been received here of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beckley.

Walter Olsen is spending a few days at his home in Forest Grove. Mr. Olsen works for the Smith Logging company.

Mrs. Elsie Wells of Cottage Grove is visiting Miss Mary Wells.

Glide

GLIDE, July 1—Miss Grace Chappell, from Portland is visiting at the Melvin home. Mrs. Floyd Hickman has gone to Eugene where she will attend the airplane recognition school for a week.

Miss Mary Grubb, Miss Molly Starkel, Norman Cameron and Harold Blakely of Portland and Wade Eggleston of Falls City were weekend guests at the Lester Blakely home.

Harry Wallen of Hollywood has arrived here to join his wife at their ranch near Glide, where he will spend several weeks vacationing.

Mrs. Hattie Boyd has sold her place on the Buckhorn road to George Smith of Roseburg. Mr. Boyd and his friend, Mrs. Osborne, will return to Los Angeles to live after staying in Roseburg for a short time. This was formerly the U. S. Barker place.

Mrs. Lester Blakely returned Thursday from Klamath Falls where she had gone to attend the funeral of a brother-in-law, J. T. McCollum.

Francis Todd of Oakland, California, transacted business on the North Umpqua last week.

Kath Bradford arrived Wednesday to visit his mother, Mrs. Gary Davis. He has been working in the shipyards in Portland, but visited relatives in Seattle prior to coming here.

Mrs. Maurice Matthews and daughter, Darlene Livingston, have gone to Pasadena to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beguhl, who recently sold their ranch at Glide, have bought the Davidson ranch at Oakland. They plan to visit in California this summer and will return in the fall to take possession of their new home.

Visitors at Idylwood over the weekend were W. A. Laurence, H. Chambers and H. Berhend, all of Dillard and F. B. Warner of Azalea.

Repairs have been completed and service restored to the 34P and 7P telephone lines, which were put out of commission by a logging truck last week.

Fred Chilson has moved to his new home which he has been constructing on property purchased from John Alexander.

Mrs. George Casebeer, Mrs. Lizzie Blakely and Mrs. Rudie Ingram went to Roseburg Sunday where they attended the Matthews family reunion held at the Harry Hatfield home.

S. Linnell is enjoying a two weeks' vacation from his work with the California Oregon Power company.

W. D. Van Horn was elected as director and H. D. Connine was retained as clerk at the school election held last Monday.

Judge Pollier has returned to his home on Little River after a business trip to Los Angeles. Mrs. Harry Harvey and daughter, Lois, of Albany, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Lane, parents of Mrs. Harvey. They have just returned from a trip to see Mr. Harvey who is stationed at Treasure Island with the U. S. navy.

A forest service pickup driven by Don Krogel collided with a car driven by Hugh Willis on the N. Umpqua road last Thursday. The accident was caused by the slick condition of the road.

Sutherlin

SUTHERLIN, July 1—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Metzler and daughter of Roseburg, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Slawson Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. William DeWitt returned to Sutherlin from Portland, Tuesday, after being gone for six weeks. Mr. DeWitt underwent a major operation and is now getting along very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale McCum of Myrtle Point and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Beamer of Camas, Oregon, were in Sutherlin Tuesday to attend the funeral of their father, George Norris.

Lewis Bratton took Mrs. I. A. Dunlap to Portland last week to enter a hospital, where she will receive medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Watson are the parents of a girl, named Laurie Lenore, born Sunday at Mercy hospital in Roseburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Deeds and son, Jimmy, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cook for a few days. Mrs. Deeds is from Springfield, Oregon, and Mr. Deeds is from Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, where he is training to be an aircraft pilot.

Mrs. Evelyn Young has been quite ill at her home this week with the mumps.

Dr. B. F. DeVore was in Sutherlin Wednesday on professional business.

Mr. and Mrs. Marian Shorey were in Eugene Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Allie Cooper. Allie's arm, which was hurt while playing ball, is getting along fine and he will be able to play ball again soon.

A large truck ran off the highway the first of the week into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Adamson, wrecking the roof and gas pumps.

Mrs. E. J. Loney and Mrs. Walter Roach shopped and visited in Roseburg Thursday.

Mrs. W. L. Manfull, Mrs. Mary Hayner, Mrs. Ray Wilkenson and daughter, Mrs. Clarence Frazer, Walter Stowe, Bobby Bratton and Lola Smith were Roseburg visitors Thursday.

Mrs. Cale has leased the Loggers cafe from Mrs. A. J. Sheets and took possession Monday.

Mr. W. Willoughby is shingling the home of Edward Launiaux.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rugg and family of Red Hill shopped in Sutherlin Monday.

Horton Thompson shopped and transacted business in Roseburg Thursday.

Mrs. J. C. Jobe of Yoncalla spent Thursday and Friday with her daughter, Mrs. William Long-Brake.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Slater and daughter, Barbara, of Coquille visited Mr. Slater's mother, Mrs. P. A. Comstock and brother, Walter Slater, Sunday and Monday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Thompson of Sutherlin and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thomas of Oakland celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary Wednesday, June 23 at the Thomas home.

The observation post of Sutherlin is interested in obtaining a slide machine, for the purpose of showing the different types of planes, as each observer is to be taught to identify every plane reported. Anyone having a machine and willing to loan it for a short while, is asked to notify Mrs. Lloyd Thompson. The post organization will be very grateful.

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Gunderson returned to Sutherlin from their vacation Thursday and expect to get settled soon.